Scholar on Black Identity Speaker to honor MLK legacy at Clark College

Clark College will honor the teachings of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. on Wednesday, Jan. 18, with "Transformation: A New Era of Social Activism," a keynote address delivered by Rosa Clemente, a scholar on black identity.

The event, which is free and open to the public, will be held in Gaiser Student Center on Clark's main Vancouver campus from noon to 1:30 p.m.

Clemente is co-founder of the National Hip-Hop Political Convention and a leading scholar on Afro-Latinx identity. From Harvard to prisons, she has spent her life dedicated to scholar activism.

She is currently a doctoral student in the W.E.B. Dubois department of University of Massachusetts-Amherst. Throughout her scholarly career, she has been a constant presence through the many political struggles facing black people and persons of Latin American descent in the 21st century.

She has sat on various boards throughout her career including Black Lives Matter, the National Priorities Project, The Brecht Forum, and the National Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty. Additionally, Clemente served as the Green Party's candidate for Vice President in the 2008 U.S. election.
