Spike Lee's Sentimental 'Crooklyn'

RuPaul in a brief, but memorable cameo dances seductively with a store customer in "Crooklyn," considered one of Spike Lee's best movies, a sentimental remembrance of growing up in 1970s Brooklyn. The NW Film Center at the Portland Art Museum will screen the 1994 classic on Sunday, April 9 at 7 p.m. as part of its Black Cinema series.
