A Showcase in Versatility

GMC's premium truck Denali and its versatile line-up of styles and trim levels was recently showcased during a special promotion for reporters, editors and publishers in Bend.

The exciting event was filled with daytime and evening adventures and showed the versatility of the 2017-2018 Denali line, models like the Terrain Denali, Arcadia Denali, Canyon Denali and Sierra 1500.

GMC is the only premium truck and utility brand of its kind. The growing portfolio is highlighted by bold, capable and precisely crafted trucks and SUVs. Overall vehicle quality is the top purchase reason of buyers, according to surveys, which show drivers committed to purposeful technology and engineering excellence.

GMC's popular Denali sub-brand also performs like a luxury brand. Denali sales have represented more than a quarter of GMC retail sales and are continuing to grow, outselling the entire product lines of some premium automakers, including Land Rover, Jaguar and Porsche.
