Inspired by Rebellious Women

Clackamas Community College will host "Lessons from the Dark," an exhibit of paintings inspired by a California-based artist's fascination with rebellious women from the movies.

Leslie Nemour's works capture rebellious personas of women in roles such as tomboys, sex kittens, aristocrats and servants, all using projector screens as her canvases. Her compositions explore the validity of both heroic and unscrupulous characters.

'Change', a Leslie Nemour oil painting from 2009, depicts Barack and Michelle Obama in Chicago after the Obama's election as president.
