Tradeswomen Career Fair Coming

The nonprofit Oregon Tradeswomen will hold their annual career fair next month where career seekers can learn about job training opportunities, apprenticeships and job openings at local companies and organizations.

The May 19 event will be held at the NECA-IBEW Electrical Training Center, 1602 N.E. Airport Way from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Participants will also have the opportunity to learn skills in hands-on workshops and meet employers and successful tradeswomen.

The Building Industry in Oregon is experiencing a worker shortage. Oregon Tradeswomen's annual career fair is an unparalleled opportunity to find out how you can earn wages while you learn without the debt of college.

For more information, contact Oregon Tradeswomen at 503-335-8200 or visit tradeswomen.net.

Meals on Wheels Walk, Festivities

Meals on Wheels People invites you to join them for live music, food and entertainment on Sunday, April 22, when they host a non-competitive 3K walk at Portland International Raceway to raise awareness and funds for the nutritious meals they serve older adults.

The event will begin at 10 a.m. and conclude at 1 p.m. and will include live music, a kids zone, food, entertainment and a walkers village with a variety of vendor booths. Entertainment will feature Bebop and Beyond, Jefferson

High School Heatwave Band, Big Bad Beat and Ronnie Carrier.

Other attractions include a juggler, balloon animal artist, face painting, and arts and crafts. The event will also feature a pancake breakfast for all participants. More than 1,000 people are expected to attend.

Walking teams and individuals are encouraged to register at strideforseniors.org. Awards will be made to the team and individual who raise the most money for Meals on Wheels People. For more information or to register, visit strideforseniors.org.
