Principal Engineer - Water

Salary
$8,815.00 - $11,757.00 Monthly

Closing
6/4/2018 11:59 PM Pacific Time

The Position
The Principal Engineer is responsible for overseeing one of the divisions in ESG. There are five divisions each with roughly 20 to 30 employees and are divided into Planning, Design, Construction, Technical Services and Special Projects. Positions are rotated periodically so that each Principal may oversee each Division in their career. Each Principal Engineer is responsible for overseeing the staff including developing program budgets and performance metrics; directly managing large water infrastructure projects that require higher technical, communication and political awareness; and assisting the Chief Engineer in setting policy, guidance and direction within the ESG to meet the bureau's strategic goals.
