Stunning Original Dance

Portland's NW Dance Project presents "Summer Performances," three stunning and original dance works coming Thursday, June 14 to Saturday, June 16 with 7:30 p.m. shows at Lincoln Performance Hall on the Portland State University campus, down-

Included will be a world premiere by Ihsan Rustem, NW Dance's resident choreographer which follows the smash success of his original "Carmen" last year; "MemoryHouse," the signature, dramatic duet by NW

Dance Project Artistic Director Sarah Slipper; and "This Time Tomorrow," by Danielle Agami, founder and artistic director for the Ate9 dance company.

Tickets are $34 to $58 and available by visiting nwdanceproject.org or calling 503-828-8285.

Flag Day at Fort Vancouver

The Fort Vancouver National Site near downtown Vancouver will once again celebrate Flay Day with a free family event on Thursday, June 14. The celebration will begin at 5 p.m. at the bandstand and include a presentation of the colors and the raising of the Garrison flag, the largest size American flag used by the army.
