A Habit Forming Musical

You're invited to join the Little Sisters of Hoboken for a hysterical-haphazard variety show to raise emergency funds for the convent. The Rose Theatre Company opens its new season of musicals with "Nunsense" at the Broadway Rose New Stage in Tigard, located at 12850 S.W. Grant Ave.

With hilarious talent acts, tongue-in-cheek musical numbers, and help from the audience, Nunsense has blessed theatregoers worldwide for over 30 years and is the second longest-running Off-Broadway show in history.

A preview performance is Thursday, Jan. 24 with opening night on Friday, Jan. 25, and performances continuing through Feb. 24.

For tickets, visit broadwayrose.org, call 503-620-5262, or visit the box office.

Following Your Own Bliss

Oregon Children's Theater presents a play that exposes the truth about being yourself and wearing it well. The 'Naked Mole Rat Gets Dressed: The Rock Experience' tells the story of Wilbur who was just like all the other naked mole rats - naked - until the day an ordinary hat falls into his tunnel. Wilbur dares to try it on and his life changes forever. Shows continue through Feb. 17 at the Newmark Theater, downtown. For tickets, call 503-288-9571, visit octc.org or the box office at 1111 S.W. Broadway.
