Films to Watch or Avoid at PIFF

credible or sympathetic--and what makes us cringe. Still, the film somehow also lacks a point of view and a heart. It plays at Whitsell Auditorium on March 13 and 14.

"The Heiresses" offers an unusual window into privileged Paraguayan society. Two women from wealthy backgrounds face reduced circumstances and legal troubles and are forced to sell off furniture and fixtures. When Chiquita, the more adaptable of the two, is imprisoned for fraud, depressed and isolated Chela begins venturing out of her comfort zone to drive wealthy friends to their various amusements. This is the sort of film my sweetheart used to refer to as depicting a slight shift in perspective--but there are some interesting observations here about longing and being stuck. It plays at Whitsell Auditorium on March 16 and Cinemagic on March 21.
