Rockwood Juneteenth Celebration

Beyond Black, a community development corporation that aims to strengthen the African American and black community in the Rockwood neighborhood of Gresham, invites the community to a Juneteenth celebration at Vance Park, 1400 S.E. 182nd Ave., on Wednesday June 19 from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Juneteenth is the oldest known celebration commemorating when slavery was abolished throughout the entire United States. Beyond Black CDC invites the entire Rockwood, Gresham and East County community to join them for the festivities, as there will be live entertainment, fireworks, food, educational and cultural booths, and more. There will also be booths run by the Multnomah County Library, Multnomah County's Healthy Birth Initiative program, and more.

Beyond Black hopes this event will draw on and accommodate the many former residents of north and northeast Portland who have been pushed to reside further east by gentrification.

Columbia Gorge Express

Bus service to popular Columbia Gorge locations begins its fourth summer season. The Oregon Department of Transportation bus now operates year-round, but started its expanded summer schedule this month with eight departures a day from the Gateway Transit Center to Rooster Rock State Park and Multnomah Falls. Gorge visitors can reach the Columbia Gorge Express from anywhere on the TriMet system. For more information, go to Columbiagorgeexpress.com.

Adams High Reunion at 50 Years

The 50th anniversary of the opening of Portland's most controversial — and shortest-lived — public high school is this year. To celebrate, alumni and former faculty and staff are invited to a two-event all-class reunion.

John Adams High School opened in 1969 in northeast Portland. It was an "experimental" school that was the brainchild of a team of Harvard PhD students. The school closed in 1981 due to low enrollment.

"Many former students are still deeply connected to the experience they had at Adams," said Rosemary Hardin, reunion committee chair and a member of the class of 1976, "so we're honoring that experience and we're going to party like it's 1969."

The celebration will include a no-host cocktail social and dance Aug. 2 at Columbia Edge-water Country Club. Tickets are available at adamshs-pdx.com. They will not be sold at the door. The deadline to buy tickets is July 1.

On Aug. 3, the reunion celebration moves to Columbia Park for a free potluck picnic at 11 a.m. at Picnic Area D. Alumni and former faculty and staff can just show up with a dish to share; no sign-up required. Columbia Park is located at North Lombard Street and Woolsey Avenue.
