Seats filled for Author's Talk

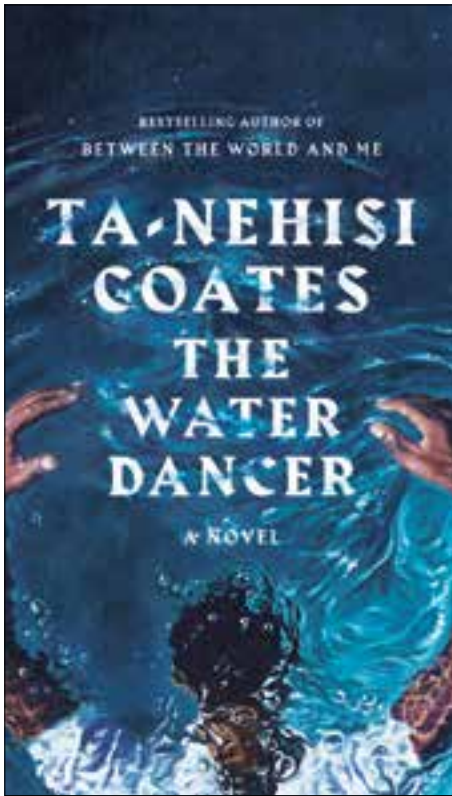

It will be a big night when award-winning journalist and best-selling author Ta-Nehisi Coates comes to Portland for a Monday, Oct. 21 conversation at the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall with best-selling author and Portland native Renee Watson. The Literary Arts-sponsored event is sold out.

Coates is celebrating his latest book, The Water Dancer, a boldly imagined work of magic and adventure that offers a bracingly original vision of the world of slavery.

Coates is a distinguished writer in residence at New York University's Arthur L. Carter Journalism Institute. He is the author of the best-selling books The Beautiful Struggle, We Were Eight Years in Power and Between the World and Me, which won the National Book Award in 2015. He is also the current author of the Marvel comics The Black Panther and Captain America.
