

Hip Hop Infused – Guided by a hip-hop dance class chorus, Brittany K. Allen stars in her play ‘Redwood’ at Portland Center Stage at the Armory. The story centers on a young black woman’s relationship with her white boyfriend that is thrown into turmoil by the discovery that his ancestors enslaved her ancestors. Opening Friday, Nov. 1 and playing through Nov. 17. For tickets, visit pcs.org or call 503-445-3700.

All Things Being Equal – A thought-provoking look at how art can show how modern culture perpetuates discrimination, titled “All Things Being Equal” by African American artist Hank Willis Thomas, runs through Jan. 12 at the Portland Art Museum. Features more than 90 works, including sculptures based on archival photographs, quilts constructed from sports jerseys and prison uniforms, video installations, and more.

Fighting for the Right to Fight: African American Experiences in World War II – On loan from the National WWII Museum through Jan. 12, The Oregon Historical Society, downtown, presents exhibit on the African American experience in World War II and in the Civil Rights era following the war.

Discover the Shocking Truth – Two brothers launch a ghost-hunting business and investigate the home of a black couple displaced by Hurricane Katrina and haunted by a terrifying spirit in “The Brothers Paranormal.” Co-produced by Portland’s CoHo Productions and Theatre Diaspora and now showing through Nov. 16 at CoHo Theater, 2257 N.W. Raleigh.

Science Fiction Film Festival – The Oregon Museum of Science and Industry Sci-Fi Film Festival is in full swing showcasing more than 25 of science fiction’s most memorable films on the Empirical Theater’s giant four-story tall screen. Screenings run through Nov. 6. For a complete schedule, visit omsi.edu.

Macbeth – Local favorites Chantal DeGroat, Dana Green and Lauren Bloom Hanover star in a piercing, stripped-down production of Macbeth, Shakespeare’s infamous tale of political gluttony and supernatural vengeance. Now showing through Nov. 24 at Portland Center Stage at The Armory. Tickets at pcs.org or call 503-445-3700.

Norman Sylvester Band – The “Boogie Cat” Norman Sylvester Band plays Saturday, Nov. 2 at 4 p.m. for the Trail’s End Saloon Shiner’s Hospital benefit; Wednesday, Nov. 6 at Billy Blues in Vancouver; Friday, Nov. 8 at the Hillsboro Elks Lodge for members and guests; and on Saturday, Nov. 9 at the Spare Room.

A Clash of Cultures – “Madama Butterfly,” a powerful opera that forces American audiences to consider our history, culture and the unknown victims of our past foreign policy, plays Thursday, Oct. 31 and Saturday, Nov. 2 at Keller Auditorium. Stars internationally acclaimed soprano Hiromi Omura in the title role. Visit portlandopera.org or call 503-241-1802.

Angola Independence – The Angola Community of Oregon invites you to join in celebration of Angola’s 44 years of independence on Saturday, Nov. 9, 2019 from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Prosper Portland, 222 N.W. Fifth Ave. Enjoy traditional Angolan food and drinks and African and Caribbean beats. For tickets, go online to Eventbrite.com or call 503-773-8981.

Zoo for All – The Oregon Zoo has launched “Zoo for All,” a discount program that provides $5 admission for low income individuals and families. Visitors may purchase up to six of the $5 tickets by bringing a photo ID and documentation showing they participate in low income service, like the Oregon Trial Card, Medicaid, Section 8, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families, and Head Start.

Discount Tickets – Low income families and individuals can purchase $5 tickets to classical musical performances in Portland as part of a unique program called Music for All. Participating organizations include the Oregon Symphony, Portland Opera, Oregon Ballet Theater, Chamber Music Northwest, Portland Youth Philharmonic, Portland Baroque Orchestra, Friends of Chamber Music, Portland Chamber Orchestra, Portland Piano International, Portland Symphonic Choir, Cappella Romana and Portland Vocal Consort.

Help Prepare Thanksgiving Meals

Meals on Wheels, the non-profit that delivers nutritious meals to older citizens every day, could use a little help for Thanksgiving when they plan to deliver nearly 2,800 hot turkey dinners to homebound seniors on Thanksgiving Day. Volunteers are needed to both pack the meals and make deliveries. The menu includes roast turkey and gravy, cranberry relish, mashed potatoes, sweet potatoes, stuffing, peas and pearl onions, and pumpkin pie with whipped cream on top.

To register to volunteer, go to mowp.org/volunteer, and for more information call Meals on Wheels at 503-736-6325.
