

Fire Chief on Dr. King's Message

ferent, is that if somebody's life is not in immediate harm, we have time," she said. "We have time to be compassionate because we're not treating the emergency heart attack where we have no time, we just have time to stabilize and transport."

Boone said most emergency calls to Portland Fire & Rescue are concerning chronic health issues, mental health issues and substance use disorders.

"So that is a big area where first responders have to identify what is the right need and then what is the appropriate resource," she said. "And it's not the emergency room, because it's not life threatening, but it's how you navigate the health care system. And so that's where I think of Dr. King and his message, that you have to think of others first."

COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTER

North by Northeast Community Health Center is the only clinic in Oregon focused on African American health.

We provide welcoming, high quality health care to adults who have Oregon Health Plan. Since 2006, our priority has been to serve the local African American community and to reduce the deadly effects of high blood pressure and diabetes. We are accepting new patients, and if you're uninsured, we can help you get covered!

"Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'What are you doing for others?'"

Every day, CareOregon goes beyond health care to look at the whole person. That's why we work to provide health care, housing support, fresh food, education and more.

Healthier people make stronger communities.
That's the CareOregon Effect.
