

Prosper Portland's commitment to equity is inspired by the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

We acknowledge our past as we move forward to create economic opportunity and prosperity for all communities.

We make racial equity the foundation of our community and economic development work.

We hold ourselves accountable to Portland's communities of color and others our work has negatively impacted.

While racial equity is the primary lens to focus our efforts, we understand the connection between racism and other forms of bias that lead to oppression.

Within our workplace and working with our partners, we embrace values of authentic inclusion, transparency, and collaboration.

We work toward nothing less than an anti-racist Portland that welcomes and serves all communities and perspectives. We encourage our partners to do the same.

NAACP Screens Film on Justice

The Vancouver NAACP will celebrate the national Martin Luther King Jr. holiday by sponsoring a public screening of "Just Mercy" a new film about a young black lawyer, a recent Harvard graduate, as he defends an innocent man accused of murder.

Starring Jamie Foxx, Brie Larson and Michael B. Jordan, the movie tells the story of poor black men being railroaded into death sentences while encountering racism and legal and political maneuverings.

The screening will take place Monday, Jan. 20 at 3:30 p.m. at the Vancouver Mall AMC movie theater. Tickets are $10.06 per person and available on the Vancouver NAACP website at naacpvancouverwa.org.
