Golf Program Applications

Portland-area high school freshman are encouraged to earn wages and school credit this summer by participating in the Eagle Caddie Program, a cooperative venture between Portland Parks and Recreation, the Western Golf Association Evans Scholars Foundation, and local public and private high schools.

Experience in the game of golf is not required. Qualified students are paid an hourly wage as golf caddies on Portland Parks Golf courses. EAGLE caddies receive work credit hours with mentors to monitor students' progress.

“The EAGLE program is a wonderful way for young people to gain work experience, learn about golf, and to see firsthand the wonderful opportunities available with Portland Parks & Recreation,” says PP&R Director Adena Long. “I encourage all qualified high school students to apply and get valuable job experience. Portland Parks Golf is making the lifelong game more accessible to all players.”

The deadline for EAGLE applications is May 1. For more information on the program, contact PP&R's Carolyn Lee at carolyn.lee@portlandoregon.gov or 503-823-5076.
