On the Move to Helping Ministry reaches out for food box distributions

The Portland Observer was pleased to participate in a special food box distribution to help people facing food insecurity during COVID-19. On Saturday, March 27, nearly 300 boxes of donated food got handed out to people in need because to the help of volunteers from Straightway Services and On the Move Ministries. Thanks to Pastor Dwight Minnieweather, Mark Washington, Minister Johnny Bradford and so many others for coming together to make this event possible.
