Hope Center to Double Capacity

Donation supports site

A donation from MacKenzie Scott, the former wife of Amazon founder Jeff Bezos, will support Portland's houseless community with a grant of $1.2 million going to the Bybee Lakes Hope Center via the United Way of the Columbia-Willamette charity.

The contribution will double the capacity of the transitional housing facility in north Portland, from 126 to 318 beds. The former and never used Wapato jail was purchased from the county by Portland business leader Jordan Schnitzer and is currently run by the Oregon nonprofit Helping Hands Reentry Outreach Centers.

United Way of the Columbia-Willamette is announcing a $1.2 million donation to the Bybee Lakes Hope Center, a transitional housing facility in north Portland that moved into the former and unused Wapato Jail in 2020, supporting Portland's houseless community.

Deputies Cleared in Fatal Shooting

(AP) — Authorities have concluded that the fatal shooting of Kevin Peterson Jr., a Black man killed by Clark County sheriff's deputies in Vancouver's Hazel Dell neighborhood during an undercover drug investigation, was "justified and lawful."

Mary Robnett, the prosecuting attorney in adjoining Pierce County, reviewed the case for criminal charges, finding Peterson was armed when he fled his car, retrieved a weapon after dropping it despite police commands to leave it, and pointed it at police.

Peterson's family members denounced Robnett's conclusion in a statement through their attorney, Mark Lindquist.

Anderson and Deputies Jonathan Feller and Jeremy Brown fired a total of 34 rounds, striking Peterson four times, investigators said.
