

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 5

2022 Year In Review

CONTINUED ON PAGE 11

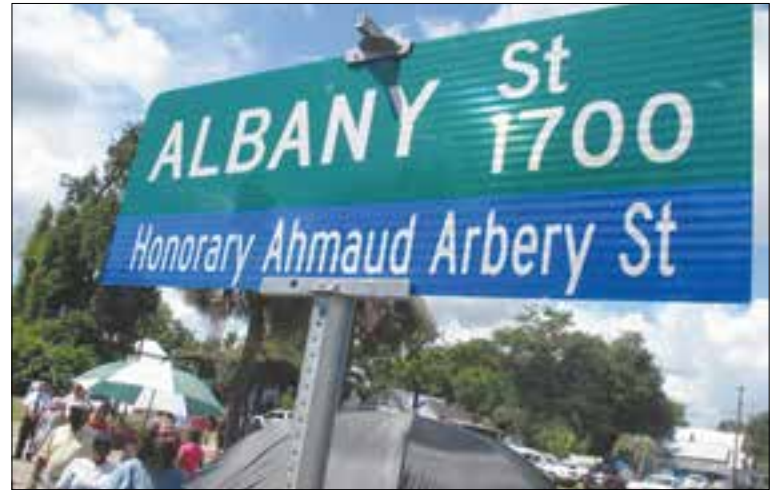

Star Trek Actress Passes at 89

Aug. 3 - Nichelle Nichols, who broke barriers for Black women in Hollywood as communications officer Lt. Uhura on the original "Star Trek" television series died July 30, 2022 in Silver City, New Mexico. Her role in the 1966-69 series earned Nichols a life-long position of honor with the series' rabid fans, known as Trekkers and Trekkies.

Inferno Ravages the Roseway Theater

Aug. 17 - Fire shuts down local entertainment for community in Portland. Just before 6:00am on Saturday morning of Aug. 6, 2022, Portland firefighters were summoned to a three-alarm fire at the nearly decade-old Roseway Theater on Northeast Sandy Boulevard. Although the smokejumpers were eventually able to defeat the blaze, the impact it has left on the building has caused uncertainty due its appearance.

Justice Finally for Ahmaud Arbery

Aug. 17 - The white father and son who chased and killed Ahmaud Arbery in a Georgia neighborhood each received a second life prison sentence for committing federal hate crimes, months after getting their first for murder at a hearing that brought a close to more than two years of criminal proceedings.

Largest Race Discrimination Verdict in Oregon

Sept. 7 - Multnomah County grand jury ordered Walmart to pay $4.4 million in damages to a man who sued the store, saying he was racially profiled and harassed by a Walmart employee. In a lawsuit filed against the retail giant last year, Michael Mangum alleges that he was followed around a Walmart at a Portland, Oregon, area store in 2020.

Tragedy Strikes at Local College

Sept. 7 - One student killed and two others were injured in column collapse on campus. A brick column fell inward causing it to collapse at Lewis & Clark College in Southwest Portland killing a 19 year old male student and injuring two 18 year old women. The college confirmed all three were students.

Looking for health coverage for you and your family?

We'll light the way.

Visit OregonHealthCare.gov

