

Obituary

Around the late 1960's Dorothy changed careers and worked for the Multnomah County Library at the Albina branch on N. Russell St. And for a few years in the early 1970's she worked for the City of Portland for the Portland Development Commission directly under Charles Jordan. Dorothy finished out her nursing career by going back to work at Emmanuel Hospital as a CNA around 1973-1974 until she retired from there in 1980. But she was not done being of service to others as she worked for a few years for the local American Red Cross across from the hospital assisting with blood draws. She also worked for various home care health agencies up until she was around 75 years old.

Mama Dorothy was a people person who truly enjoyed laughter and good conversation with family, friends and random people she would meet. She loved to read, garden in the backyard when she was able and loved to go fishing at the drop of the hat!

Dorothy was the last of her family to pass away as she was preceded in death by her parents, both husbands and all her brothers and sisters. She is also preceded in death by her first son Nathaniel. She is survived by her son Joe Wayne Rogers and stepchildren that she raised, Jerry Rogers and Gail Robinson. She also acknowledges the children raised from Teddy's previous relationships: Kenny Adair, Donny Adair, Johnny Moore, Jahad Moore and Charlotte Moore. She is also survived by 7 grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and family.
