Lions and Tigers and Beer!

Oregon Zoo will kick off summer with two festive nights for the 21+ crowd, June 9-10

'ZooBrew' Tickets on sale now

ZooBrew, presented by Alaska Airlines, is back! The Oregon Zoo's annual beer-tasting festival returns June 9-10, with samples from more than 40 Northwest breweries plus live music, keeper chats, lawn games and more.

"If you've ever wondered what the zoo would be like without the kids, ZooBrew is for you," said Mickey Webb, the zoo's director of events.

Admission includes a souvenir glass and 10 tasting tickets. Food will be available for purchase from some of the area's favorite food carts as well as zoo food outlets. Festivities begin at 6:30 p.m. (5:30 p.m. for early-entry ticket holders), and taps will be pouring until 9:30 p.m.

"It's the perfect way to kick off the summer, sample some new beers and support a great cause," Webb said. "Proceeds benefit the zoo's programs for species recovery, animal well-being and conservation education, so people can come together for wildlife and have a fun time."

ZooBrew typically sells out quickly, according to Webb, and purchasing tickets early is recommended. Tickets are on sale now and must be reserved online in advance. For more information and to purchase tickets, go to oregonzoo.org/events/zoobrew.

ZooBrew is exclusive to guests 21 and over. Valid photo ID must be presented for entry. Zoo admission will close to regular visitors at 2:30 p.m. both days in preparation for ZooBrew. Guests already on grounds can remain until 4 p.m.

As part of Metro, the Oregon Zoo helps make greater Portland a great place to call home. Committed to conservation, the zoo is working to save endangered California condors, northwestern pond turtles, Oregon silverspot and Taylor's checkerspot butterflies, and northern leopard frogs.

Support from the Oregon Zoo Foundation enhances and expands the zoo's efforts in conservation, education and animal welfare. Members, donors and corporate and foundation partners help the zoo make a difference across the region and around the world. To contribute, go to oregonzoo.org/give.
