Dog-Friendly Market Runs Every Saturday until September 30

Rocky Butte Farmers Market (RBFM), an iconic urban neighborhood market featuring affordable locally grown foods and artisan products, as well as weekly children's activities, live entertainment, and a dog-friendly, energetic block party vibe is back!

RBFM will run from 9 am to 1 pm every Saturday until September 30. The market is located in the spacious parking lot of Manna-house Church, 9200 NE Fremont Street. Trimet Bus #24 at NE Fremont & 88th heading downtown or NE Fremont & 89th heading toward Gateway, is the closest public transportation option. Market organizers are thrilled to announce new and returning vendors this season, offering everything from local produce, meat & fish to pottery and handcrafted goods.

"We pride ourselves on offering a space for community building and growing connections, in addition to supporting local farmers and talented makers," said Benjamin Cutler, co-founder and board President. "Rocky Butte Farmers Market is much more than a place of commerce. Come meet your neighbors, make new friends, interact with vendors and entertainers, and join us in further strengthening what we already love about our unique neighborhoods."

Well-behaved dogs are allowed in all areas of the market, which offers fresh water and treats at the info booth for pups. Fun and educational children's programming is offered weekly and is suitable for all ages. Market-goers ages 3-13 who stop by the Kids Patch each get a FREE $5 token to spend during their visit! Rocky Butte Farmers Market proudly accepts Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program (SNAP) and offers Double Up Food Bucks through a partnership with the Farmers Market Fund.
