

Saving Lives by Changing Lives!

Global Movement Network Kids offers counseling and life skills programs. They have workforce development programs. Individuals seeking drug and alcohol treatment can receive referrals. Those experiencing housing hardships can be supported with help seeking shelter along with other services. The people involved in the business are Mr. Jerry "Love" Manns SR., Michael Mangum and Rich Hunter, and I. They also receive help from local volunteer workers. Jerry "Love" Manns in a statement said "The most important message I want to give new customers is that I want to help save lives. I want to get our youth off the streets. I want to support them in getting their lives together to become productive citizens. I want to encourage them to attend college and if that doesn't interest them, I would like to suggest seeking a trade skill that offers advanced training. With all the dysfunction going on in the streets, I want to redirect them and offer an alternative route to what seems impossible. I want the youth to know that there is more to life than negativity. I want them to see me and realize there is hope! If I can change my life and make a difference you have the same opportunities. I want to give them better opportunities than I had. I want them to see that someone that looks like them does care. I want to give them hope, drive, and ambition that will ultimately lead to a bet-

COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTER

Black Health Matters

North by Northeast Community Health Center is the only clinic in Oregon devoted to African American health. We provide welcoming, high quality health care to adults who have Oregon Health Plan. Since 2006, our priority has been to serve the local African American community and to reduce the deadly effects of high blood pressure and diabetes. We are accepting new patients, and if you're uninsured, we can help you get covered!
