TriMet Adds Staff to Increase Safety

TriMet's expanded agreement with the DA's office holds criminals accountable while improving overall community safety

District Attorney Staff added to hold criminals accountable and improving safety for riders

Multnomah County Deputy District Attorney Julian Samuels plays an important role in increasing safety for TriMet riders and employees. He's one of two deputies DA's now working to hold people accountable for crimes committed against TriMet riders, employees or property. As a regular TriMet rider, Deputy DA Samuels understands the value TriMet's transit service provides in connecting people with jobs and services throughout our tri-county region—and he understands the need for it to be safe. Prosecuting criminals for acts they commit on TriMet's transit system increases safety for everyone in the communities we serve. TriMet has a long-standing in-

Springdale-PIVOT Recognizes Graduates

Grad with Alondra and Sierra

First Graduation Ceremony Since COVID-19

Twenty-five Springdale-PIVOT Job Corps graduates took the stage at Mt. Hood Community College amidst supportive cheers from family, friends, and staff members. The ceremony recognized students from 2019-2023, bringing together Job Corps alums and recent graduates in the first graduation ceremony since the COVID-19 pandemic in early 2020. The packed auditorium audience included current Springdale-PIVOT Job Corps students as well as friends, family, and staff who helped support graduates throughout their time at Job Corps.

At a luncheon held before the graduation, past and present stu-
