

Meeting Needs By Coming Together

Michael Martin, Latoya Minnieweather, Pastor Dwight Minnieweather, Berry Taylor, Wendy Collins and Larry Collins. Photo By Mark Washington SR.

Basketball camps, Community feed and more

Straightway Services non-profit organization was established in 2002. With a cultural pacific traumatic reentry program in Portland Oregon helping every at-risk community since 2013. As of January 2023 Straightway Services, The Portland Observer Newspaper, Just Men In Recovery, POPA and On The Move Ministry as decided to come together as one to be able to further meet our community needs with such events like back-to-school drives, basketball camps and jobs for at risk youth, Thanksgiving food boxes and community feed, we will be partnering again this Christmas with a dinner and toy drive on Dec 23rd location and time will be located on our website at Straightwayservices.org.

OREGON PROBLEM GAMBLING RESOURCE

OPGR

HELP FOR PEOPLE AFFECTED BY GAMBLING

HABIT CHECK

Habits can bring positive momentum to our lives. They help us do regular tasks without devoting too much mental energy to them. But for the same reason, habits can cause us to prolong behaviors that no longer serve our best interests. If gambling has become a habit for you – or a loved one – help is available.

CHANGE YOUR HABITS WITH OPGR

If you want to change how you gamble, reach out. Oregon Problem Gambling Resource (OPGR) has trained counselors who specialize in supporting people affected by gambling. They can help you explore new choices and get you back in the driver's seat when it comes to gambling. Call, text or chat. You can feel better about gambling – starting today.

For more information, visit OPGR.org

