

A CHARTER FAVORED

MEETING CALLED TO DENOUNCE RESOLUTIONS TO ENDORSE.

Remarkable Result of the Call for Citizens to Assemble and Oppose Legislation.

Those who engineered the call for a meeting last night at Grand Army hall, to protest against charter legislation of any description, must be a disappointed set of men over the results of the gathering.

Not one of the above signers were present at the meeting last night. There was not a representative large taxpayer or business man, with one single exception.

During the gathering of the crowd, Mrs. Woodcock, of Cameron's addition, the irrepressible enemy of all kinds of taxes, made several attempts to deliver a speech.

Mr. Joseph Teal was the next speaker, and he was attentively listened to throughout. He had not attended the meeting for the purpose of taking any part, unless some one should appear who he could be of service.

Mr. C. K. Henry was loudly called for and, appearing on the platform, warmly endorsed the original charter of the Committee of One Hundred.

COUPLE ELOPES.

Dr. Gaff, of Albina, and Police Judge Smith's Daughter Disappear.

Seventeen-year-old Maggie Smith, eldest daughter of Municipal Judge Smith, has been missing from her home since last Wednesday.

The missing girl has been suffering from ear trouble for three or four years, and for a year or more has been in the habit of going to Dr. Gaff's office, at the corner of Williams avenue and Russell street, Albina, every day for treatment.

It was in Maggie's handwriting, and told the story of her shame and elopement with the doctor. It was a pathetic note—just such as a confiding school girl would write to her mother.

Gaff had evidently not seen the contents of this letter, for he only expected to be absent from the city for a few days, and had made careful preparations to cover up his tracks.

When asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced, Kelly stood up and, addressing the court, spoke as follows:

"This whole thing is a job of Detective Welch and Larry Sullivan. I had nothing whatever to do with killing George W. Sayres. Sayres burned me about the neck, and in his confession to Chief Minto, told him that on the night they say the murder occurred, he saw me in a wagon with Bob Garrison.

There is but little doubt but that the girl has been hidden away in some quiet nook, where it was the doctor's intention to visit her at intervals, when his absence from home would not be noticed.

It is commonly reported that Gaff had a similar affair once before. It is said that he was formerly a resident of Denver, and left a family there to elope with his servant girl.

A visit to the theater yesterday showed the house-clearing to be well under way. A force of men was busy scrubbing out the auditorium.

The question before us tonight is, What charter do we want? I believe you will say that of the Committee of One Hundred, but if not, you will say we would rather keep the one we have than have Joe Simon's charter.

Mr. Joseph Teal then introduced the following resolution, which was almost unanimously adopted, there being but few dissenting votes.

Resolved, by the citizens of Portland in mass meeting assembled, that they endorse the charter as prepared originally by the Committee of One Hundred and so respectfully ask the legislative assembly of the state of Oregon to enact said charter into a law.

KELLY NOW A "LIFER"

SAYRES' MURDERER SENTENCED BY JUDGE STEPHENS.

Motion for a New Trial on the Ground of Newly-Discovered Evidence—Church Suit.

"Bunco" Kelly was yesterday sentenced by Judge Stephens to the penitentiary for the balance of his natural life. Previous to his sentence, Judge Caples, attorney for Kelly, argued a motion for a new trial, which was overruled.

Judge Caples, as a ground for a new trial, said the defense had newly-discovered evidence, which they were not then prepared to submit and did not know of at the time the trial was held.

In regard to the claim of Kelly that he did not go to prison on September 25, Judge Caples introduced an affidavit from Scott Beebe, the lawyer, that Kelly was at his house at Seventh and Alder streets on the evening of September 25, to see about collecting a note for $125 he had against a Chinese firm in Oregon City.

When asked if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced, Kelly stood up and, addressing the court, spoke as follows:

LOOKS LIKE A MURDER.

How Did Joseph Odell Get That Stab in the Neck?

Grave suspicions are entertained by Coroner Cornelius that a murder was committed in the case of Joseph Odell, who was found Friday afternoon by the side of the Cornell road, with a deep cut in the side of his neck, and in a dazed condition.

Odell was discovered about one-half mile west from the city, on the Cornell road, by two boys, Charlie Raybor and George Ernest. He was lying alongside of a log a short distance from the road, and was conscious.

Contractors Lien on Centenary Methodist Removed.

The report of Referee Thomas O'Day in the suit of Godfrey & Stockford vs. the Centenary M. E. church, of East Portland, was confirmed yesterday by Judge Shattuck.
