VOL. XIV-NO. 7.

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 17, 1895,

When A Friend Gets Married

And you seek a suitable present, something elegant, and about which no question as to its quality can ever be raised, come and see this stock of

Elegant Cut Glassware Solid Silverware

Rich in design and modern in style. I have a most complete selection and offer all goods at prices within your reach. My entire stock of Cut Glass will be closed out at less than cost until the day of removal to my new store.

On Tuesday, Feb. 19, I will remove to the new and elegant store at 153 Third street, Golden Rule Bazaar Building.

Theo. W. Hansen

SILVERSMITH

271 MORRISON STREET BETWEEN THIRD AND FOURTH.

E. C. GODDARD & CO

SPECIAL FOR MONDAY

We have received spring stock of Men's Bicycle Shoes.

One of those fine pencil-boxes given free with Boys' and Girls' Shoes, at $1.50

129 SIXTH STREET, - - OREGONIAN BUILDING

Actina will positively and permanently cure every disease known to the eye, in very wurst form, no matter how long standing. The home company

CUARANTEES A CURE. During the past seven years people have come to us with every conceivable, end some nearly blind for years have been restored to perfect sight.

ACTINA CURES CATARRH. Over Twenty-three thousand people in the United States and Canada have been permanently cured of this troublesome complaint by Actina. If you are suffering, son't delay longer. A cure is within your reach,

A Valuable Book Tree on Application—Contains Treatise on the Ruman System, its bireases and Dure. Theusands of Testimonia's or References.

NEW YORK AND LONDON ELECTRIC ASSOCIATION, J. E. REIN, Agent, . Rosm S. Raleigh Black, PORYLAND, ORDIGON,

NEW GOODS, SPECIALLY ATTRACTIVE

This week We will display Leading styles in

SILK WAISTS: COTTON WAISTS; ENGLISH CAPE CLOTHS: NOVELTY SILKS;

INDIA SILKS-very much above their predecessors both in quality and patterns.

BLACK DRESS GOODS -- a line of handsome new styles at 75c, the quality last season $1.25; exemplifies the attractions of the Black Goods section.

DOMESTIC DRESS GOODS-take a large part in the grand display and are phenomenally cheap.

NEW THINGS IN DRESS LININGS

See and choose before the bloom of novelty is brushed from our stocks of

FANCY BLOUSE FLANNELS OUTING FLANNELS GINGHAMS and fine CALICOS.

The spring and summer STANDARD FASHION CATALOGUE

MARCH PATTERNS

Are now in, and forethoughtful women are now making up their wash dresses.

THE WHITE GOODS Merit special separate mentionthey're fresh in patterns and of a heretofore unknown cheapness.

This week Our Shoe Department Has a special attraction

Shoes at $1.49 a Pair.

Which include New spring styles in

LADIES' SHOES-

Regular $2.50 grades.

BOYS' AND YOUTHS' SHOES-Stylish sort and stardy stuff as any city boy needs, reduced from $2.25.

$250 straight goat and kid styles, and a collection of lines

Ladies' $2 50 and $3.00

$1.49OXFORDS All offered to close at

LINES

.... SPECIAL PRICES

TO CLOSE

Nest, dark-colored

Calico Wrappers at ..... 650 Outing-Fiannel Wrappers at 75c Ail-Wool Waists at ..........$1.00 Spring-Weight Jackets at ... $3.00 Latest Winter Jackets at .... $6.00

OLDS & KING

A full line of the correct nouelties in Stationery-English Rep. Cinen Gloth Weaves, the fashionable tints, etc.-now here.

Each week is setting a higher record in our selling of Hair Ornaments and Side Romb Sets. You will find our styles new and attractive. Prices 5e to $1.25.

Wheeler-Slater.—On Wednesday evening, February 6, at 6 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Duke, sister of the oride, Miss Sara J. Wheeler and Mr. J. . Slater were united in the holy bonds f wedlock by Rev. Thomas Vincent. The ride was attired in a becoming gown of cream-colored cashmere, with silk and lace trimmings. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. A. H. Wheeler, a well-known pioneer of the East Side. The intimate friends were present.

Scott-Raffety—At 2 P. M. at Sunnyside,
February 12, by the Rev. Charles E.
Locke, D. D., Mr. S. J. Raffety and Miss Mamie J. Scott, of Appleton, Wis, were married. The ceremony was performed at the residence of Mr. D. S.
Spence, 1200 East Taylor street, after which a nice bunch was served. Unly the relatives of the groom were present.

Engagements.

The announcement of the coming wedding of Dr. C. E. Elliott, son of the late Lawyer J. L. Elliott, of San Francisco and Miss Leona Spring, is made. Wed-ding to be March 21.

The Ainsworth Valentine Party. A most novel and beautiful St. Valen-ne's party was given by Miss Mabel and Mr. Lawrence Ainsworth at their home, 4 Fourth street, Thursday. With decora-tions exquisitely artistic and original in scarlet and green, the spacious parlors were converted into a dream of loveliness. in the bay window of the front parlor was a large heart, pierced by a gilded Cupid's lart, and around it a shower of small hearts entwined with smilax. The other windows were similarly decorated. The mantels were banked with evergreens and growing ferns, peeping from which, in pretty device, were appropriate mottoes. In the entrance to the pariors, swung white doves with extended wings, each carrying a heart. Ribbons festooned from be center to the cornice, finished the parors. The drawing-room was a cosy cor-ier, over which the soft light of a can-lelabrum threw a rong glow. Crimson chades covered the incandescent lamps. The souvenir dance programmes were in the shape of hearts, tied with gold cord. As in the decorations, the heart form was-repeated in the refreshments, in sand-wiches, ices, bon-bons, maccaroons, cakes Each guest was presented ind kinses, with a valentine.

The charming young hostess was lively in white crope. Among those precent were:

Deckwell, Florence Flowr, Estelle Flower, Elizabeth Withington er, Estelle Flower, Elizabeth Wilhington, Bessie Barker, Mabel Drake, M'lies Mc-Craken, Susie Stott, Lüllan De France, Frances Lewis, Christie Hoyt, Nannie Wood, Estelle Killin, Margaret Dilling-ham, Eva Stott, Mabel Alnsworth; Messrs, Chester Hogue, Will Stuart, Platt Randall, Fred, Drake, Morris Whitehouse, Eugene White Harry Klosterman, Hugh Laidlaw Vhite, Harry Klosterman, Hugh Laidlaw, Marion Dolph, Leon Hawkins, Harry Mc-Craken, Robert McCraken, Erskin Wood, Jordan Zan, Leslie Squier, Albert Brazee, Alex. De France, Lawrence Ainsworth,

A Delightful Musicale.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Duniway at their resi-dence, No. 411 Fourth street, on Wednes-day evening of this week. About 40 of their friends were invited to hear the fol-violets and delicate ferns. The menu was sumptuous, and the entertainment jolly in in a most pleasing manner, and several bers were of such excellence us to excite much enthusiasm:

Contraito solo—"For the Sake of the Past" Tito Matti Miss Alexandria Avery.
Instrumental duet—"William Tell".Ganter Piano—Mrs. W. E. Thomas.
Violin—Mrs. Ruth Dodd.
Duetto—Selected.Mrs. Menefee, Mrs. Miller Soprano solo—"Lovins"... August Rotoli Miss Agnes Watt.
Romanza. "Dans L'eldini des Cieux," with violin obligato...
Professor S. I. Cruvelli.
Contraito solo—"Oh That I Never More May See". Donizetti

Near' Sop.-Mirs. H. B. Duniway, Alto-Mirs. Ruth Dodd, Ten.-Mir. A. F. Insley, Plano solo-Selected, Mirs. W. E. Thomas

At the conclusion of the programme, delicate refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ladd Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ladd entertain Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ladd entertain-ed a number of friends on Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. W. S. Ladd. Floral ornamentations were profuse, and in each apartment were collections of beautiful flowers. The guests were received in the reception-room, and when all had arrived, the doors of the fibrary and music-room were theory over and here were found. were thrown open, and here were found a hundred or more articles, each representing the name of different works of popular authors, and to the fortunate contestants in guessing the correct names prizes were awarded. Mr. Meade and Miss Bessle Yates carried off the honors, and were presented with beautiful silver souvenirs. Supper followed, and then the company wandered about the beautiful home specing the paintings and works of art with which it is adorned. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Koehler, Captain were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Koehler, Captain and Mrs. T. W. Symons, Mr. and Mrs. J. Roberts Meade, Mr. and Mrs. Zera Snow, Mrs. Tates, Miss Bessie Yates, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Linthicum, Mrs. Helt C. Wilson, Mrs. H. C. Cabell, Miss Failing, Miss Donelson, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ladd, Mr. Kari Spuhn, Mrs. George Good, Mr. W. J. Burns and Mr. Weiley Ladd.

Mr. Wesley Ladd.

Wedding Anniversary occasion. When the host and hostess recovered from their astonishment, the happy throng doffed their masks, games were introduced and refreshments served.
Allogether it was one of the most enjayable events of the season. Those pres-

(Notice.—All matter designed for the Sunday coind columns must reach The Oregonian ofce not later than Friday night. Personais and sports of excleir doings sent in Saturday, excopt of Friday night and Saturday night occurcopt of Friday night n Kaultz.

Mrs. Fulton's Valentine Party. Mrs. Samuel Gregg Fulton gave a Valentine dinner party at "The Hill" on Thursday evening. The dinner was served in the private dining-room, just adjoining the main dining hall. The decorations were quite elaborate About the room were majolica stands filled with palm, while the walls were festooned with two while the walls were festooned with ivy, is a young business man in the groom is a young business man in the community where he lives, and both are well liked and esteemed by all their acquaintances. Only the family and a few intimate friends were present.

Scott-Raffety—At 2 P. M. at Sunnyside, February 12, by the Rev. Charles E. vaves reached toward the center of the waves reached toward the center of the table, where they met a large heart-shaped ornamentation, which surrounded a cut-glass bowl filled with deep-red roses. The electroliers were gaily decked with smilax, which fell in graceful profusion to the table below, half way down being caught up with a cluster of hearts. Tho table were laid for 10, and at each place was a dainty little heart-shaped dinner card of dainty little heart-shaped dinner card of white, which resides the name of the guest, hore a pretty little motto and a beautiful little souvenir hand-painted de-sign, and directly in front of each plate was a tiny golden arrow piercing two hearts. The favors for the ladies were large bunches of crimson carnations, tied with red satin ribbon, the ends of which fell to the floor, while for the gentlemen here were boutonnieres of white carna-ions. The menu embraced many delica-les, and the service was perfect. At the onclusion of the dianer the company reaired to the drawing-rooms of the host s, where they found quite a number of fends awaiting, who had been invited to saist at an evening of cards. "Hearts" as the game played, the prizes being won y Miss Donelson and Mr. Lansing Stout. Besides the host and hostess, there were present at the dinner Miss Schuyler, Miss Donelson, Miss Stout, Miss Noyes, and Messrs. Wesley Ladd, W. C. Alvord, Lansing Stout and James Wood, Miss Flanders' Dinner Party.

Miss Flanders gave a very charming din-per party Thursday evening at the resi-lence of her mother, corner of Eighteenth and Flanders streets. The entertainment and Flanders streets. The entertainment was given in honor of the Misses Yates, of Omaha, and to meet them were invited Miss Sallie Lewis, Miss Beck, Miss Tuthill, Miss Hewett, and Messrs. J. C. Flanders, Allen Lewis, F. V. Holman, Stewart Armour, Carl Spuhm, Sansom Reed and Lieutenant Fred W. Sladen. About the spacious residence there were many pretty embellishments, denoting the careful hand of an artistic decorator. The large hallway was carlanded with everarge hallway was garianded with ever-greens, and tropical plants added beauty to the scene on all sides. The music-room, grawing-room and library were ornate buds fresh from the hothouse. The din-ing-room and especially the table were most carefully decorated. Sideboard, buffet and mantel were adorhed with garsicale was given by I tive board were smaller vases of the same flowers. Fragrant violets were scattered about and intermingled with traceries of smilax. At each plate was a bouquet of Forestric Whist. On Tuesday evening last at Elka' hall, Marquam building, Court Pacific, No. 1247, Independent Order of Foresters, mave its first of a series of socials to members and friends. Promptly at 8.30 the "strangers" who had assembled upon the out-skirts of the "forest" were permitted to pass through the lines into the spacio camp, and were at once accorded its freedum, and proceeded to make them-selves at home. An interesting musical and literary programme was then presented, to the success of which much was contributed by the selections rendered by Miss Baker, Mr. Caldwell and the Le-Grand brothers. At its close Umpire Richley called play, and the company sat down to a pleasant evening of progressive whist, with hearts as trumps, in which contest the heights of joy and depths of woe were respectively reached by Mr. Shipley and Miss Taylor, and Mr. Duncan and Miss Baker, who were appropriately remembered. The members of Court Pacific have an established reputation as entertainers, and the public and those who have partaken of their hos-pitality will be glad to know that until further notice, open court will be held to all friends of the order on the evening of the second Tuesday of each month.

Dancing and Whist Party

Miss Daisy Summers and Miss Arnold gave a whist and dancing social on Thursday evening, February 7, at the residence of Mr. Byron E. Arnold, in honor of their birthday. Fourteen hands of whist were played, after which the first prizes were awarded to Wiss Clandle Springer and awarded to Miss Claudie Springer and Miss Florence Cox and Mr. John Oat-Refreshments were served and dancing indulged in till a late hour. Those present were: Misses Dalsy Summers, Clara Arnold, Florence Cox, Jennie Blake, Ada Scott, Eva Rogers, Belle Dickle, Claudie Springer, Birdle Keltner, Tommy Kell, Lizzie Battin, Florence Arnold, Mabel Howell, Lillian Fay, Vernie Kertchem, and Messrz, Charlle Lathrop. Carl Lewis, Earle Chamberlin, Lawre Wilson, Ralph Walker, Lloyd Idleman, Frank Coyne, Jack Maska, Frank Selover, John Outman, Frank Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Kertchem and Mr. E. H. Arnold. On Tuesday, February 12, Miss Arnold, assisted by Miss Florence Arnold and Miss Ada Scott, gave a luncheon purty to a few of her friends. Miss Bloch's Success.

Miss Resa Bloch's last appearance be-fore a Portland audience was on the oc-casion of one of Mr. J. Warren Andrews' Mr. and Mrs. David S. Stearns were the receptents of a pleasant surprise Saturday evening in a sheet and pillow-case party in honor of the lith anniversary of their marriage. The ghostly appearance of the unexpected white-robed guests added to the merriment of the procession. When the heat and hosters are preciated wherever she goes, is apparent position in San Francisco. Miss Meyer-party broke up, from the flattering press notices she receives. The following is clipped from a Dr. Brown's Lecture.

Surprised

"Miss Rosa Bloch, of Portland, is an ar-"Aliss Rosa Bloch, of Portland, is an artiste second to none who has sung to a Salem audience within the memory of the young people. With five years' study in Vienna she shows it in every detail of her work, from her simple and unassuming entrance, through all the technical difficulties necessary to satisfy the critic and yet reach the heart of the average listener, by preserving a purity and quality of tone, a fidelity to simple and natural methods, lucking which no singer can reach the heart and soul of an entire audience. Preserved with account of the property of the control of the property dience. Possessed with womanly grace untainted by over-confidence, Miss Bloch appeals to her listeners ere she has begun, but when she has sung the last note of For all Eternity' they are completely won. 'The Gondoliers,' an aria from 'Les plauded to the echo, and again on Tuesday night at the opera-house in "The Pilgrim' and "The Magic Song," Miss Bloch sang with unusual success.

Huguenots,' and two encores were ap-

Entertainment at Mount Tabor. A charming musical and literary enter-tainment was given at Oriental hall, Mount Tabor, February 15, under the auspices of the Mount Tabor Presbyterian church. The many names on the pro-gramme promised a treat to concert-goers, and the audience that crowded the hall on Friday evening was not disappointed. The concert was opened by Miss Angela Legrand in a pretty plane solo. Miss Vir-ginia Goodwin, B. A., graduate of Boston conservatory of oratory, read several so-lections, with her usual eleverness and versatality. In Doctor Cumming, the audience welcomed a favorite, and all his numbers were rendered in his usual faultless manner. Miss Hallie Shortell's reading, "Alaska," was well received. Mr. Mark Gill closed the first part of the programme, with Paul Rodney's song, "Time and Tide." The second part was opened by Miss Maye Percy with the song, "Birds in Springtime." Miss Alice Andrews played very prettily a valse of Vollenhaupt. Miss Bessie Biles sang with grace and power. Miss Susie Moreland Gill closed the programme with one of Chopin's most difficult ethudes. Her tecnique is very fine, and the applause which followed her efforts was enthusiastic and prolonged.

Surprised Their Friends. At the Wednesday evening meeting of Fidelity lodge, No. 4, A. O. U. W., it was decided to give Fidelity lodge, No. 14, De-gree of Honor, a surprise in the way of an unannounced visit. Accordingly Thursan unannounced visit. Accordingly Thursday evening the members of the first named lodge collected at a place previously agreed upon, at 9 o'clock, and marched to the hall of the degree lodge, loaded with cake and hot coffee. The visitors were promptly admitted by the "surprised" members of the degree lodge, and given a most cardial execution. In the given a most cordial greeting. In due season the cake and coffee were served, when the floor was cleared and the rest of the evening was spent in lively games and amusements. During the evening a postoffice was opened and valentines were distributed to about all present, which were publicly opened and exhibited, causing great amusement. After a short time spent in dancing the party dispersed.

Unique Club Surprised. The members of the Unique Club were very agreeably surprised last Thursday vening, after their regular meeting, held at Mr. George Nottage's, by a number of their lady friends, who came in after the business of the club was finished. with sweet-scented blossoms and dew-laden buds fresh from the hothouse. The din-ing-room and especially the table were most carefully decorated. Sideboard, terest taken in the affair it promises to be a very marked success. The floor and lands of smilax and bunches of bright yellow daffoldis. The tuble fixings denoted much taste. A lovely crystal vase filled much taste, a lovely crystal vase filled with jonquils was the center ornamentation. W. Zeller, E. Zeller and Nichols. The hop tion, while here and there about the fes-tive board were smaller vases of the same Mrs. Judge Bullock and Mrs. Dr. Mar-cut. Among the renditions received with quam Hill have kindly consented to act as patrones:

A "Photo" Social.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of Hassalo-street Congregational church held its monthly ousiness meeting and social Priday even-ing. The business was soon disposed of and the social part begun. Each member was expected to bring a "photo" of him-self or herself, taken when a child, which were placed on exhibition. Each member was then given a pencil and card, and allowed to guess whom the photograph rep-No end of amus resented. No chd of amisement was created out of the guesses. Those taking part in the programme were Miss Nicolai, Miss Laing, Miss Ramsey, Miss Cook, Miss Parker, Miss Tuttle, Miss Wright, and Messrs. Sherman, Cock, Smith, Tuttle. Messra, Sherman, Cock, Johnson, Scott and Curtis.

Miss Dickel's Spravise Party. A very pleasant surprise party was ten-dered Miss Minnie Dickel at her home, 149 North Tairteenth street, last Thursday evening. The evening was spent in games, vocal and instrumental music and danc-ing. A fine lunch was served at about 12 o'clock. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krohn, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schacht, Mr. and Mrs. Dickel, Mrs. Sic-bold, the Misses Lena Deharde, Margaret Siebold, L. Hilgers, M. Little, I. Ans, L. Johannsen, Minnie Dickel, C. Christensen, Tillie Dickel, Messrs. Fred. Deharde, Fritz Abendwroth, W. Hilgers, Gustave Aben-droth, Franz Felder, F. Sayder, Willis Buckman, Carl Abendroth and Joe Matsch-

Athletes Entertain.

The Mount Tabor Athletic Club gave a most enjoyable and highly successful invitation hop at Oriental hall, Mount Tabor, Tuesday evening. A large number of guests responded to the invitations is-sued. The members of the club had the hall beautifully decorated with flags, and g sprays of ivy were gracefully ned about the walls and balcony. freshments, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served. To add to the enjoyment of the friends who had come from the West Side, a special car was char-tered, which enabled them to enjoy all the dances and reach home early.

Patton Home Benefit.

The ladies of Holladay addition and Irv ington gave an entertainment at the home of Mrs. T. Nicolai, 455 Holladay avenue last Tuzsday evening. About 159 people enjoyed the evening's entertainment which consisted of vocal and instrumental music and readings, ending with refresh-ments, which were served in the dining-room, presided over by some of the ladies. The spacious pariors were thrown open for Miss Wilson's Musicale.

The pupils of Miss Edith Wilson gave very enjoyable matinee musicale at Miss Wilson's studio in the Goodnough Miss Wisson's studies in the coordinates building, Inst Saturday. The participants were: Misses E. Buchtel, Lola Hawley, Alice Dickinson, M. Locke, Maud Pittenger, Maggie Liddell, and Messra. Ben Whitmarsh and Jesse Pittenger.

Dr. Brown's Lecture.

The next lecture of the Young Men's Christian Association star course promtansian association star course promises to be of unusual interest, especially to all who are in any way interested in the pioneer history of the Northwest. Dr. A. J. Brown has been for a long time much interested in the subject, and his present lecture is the result of very extensive researches. Interwoven with the story of Marcus Whitman, the dector story of Marcus Whitman, the doctor will discuss many interesting phases of Northwest history, under such headings as "Primeval Oregon," 'The Passing the Indian," "Early Discoveries," "The Sway of the Hudson's Bay Company," "The Struggle for Possession." "The Colonization of Oregon," "The Passing of the Orization of Oregon of Today and Tomor-Pioneer," "Oregon of Today and Tomorrow." Among other interesting incidents of "Oregon's Greatest Man," are "The Missionary Bridal Trip," "Four Flathcad Indians and the Book," "Whitman's Ride," etc. On and about the platform will be a cutting from Whitman's famour apple sapling, a model of the first Presby-terian church built on the Pacific coast, portraits of famous Oregon Indian chiefs and prominent pioneers, and other interesting relies and mementoes. For the esting relies and mementoes. For the organ prelude Mrs. E. M. Bergen will render the following selections: Hymn of Niens (Sefebure-Wely); Elevation No. 22, Offertoire No. 2, "Pilgrim's Song of Hope" (Edward Batiste). The Camera Ciub. The Oregon Camera Club held a very spirited monthly meeting last Monday in their new quarters above the Merchants National bank. The club is getting into a National bank. The club is getting into a very prosperous condition, numbering already 32 members, and their quarters are looming up well. The large skylight is finished, giving a fine light; a large camera, back-grounds, curtains and chairs all necessary for portrait-taking have been secured, the floor covered with matting. Two dark-rooms, with all modern im-provements, will be finished this week, a camera for making lantern-slides has been ordered, and the membership is rapidly increasing at every meeting; this latter is partially due to the efforts of a few of the members, especially Mr. Herteman and Mr. A. Anderson. It was also decided that as soon as the membership reached 40 the charter would be closed and the initiation fee raised to $5 for gentlemen and $5 $6 for ladles.

The Golden Hours Social Club. The Golden Hours Social Club gave one of its enjoyable parties at the home of Mr. Claude Schmeer, 601 East Burnside street, Friday evening. The evening was spent in music, games and dancing, Light refreshments were served at 11:50, after which dancing was again indulged in until a late hour. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Schmeer, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Miss Pearl Smith, Lillie Dver, Maggie Stafford, Mattie Neale, Eva West, Maude Linville, Beryl Lawrence, Lillian Wells, Prances Bolton, Ethel Farquhar, Edna Smith, Eva Well, Lyds Lyons, Goldle Brandenbor, Alice Wells, Alice Putney Kate Nicholas; Messrs James Geraghty, Claude Schmeer, Bert Powers, Sandy Minno, Brnest Carse, Archie Parrott, Fred Buchtel, Loyd Tompkins, Ora Brown, Earl Cameron, Henry Terry, William West, Rudolph Schmeer and George

Laurel Wreath Club. Laurel Wreath Club.

The social life of Stephens' addition seems to be centered in the Laurel Wreath Social Club. Tuesday evening the club gave a social dance at Ross' hall. Friday evening the club had a rag ball and Valentine party at the residence of Mr. Webber, 181 East Twelfth street. At this delightful party a fine musical and literary programme was well rendered, and well received, after which dancing. lections by the Laurel quartet. The piano accompaniments were by Miss Anderson.

Miss Rueter Surprised. A most enjoyable surprise party was given Miss Elizabeth Rueter by a few of her friends and fellow graduates of the Falling school, Saturday evening, at her home, 314 Corbett street. The time was spent in games and music, after which a delicious lunch was served. Then games and dancing continued till a late hour, and dancing continued this a late hour, when the merry crowd dispersed. Among those present were: Misses Elizabeth Ructer, Ida Griffin, Minnie Spaulding, Evylin M. Hurley, Ethel Beharrell, Elsie Rines, Edna Prince, Edith King, Grace Gradon, Flora Stringer, Lillie Gore, Sara Stringer and Messrs, Nathan Boody, Paul Demperey George Houghton, George Yare, Will. sey, George Houghton, George Yates, Will Channell, Melvin Plimpton, Martin Pratt, Glen Foulkes, Garfield Caywood and Carl Rubter. Mrs. C. and S. Rueter and Mr. R. Rueter took care of the flock,

Wednesday Club Dance On Wednesday evening last the Wednesday Club of Foreman Hall gave a mas-On Wednesday crams thall gave a masday Club of Foreman Hall gave a masquerade party which was in every respect a delightful success. Shortly after 9 o'clock a grand march, replete with pretty maneuvers, commenced, followed by a number of dances en mask, and then came the discarding of masks, with the amusing reveiations attendant. After the "german" and supper following, the regular order of dance was athered to for a couple of hours past midnight, when the
couple of hours past midnight, when the

Miss Peeples Entertains. On last Friday evening Miss Zaidee Peeples entertained a number of her riends at her home, 789 Front street. Drive whist was the main feature of the evening. Mr. McMichael captured the first prize, and Mr. Hadrill the booby. Among those present were: Misses Margaret Mc-Clure, Minnie Cole, Zaidee Peeples, Muhel Ash, Augle Foster, Lizzie Dickens, Milly Robb and Messrs, Currie, McClure, Col-lins, Hadrill, McMichael, Haseltine, West and Peeples. Mrs. Kelley's Party. Last Thursday evening Mrs. Kelley, asdelightful valentine party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Kelley, corper a fine impression. While her numbers were merely incidental to the display of the organ, so distinct were they that at the conclusion of each she received an ovation that was most flattering to one so young in art. That Miss Bloch is appearing to the conclusion of the care of the care of the care of the care of the distributed. The cards were beautiful decorated with flowers painted in prominent business men, and his prospective father-in-law occupies a similar position in San Francisco. Miss Meyer, party broke up.

Surprised Their Schoolmate.

A very pleasant surprise party was ten-dered Miss Datay Smith by her school friends last Thursday evening at her friends last Thursday evening at her home, 514 East Oak street, Musle and games were the features of the evening, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Effle Shorno, Villa Browning, Susie Maxon, Heisen Kehoe, Pauline Benham, Maud Hahn, Corrinne Sheldon, Jennie Bailey, Maggie Stafford, Jessie Baird, Maggie McClure, Lillie Bishop, Archie Kehoe, Dave Faquet, Ralph Baird, Clinton Shorno, Frank West, Meiville West, Fred McCarver, Wade Meiville West, Fred McCarver, Wade Bailey, Fred Taylor, Sherman Taylor, Raymond Smith.

A very pleasant birthday party was given at the home of Miss Olive Gunder-son, last Friday, it being her bith birth-day. Games were played until a late iour, when an elegant supper was served. Those present were: Misses Olive Conder son, Gertie Burke, Birdie Wise, Gertie Pisher, Emma Brasel, Emma Gunderson, Hattie Opits, Florence Brasel, Dollie Robison, Mand Woodberry, Tessile Blanche-hart, Farmie Locus, Grace Campbell, Grace Jobson, Messrs, Charlie Houghton, Mark Colby, Heary Terry, Carl Cameron, Carl Kelty, Harry Howest, Ed Toby, Fred Smith and George Gunde

Eastern Star Hop.

Myrtle chapter, No. 15, gave their annual hop at Arion hall, Friday evening, February 15. It was a most delightful social affair. The attendance was unsually large and select. Every one seemed to have anticipated a good time, and it is safe to say no one was disap-pointed. The committee in charge were untiring in their efforts to make every one feel at home, and glad to come again. Those of the committee to whom great credit is due are: Mrs. J. Seed, Mrs. R. Lutke, Mrs. L. A. Bailey, Mr. J. Seed, Mr. R. Lutke, A. McCalman, W. Jacob-son, W. A. Cleiand and Alex Sweek.

Henric Ibsen's latest play. "Lille Eyolf," hat has caused a sensation in literary croles, will be read and lectured on at the Minerva Literary Society, by its president, Mr. O. A. Jacobson, at Labor Coun-cil hall, corner First and Stark streets. The first two acts were read at the last meeting of the society on Tuesday even-ing. The third and last act, with a re-view of the two preceding acts, will be read and followed by a lecture at the next meeting, Tuesday next, at 8:15 P. M. The rending, as well as the lecture, will be rendered in Norwegian, the language of the author. of the author.

Art Circle Meeting.

The Art Circle met in the Portland iniversity art studios, in the A. O. U. W. temple, Friday last. The paper on "Ma-donnae," rend by Miss Alice Butterfield, was very entertaining, and showed knowl-edge and research on this subject. Photographs of all the great paintings were passed around. The paper ended with the artists of the present time. The next meeting will be on the second Friday in March. The subject will be. "Flemish Art and Artists," by Mrs. R. Bingham, who has previously entertained the Art

Cantata of Nations.

The ladies of the First Congregational church are busy preparing for their unique entered are oney preparing to their diagnetic celebration of Washington's Birthday, Patriotic airs of England, Scotland, Wales, France, Italy, Germany and America will be rendered by the chorus choir, unier the direction of Miss Jones, assisted by some of the leading talent of the city. The entertainment will be followed by a re-ception and Martha Washington tea, at which only refreshments of the olden time will be served by young ladies in Colonial Surprise Misses Russell and Wood, wise, were recuived with cut. A nong the renditions received with marked favor was a vocal trio by Misses Coilins, Moore, and Harry Anderson, a vocal duet by the Misses Chivill, a plano vocal duet by the Misses Chivill, a plano were the order of the evening. Miss Russell favored the company with some nice sell favored the company with some nice selections on the piano. Messrs. Schofield and Foster sang some of the late songs, Miss Wood playing the accompaniment. Refreshments were served, and at a late ## hour the guests departed.

Letter-Carriers' Ball. The fourth annual ball given by the Letter-Carriers' Association on Wednesday evening last, at Arion hall, was a decided mccess. Fully 150 couple were present. The programmes were printed on postal cards addressed and canceled by the new cancelling machine, and were quite appropriate for the occasion. Dancing and whist were indulged in until 1:30 A. M., when the guests regretfully departed Chrysonthemum Social Pance.

The Chrysanthemum Society, of Albina, gave a popular social dance Thursday, night in Gomez' hall, on Russell street. The hall was testefully decorated for the event, and excellent music was provided. The floor manager was W. R. J. Ruther-ford; N. R. Donlon, W. L. Gould and R.

games. At II:30 tables were spread with a most delicious lunch.

A Ten.
Cards are out for a ten to be given at 50 Flanders street, Friday afternoon by the social committee of the Portland Woman's Union. The management of the tea is in the hands of prominent ladies, and it promises to be quite a society, event. Dancing.

Mrs. Larowe can take more pupils in either Monday or Saturday evening, or Thursday afternoon clauses. Bazaar

A Successful Bull.

