street, Priday, from 3 to 5 P. M., proved a success. The rooms were tastefully decorated with ity and evergreen. Mas Helen Teal and friends presided at the tea table, the decorations for which were pink, with smilax and flowers. Guesta-

were received by Mesdames R. F. Burrell, P. L. Willis, G. W. Allen and Colonel Wolf. Books were received by Mrs. John H. Bell, Mrs. J. B. Comstock, Miss Crock-

Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Prederick Eggert, Mrs. Edwin C. Stuart, Miss Stuart, Mrs. F. D. Chamberlain, Miss Holman, Miss Gay-lord, Mrs. B. F. Dudley, Mrs. J. Ordway,

Mrs. S. H. Giesy, Mrs. P. J. Mann, Miss Thoms, Miss Watson, Miss Florence Wat-son, Mrs. J. F. Barrett, Miss Buchanan,

Miss Cremen, Mrs. M. D. Young, Mrs. George M. Schuck, Mrs. David C. Burns, Miss E. E. Oliver, Mrs. George Ainsile, Miss Hamilton, Mrs. Frank M. Warren, Miss Adams, Mrs. John A. Bell, Mrs. J. F. Dickson, Mrs. Henry W. Mason, Mrs. John Barrett, Social Musicale.

The last entertainment and social of St. David's parish preceding the Lenten sea-

Gwilt.

Dr. A. P. Nelson, Mrs. J. L. The

VOL. XIV-NO. 8.

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 24, 1895.

OPENING, MONDAY, FEB. 25TH

A RICH AND LOVELY DISPLAY

MODERN HIGH-CLASS JEWELRY

You are most respectfully invited to call and examine my new jewelry store, at No. 153 Third street, near Morrison. has been spared in fitting up this establishment, and the display of High-Class Jewelry; Rich, Solid Silverware, Precious Stones, etc., will be well worth seeing. Opening Monday, February 25th, from 12 o'clock to 9 P. M.

Theo. W. Hansen,

GOLD * SILVERSMITH - - - - PORTLAND, OR.

No Guessing About This Bioycle. It's a

VICTO

are afraid of it. With Victors at $100, you cannot afford to buy an inferior wheel at 331 Washington St.

OVERMAN WHEEL CO.

SPRING GOODS ARRIVE DAILY

THIS WHEN WE WILL SHOW

New VEILINGS, JEWELRY, CAPES, JACKETS, SKIRTS, WAISTS. LACE COLLARS.

New NEGLIGEE SHIRTS,

New TIES, Special at 25c.

THE BARGAIN FEATURE Of the sensun is Our offering of

SILKS

From the manufacturer's auction

Such prices were never before made for such qualities in all the history of silk selling in Portland.

The styles are the newest.

FOR THE FOUR DAYS To the end Of the month We will continue our Special offering of

LADIES'. MISSES' and BOYS' SPRING SHOES, at A PAIR

They're the best grade that can be crowded down to the price-the best IN OUR NEW we ever knew at the price.

Is the time to Give attention to

What you've heard about Royal Worcester Corsets

Now, before you have your spring than ever.

Until you have been fitted in them In choice patterns, you have no idea of what elegance and comfort they give.

Imported Dress Goods

Leading styles to be

-Goat-hair Crepons, -Silk and Wool Suitings,

-Tailor Suitings.

-Fancy Cheviots, and

-Fancy Plaids for waists.

A line of exquisite new patterns in challis is also in.

OUR NEW

Domestic Dress Goods Belong to a higher class than American makers ever turned out

Our window of 40c goods exemplifies the fact.

Wash Goods Stock The Swivel Silks,

Irish Lawns. White Goods Giughams and Ontings,

Are dainty as these daintiest of fabries can be, and lower-priced The line of Outings,

And only ..... A YARD Is illustrative.

83C

OLDS & KING

A full line of Black and Colored Moreens-now in. Nothing holds the fashionable skirt in nicer form.

Rothchild and Miss Stella B. Meyerstein were united in marriage according to the full Jewish ritual in the the parlors of the Palace hotel, San Francisco, last were united in marriage according to the full Jewish ritual in the the pariors of the Palace hotel, San Francisco, last Wednesday evening. The groom is president of the Rothchild Bros. Company, formerly the A. P. Hotaling Company, of this city, and the bride is one of the acknowledged belies of Jewish society of San Francisco, and a daughter of Louis Meyerstein, a well-known wholesale merchant of that city, and a very large real estate owner. The ceremony was performed by Rahbi Voorsanger, and was witnessed by a large number of invited guests. The bridal party, as they catered the salon, while the orchestra played a march from "Lohengrin," were preceded by two little girls—the Missen Myra and Edith Friedenreich—who were becomingly attired in white and carried becomingly attired in white and carried a string of flowers between them. They were followed by the ushers, Iraac Cohen, A. Grossmeyer, Julius Ach and Mel-ville Marks. The four bridesmalds—Miss Irma Rothchild, Miss Rose Sachs, Miss Rose Steinhart and Miss Sadie Samuels came next. These young ladics were all came next. These young ladics were all dressed alike, in plain white skirts, walking length, the corrage of each costume being trimmed with chilfons and white lace. They carried bouquets of American Beauty roses. Miss Lucy Cohen, who acted as maid of honor, followed the bridesmaids. She wore a costume of yellow satin, walking length, trimmed with ermine. The corrage was decolled and ermine. The corsage was decollete, and she carried a bouquet of yellow daffodils. The costume of the bride, who followed on the arm of her father, was of rich white ratin, an traine, the skirts perfectly plain. The corrage was cut low and rimmed heavily with point and Duchesse lace. The eibow sleeves were made very bouffant, and the entire costume was covseried by a long bridal veil. In one hand, she carried a large bouquet of rare orchids. The ceremony was peculiarly impressive and interesting. Mr. and Mrs. Rothchild are now in Southern California.

Michigan, were married by key, rienty Rasmus at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Long, ITI East Fourteenth street. Tuesday evening last. Guests present were: Dr. Leonard, cousin of the groom: the house was through and the affair were of Chehalis, and Dr. G. A. Stowald, of this city. After spending a few days in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard will go to berb. the city, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard will go to perb.

Alexander-Towne,-Miss Caroline Mansfield Towne, of Portland, and Mr. Nicho-las Hiss Alexander, of Baltimore, Md., were united is marriage, Wednesday, at the residence of the bride's mother. Miss Towne is a very popular young lady, and is a sister of B. C. Towne; while the groom is a well-known young man of Alwood-Gray.—Miss Nettie Gray was united in marriage Wednesday evening, February 30, with Charles A. Alwood, the Rev. Marion M. Lewis officiating. The ecremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother, 713 Hood street, Many good wishes go with them on the journey they are beginning Mrs. Wilson's Matinee Ten.

One of the most delightful events of the week was the "matinee tea" given by Mrs. George F. Wilson yesterday afteron, between the hours of four and six, at her residence, corner of Nineteenth and Hoyt streets. The entire house throughout was ornamented with Oregon grape vine, shading from bright green into deep red. On the mantel in the re-ception room were sprays of white flow-ering, filmy foliage and sprigs of smilax. library was adorned with yellow uils, as also was the dining-room. long tea table was all in tones of yellow. There were jonquils in crystal vases, lovely yellow tulips in cut-glass jars, and soft lights gleaming forth from yellow silicen shades, while traceries of smilax were entwined about the snowy cloth. At one end Mrs. Cabell poured tea, and opposite sat Mrs. Linthleum, who served coffee. In the little reception room on the second floor was a pretty table, tastefully decorated with fragram roses. which was presided over by Mrs. Paul Deady and Miss Flanders, who served tiny glasses of golden chartrense and creme te menthe. Mrs. Wilson was assisted in receiving by Mrs. W. J. Burns and Mrs. Helt C. Wilson. During the reception Parsons and his full orchestra played concert selections, interspersed with attractive dance music. The hostess looked very handsome in a tollet of eau de rile slik, profusely ornamented with white lace. Mrs. H. C. Wilson wore black lace. Mrs. Cabell was attired in pompadour silk with bertha of white lace. Mrs. Linthimum appeared in white silk with trim-mings of rose-pink velvet. Mrs. Deady was attired in pink silk and black lace. Miss Flanders appeared in black lace with called during the afternoon.

Company "A," O. X. G., "Smoker." By invitation quite a number of com-sany A's friends gathered at the Armory building on last Thursday evening to at-tend a smoker. The programme for the vening was progressive whist and chess. The following musical programme was rendered: Guitar solo, Messrs. Washing-ton, Langford and Jacobs; recitation, Mr. Charles Mathews; cornet solo, plano accompaniment, Messrs. Brazee and Stone; guitar solo, Messrs. Washington, Leng-ford and Jacobs; cornet duets. Messrs. Brazee and Cooper; club swinging, Proessor Louis Henry; song, original, Mr. C. Pickett. During the evening the First Regiment Marine band screnaded the boys. The six-footers are fast coming to the front as a military organization. Under the command of Captain J. C. Ruetine, they will be a great acquistion to the Pirst regiment. The company is now nearly re-cruited to its full quota. Several business men in the city have under contemplation the proposition of joining at an early date.

Surprise to Miss Moran. On last Monday evening a very pleasant birthday surprise party was tendered Miss Neille Moran, by a few of her friends, Mrs. Scott. Mrs. Mrs. McDevitt, Misses Mary Mc-is, Nelly Sherry, Annie King, Anna Millie Schloth, Kate McIntonh, Miss Donavan, Kate Donavan, Bertha Dewey, Belle Macdonald, May Morris, Kate Donion, Mande Morris, Jose Dona-O'Sotice.—All matter designed for the Sunday Social columns must reach The Oregonian of Sice not later than Friday night. Personals and reports of sociecy doings sent in Saturday, except of Friday night and Saturday night occurrences, will not appear.)

Matrimonial.

Rothchild-Meyerstein.—Mr. Edward F.

Macdonald, Measrs, John McNichols, Jack McDevitt, P. Bacon, Ed. Lawler, Harry Plymale, Tom McNichols, Jim McNichols, Jack McDevitt, P. Bacon, Ed. Lawler, Harry Plymale, Tom McNichols, Jim McNichols, Jack McDevitt, P. Bacon, Ed. Lawler, Harry Plymale, Tom McNichols, Jack McDevitt, P. Bacon, Ed. Lawler, Harry Plymale, Tom McNichols, Jack McDevitt, P. Bacon, Ed. Lawler, Harry Plymale, Tom McNichols, Jack McDevitt, P. Bacon, Ed. Lawler, Harry Plymale, Tom McNichols, Jim McNichols, Jack McDevitt, P. Bacon, Ed. Lawler, Harry Plymale, Tom McNichols, Jim McN Mundorf and others.

Mrs. Wilcox's Reception. room were ornamental with freshly culled buds, and here and there sprays of grace-ful smilax. In the hallway the beautiful oaken carvings were relieved with palms, ferns and tall rubber trees, which also ornamented the broad stairway leading to ornamented the broad stairway leading to the floors above. The decorations of the dining-room called forth many expressions of unqualified praise. Each window seat was filled with yellow jonguis and innumerable soft ferm. The table itself could not but command admiration. Stretching diagonally across from corner to corner were bands of a violet hue having for their nucleus an immense cluster of fragrant numbers and white violets while. of fragrant purple and white violets, while scattered over the satin ribbons in careless profusion were lang-stemmed violets. Here and there about the table were candelabra garlanded with smilax, while depending from the electroller were graceful myriads of smilax, which fell to the ends of the table below. At one end of the festive board sat Miss Florence Glisan and Miss Helen Savier, who from a silver urn dispensed fragrant cups of tea, while opposite were Miss Schuyler and Miss Winnifred Myrick, who served coast in years gone by, and during the past winter, be has identified himself in orchids. The ceremony was peculiarly impressive and interesting. Mr. and Mrs. Bothchild are now in Southern California on a wedding tour. They will make their home in Portland.

Leonard-Easiman-Mr. J. E. Leonard, a prominent young merchant of Chehails, Wash, and Miss Carrie J. Eastman, of Michigan, were married by Rev. Henry Rasmus at the residence of Mr. and Mrs.

A. G. Long, I'll East Fourteenth street, Tuesday evening last. Guests present were: Dr. Leonard of a fragrant cigar. Invited to > Mrs. Wilcox looked very handsome in a Paris robe of heavy broaded yellow satin, trimmed with Duchess lace. Ornaments, Mrs. H. C. Wilson were a gown of white Mrs. H. C. Cabell were a robe of light blue brocaded satin, with trimmings of ermine. Necklase of diamonds. Mrs. C. E. Ladd was attired in a rich toilet of yellow and white brocaded slik, with diamond and opal ornaments.

Mrs. T. N. Symons were a becoming gown of white brocaded silk. Ornaments, dia-Mrs. D. S. Tuthill was handsomely at-

Miss Myrick was attired in white lace hite silk. Ornaments, diamonds and sap-of lavender with white chiffon overdress. Miss Glisan was attired in white satin, with lovely bouquet of violets, Among those present were: Major and Mrs. J. C. Post, Captain and Mrs. T. W.

symons, Mr. and Mrs. Charles El Ladd Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Wilson, Judge and Mrs. L. L. McArthur, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Palmer, Dr. and Mrs. Henry E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Tuthill, Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. G. Foster Beck, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Zera Snow, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. James McCraken, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. T. Harris Bart-lett, Mr. and Mrs. George Good, Mr. and Mrs. R. Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Everill Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. R. Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. John Young, Lieutenant and Mrs. H. C. Cabell, Colonel and Mrs. C. F. Beebe, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Deady, Mrs. R. Washburne, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. Mason, Miss Trevett, Miss Glisan, Miss Flanders, Miss Tuthill, Miss Yates, Miss Bessle Yates, Miss Beck, Miss Elizabeth Miss Winnifred Myrick, Miss Schuyler, Miss Viva Schuyler, Miss Fail-ng, Miss Sallie Lewis, Miss Savier, Miss it, Miss Hawthorne, Miss Thompson Miss Nellie Brazce, Miss Josephine Cun-ningham, Miss Connor, Dr. K. A. J. Mac-kennie, C. E. S. Wood, James Laidlaw, W. Peavey, Samuel Mears, Fred Stevens W. C. Alvord, Scott Brooke, Ion Lewis, C. Spuhn, R. S. Howard, Jr., F. M. Gil-more, W. M. Ladd, Walter Beebe, J. McL. Wood, G. H. Wheeler, Peter Kerr, D. M. Clarkson, jr., Patterson Effinger, J. C. Flanders, Harry Nunn, Dr. Richard Nunn, Jules S. Spadone, E. H. Shepard, Allen Lewis, Commander Farenholt, U S. N.; Lieutenant Fred W. Sladen, U.

Mrs. Post Entertains.

Mrs. J. C. Post entertained a number of her lady friends at luncheon at the Curtis on Friday afternoon at 1:20 o'clock. For the occasion the music-room was for For the occasion the music-room was for the nonce turned into a dining hall. About the side walls were hung exquisite Oriental draperies, dainty articles of bric-a-brac, and pretty carvings, while at one end were ebony screens draped with silken portieres which depended from the archway above. About the apartment were tall rubber trees and dainty hothouse greens, while the window seats were filled in with flowering plants. The large, round table looked very attractive with its wealth of antique silverware and its pretty little gems of china and glass that Mrs. Post collected during her sojourn abroad. In the center was a floral ornamentation of dwarfed ferns, tiny umbrella plants, feathery evergreens and maiden's hair ferns, while half revealed and half concoaled in this tasteful concert were clusters of Papa Gantier roses and their own rich foliage. Stretching out to the sides of the table were garlands of smilax intermingled with fragrant buds. The van, Mae Moran, Gertie Hurd, Marguerite | menu was sumptuous, and it was nearly | pumpas grasses, supplemented by their

the dressing-room. The hostess was attired in a handsome Paris gown of black satin, relieved at the throat with a collarette of pink velvet.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the collarette of the collarett

Mrs. Post were: Mrs. Otis, Mrs.
T. M. Anderson, Mrs. Marshall,
Mrs. Sebon, of Voncouver barracks; Mrs. Sol Hirsch, Mrs. T. W.
Symons, Mrs. C. H. Wilson, Mrs. R. Nixon, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Mrs. H. W.
Corbett, Mrs. T. B. Wilcox, Mrs. Zera
Snow, and Mrs. Henry E. Jones.

Mrs. Snow's Domino Party.

day evening last Mrs. Zera St gave a farewell entertainment to her guests, the Misses Yates, which took the form of a domino pjarty. The guests commenced arriving soon after 9 o'clock in all sorts of fantastic and fanciful costumes, and from then on until II remained "Incog." At this hour a grand quadrille was formed, and during the last figure the signal for unmasking was given. After a few dances a delicious supper was er a few dances a delicious supper was served, and the small hours were creep-ing on before the merry throng dis-persed. The decorations were simple but most tasteful. The large drawing-room, with its highly polished floor, was en-tirely embellished with evergreens, which were suspended on the side walls and gracefully festooned over the mantel. The ornaments of the hall were potted The ornaments of the hall were noticed plants and bunches of bright carnations. The dining-room was decorated enticely with delicate ferns and filmy evergreens. There were many pretty tollettes, and the young ladies looked unusually charming young ladies looked unusually charming. The hostess appeared in a beautiful gown of white pompadour silk, relieved with trimmings of soft blue. Miss Yates was attired in a frock of white silk combined with blue. Miss Bessie Tates appeared in a gown of delicate white lace. Those present were:

Miss Adams, Miss Flanders, Miss Sallie Lewis, Miss Tuthill, Miss King, Miss Beck, Misa Hewett, Miss Yates, Miss Bessie Yates, Miss Eliot, Miss Montgom-ery, Lleutenant C. H. Martin, Messra, Carl Spuhn, Scott Brooke, J. W. F. Johnson, Harry Nunn, J. G. Woodworth, F. M. Gilmore, Rodney Glisan, Allen Lewis, R. S. Howard, jr., W. Brewster and J.

Reception to General Howard.

During the winter now almost past, this city has had among its most honored res-dents Major-General O. O. Howard, who recently retired from the United States army. General Howard is now preparing to take his departure to his new home in Vermont. During his long and honorable career he has been closely iden-tified with the Congregational churches of the United States as a member of the a very helpful way with the First Congre-gational church of this city. On next Wednesday evening the members and friends of the church will tender him a farewell reception in the parlors of their church, corner Park and Madison streets. Members of the United States military, G. A. R. and O. N. G. bodies; Governor Lord, ex-Governor Pennoyer, Mayor Frank and other state and municipal of-floers, as well as many other prominent citizens are expected to participate in the reception. There will be present two skill-ful planiata, who will then make their first appearence before a Portland audi-ence. The first, Mrs. E. I. Fairfax, will give Pantaisic-Impromptu, op. 66, Chopin, and the second, Mr. W. Huntington Greene, will render Poloraise in A flat, op. St. Chopin. All friends of General Howard are invited.

Miss Sallie Lewis gave a dinner party in Wednesday evening, which was most lelightful in every way. The beautiful on Wednesday, delightful in every way. The beautiful after unmasses, delightful in every way. The beautiful was rendered: Vocal selection, Miss mean flowers and a rare assortment of hothouse plants. The dining table was most attractive. The center ornament was a dress, Charles Guthrle, vocal selection, beautiful Baccarat wase of cut glass, Agnes Druck; vocal selection, Samuel Dowith a pedastal of golden bronze, which land A dainty lunch was served, and the young people ipent a most pleasant evenin an imported robe of black satin, carried states of system and inspected robe of black satin, carried system and in light blue and a profusion of dainty smillax. The sources Myrick was attired in white lace.

H. C. Allen were a costume of white of the ladies were large bunches of system and subject to the ladies were large bunches.

H. C. Allen were a costume of white lace.

The double yellow daffoddls, while over the lack were small vases the heavy damask cloth were small vases in light. Among those present were: The Misses Leah Illidge, Lilah Illidge, Lena Copley, Le Mrs. H. C. Allen wore a costume of white of sweet car violets, while the gentle-procade. Ornaments, diamonds. of boutonnieres of ment were recipients of boutonnieres of Mrs. Corbett wore an elegant robe of the same dainty flower. The menu was elaborate. After several hours were spent in the discussion of the dinner, the com-Miss Savier appeared in a pretty frock pany repaired to the music-room, where Miss Elliot sang a number of songs most delightfully. Those enjoying the hospital-ity of Miss Lewis were: Lieutenant and Mrs. H. C. Cabell, Dr.

and Mrs. E. F. Tucker, Miss Yates, Miss Bessie Yates, Miss Eliot, Miss Beck, Miss Nina Adams, Miss Schuyler, Messis, Harry Nunn, Rodney Glisan, Stuart Arr Ion Lewis, Allen Lewis and W. C. Alvord.

Golden Wedding Anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Parker Rowley, of Trout-dale, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their wedding Monday evening at the home of their son, Mr. Charles Rowley They were married in Marion, Crawford county, Pa., in 1845, and moved to Oregon a few years ago. Both are well preserved and bid fair to live many years longer, Dr. F. S. Locke, of Troutdale, officiated at their second wedding. They were the recipients of many presents from their friends in the East and at home. Excellent music had been provided, and the evening was pleasantly spent. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Welton and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Benham Mr. and Mrs. Light, Mr. and Mrs. Jam Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Circans Rowley, Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. Henry Brink, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Kelly, Mrs. Hy. Bell, Mrs. Allard, Mrs. M. Richardson, Mrs. Mrs. Allard, Mrs. M. Richardson, Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. Dell, Mrs. Holt, Charles Rowley, Dr. F. S. Locke and wife, Mrs. Cone, Miss Mary Coons, Miss Gertie Cone, Miss Baisy Sexton, Misses Nellie and Lelah Coons, Miss Lily Baker, and Miss Pearl Roork, Nessrs. Alfred Brink, James Roork, Alfred Powers, John Hiekley, Charles Bacon, F. C. Baker, T. Balter, Charles Bacon, F. C. Baker, T. Balter, Admission, Alfred Power, John Hiekley, Charles Bacon, F. C. Baker, T. Balter, Admission, All Rev. Amer. And Rev. 1988, 1888, 1889, 18 zer. Adams, and others.

Good Fellows Entertain.

The masqurade ball given by Home assembly last Wednesday evening was a success in every particular, a or 30 couples participating, besides many visitors, who seemed to enjoy themselves as well as the dancers. The costumes were original in the extreme. Some quaint and comical, others very beautiful. Prizes were awarded to the best sustained lady and gentle man character. The judges found it very hard to decide, as there were so many deserving them. The lady's prize was given to a character representing Morni The gentleman's to one illustrating the need of free silver. This dance was one of a series of socials given by the assembly every alternate Wednesday evening.

The Last Cindercila Dance. The winter season of social festivities ended in a biase of glory Friday night, with the final dance of the "Cinderella" series. The advent of the Lenten season being present who had not entoyed the de-lights of terpsichorean pleasures for some time past. The ball was a very smart affair, and went with a dash and vim, from beginning to finish. The decorations, which were the combined efforts of Miss Flan-own green foliage, arranged in the form of a hand bouquet. On the side walls and directly over the stage were fan-shaped ornamentations of the same effective decoration. The dining hall was decked entirely with beautiful double yellow jonquis. At one end was a large table, presided over by the patronesses of the occasion, assisted by Mrs. T. W. Symons, where coffee, ices, and a very dainty supper was served. The guests were received by Mrs. H. E. Jones, Mrs. D. C. Burns, Mr. and Mrs. John Bain, Mr. and Mrs. John Bain, Mr. and Mrs. T. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. T. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. T. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, and Mrs. To walker, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. T. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, and Mrs. T. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. John Bain, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mr. a several new melodies, and the orchestra

A V. M. I. Social. At their hall, on Wednesday evening, Williamette council, No. 65, Young Men's Institute, gave a social to a few of thez many friends. The evening's entertainment of the council of the co ment commenced with drive whist. Miss Tessie DeBurgh and Mr. Campbell succeeded in carying off the whist prizes, and thirty-one books were received, also a picture of five American presidents and and the bookles were awarded to Miss L. Recves and John O'Leary. Refreshments were then served, during which John Mr. R. W. Wilbur and wife, Rev. G. R. W. Wilbur and wife, Rev. G. R. Were then served, during which John O'Learry and J. Alexander were heard to advantage in the rendition of recitations. Dancing was then indulged in until a late hour, when all departed, having voted it a complete success. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sharkly, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanton, Mrs. M. A. Stratton, Miss. John Nawratil, Rev. John Henrich, Mrs. Reeves, Misses Nora O'Malley, L. Reeves, Mrs. E. O. Gardner, Mrs. J. E. Cardwell, Emma Kennedy, M. J. Film, Mable Dove, Helen Sharkey, Annie Kennedy, Tessie Helen Sharkey, Annie Kennedy, Tessie DeBurgh, R. Marchand, Rose Kennedy, M. McGowan, Lena Owens, H. Van Stra-len, K. Tillman, Tress Dove, P. Morgan, Lily Hembree, Lena Van Stralen, Linzie

Dunn, Rose Tillman, May Nawratil, Helen Kehoe, J. Nawratil, Mesers, Frank Dunn, A. Kehoe, Al Prevost, W. C. McCully, T. Bambrick, Ed Kennedy, G. Fety, James O'Leary, John Cavanaugh, W. F. Pangle, W. R. Johnston, G. E. Marchand, Joe All-stock, M. Campbell, J. Alexander, Charles Van Stralen, D. J. McGill, T. Mancy, J. Buergal, H. J. Allstock, J. F. Sinnott, John O'Leary, A. Nawratil, J. Oberlie, E. F. Fay, S. T. Dove, Ed Warnock, George

Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary.

Doramus, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Large

Whitcomb, Lucy Demmer, Clara Demme

Irez Wheeler, Helen Isonsee; Mesars, James Ainsley, Roland Bordin, Fred H. Brown, Charles Guthrie, Arthur Sater-ley, Al Graut, Fritz Rymer, Ed Diedrich, E. Whitcomb, Fred Shire, H. A. Isensee, Clarence Demmer, Ell De Hon, Martin Pratt, Carlyle D. Moore, Henry Druck, G.

Stansbery, George Finch, Samuel Dolan,

Ball at the Portland.

The fourth ball of the winter season of the Portland hotel was given on Thurs-day evening, and, like its predecessors.

passed oit with much ecial. Manager Bowers displayed his usual fine inste in decorations, which were more than pleas-ing to the eye. The hallways and the bal-

In the center of the supper-room was a round table, from the center of which punch was served from a large bowl, dimost hidden from view by a pretty floral decoration. Supper was served at small

There were nearly 250 prese

Miss Bilger Surprised.

On Tuesday evening a number of the friends of Miss Lavilla Bilger, 464 East

Ash street, took that lady by surprise. Music and dancing were continued until a late bour, with refreshments served at

Laura Bloomer, Annie DeBurgh, Tessie

Laura Bloomer, Annie DeBurgh, Tessie DeBurgh, Pearl Smith, Etta Kerr, Ada Linville, Lucy Wilson, Maggie Howe, Aggie Lynch, Minnie Dilly, Ella Bruce, Messra, Frank Adams, Massay Brown, Charlie Lownsbury, Rebert Little, Fred Richardson, Jim Bruce, Lawrence Wilson, Herbert Humphrey, George Nichols, Ciyde Zeller, Earnest Zeller, George Miller, Will Singer, Will Drake, George Miller, Will Singer, Will Drake, George No.

er, Will Singer, Will Drake, George Not-

Surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Burns, highly agreeable surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Burns, at their home

509 Mill street, by a number of friends. The occasion was their eighth wedding anniversary. The evening was spent in social intercourse, followed by recitations tables placed about the sides of the apart

the ball was a success in every way.

decked with flags.

intervals. Those present

sed off with much sclat. Manager adjoining the ballroom were filled with ferns and hothouse plants, while the dining-room where the dancing took place

J. A. Large.

Hertie Minser.

son was given Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. John Gwilt, on the East. Side, and was a social, musical and financial success. The entertainment was termed "An Evening With Gounod, Mendelssohn, Rubinstein, Beethoven," and the The 50th wedding aniversary of Ms. and Mrs. Jacob Nicholson took place Wednesaris. Jacob Nicholson took pince weines-day afternoon at their heme, at Mount Ta-bor, on the Wiberg lane, where they have resided for the past four years. Includ-ing themselves, there were four genera-tions on hand at the anniversary, many following programme was very artistically, of the relatives having come from different pertions of the state, illing the rooms with their numerous children. The house was tastefully decorated for the event, it (a) Short biography.....Mrs. Sahlstrom (b) "Un Song D'Une Nuit D'Ete".... Primo, Mrs. Sahlstrom; Secundo, Miss all afternoon till late in the evening it was the scene of a most happy reunion. After 50 years sailing on matrimony's tempestuous seas, the couple have pre-served youth in their hearts, and joined with their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and guests in an after-noon of galety and amusement. At the appointed hour all the company assem-bled in one of the large rooms, when Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson walked into the room arm-in-arm, and stood before Rev. W. S. Harrington, who performed the marriage ceremony again, the couple again taking upon themselves the marriage vows for another posible 50 years. In audition to the immediate relatives there were pres-ent Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Goat. Mr. and Mrs.

(a) Short biography.......Mr. Gwilt (b) Ave Maria,..... "Melodic Relicieuse" Soprano, Mrs. Lawrence: piano, Miss Gwilt; violin, Mr. Creitz; organ, Mr. Gwilt. Refections and social converse completed on evening which was not only heartily enjoyed by all present, but also netted the ladies of St. Eavki's Guild a neut sum "Grandma" Ingraham, D. P. Walliard, of Ashland; Mrs. T. E. Kein, Mrs. Annie Sherreit, Mrs. Effie Stewart, Mr. ami Mrs. Chauncey Ball, Dr. W. S. Harrington, Mr.

The Camera Club.

The Oregon Camera Club held an informal meeting last Wednesday in its fooms, over the Merchants' National bank. The club mambers now 23 members; only one is lacking before the charter A very enjoyable surprise was tendered Miss Inez Wheeler at the home of her pa-rents, 605 Second street, last Friday even-ing. Though catirely unexpected, the ing. Though entirely unexpected, the guests were received and entertained roywill be closed. The two dark rooms were inspected, and everything was found work-ing to perfection. In the main hall there ally. The evening was delightfully spent. is quite a number of beautiful pictures on the walls. The screen is finished a book new beginners will be started in a couple of weeks. A lantern-slide exhibition (views of the Hawalian islands) will be given next Tuesday for members and young people :pent a most pleasant even-ing. Among those present were: The Misses Ethel and Bessie Allen gave a nost enjoyable party to their friends in he Newcastle last Friday evening. Among (hose present were: Dalsy Lar-sen, Rachel Josephi, Constance Mattingly, Ethel Allen, Lucy Nicoli, Bessie Matting-ly, Corene Sheldon, Bessie Allen, Miss West, Misses Poulson, Miss Jones, Rachel Dent, Howard Bellinger, George Thatch-er, George Kadderly, Harry Nicoli, Irving Pratt, Dougles, Pratt, Guy Thatcher Pratt, Douglass Pratt, Guy Thatcher, Thomas McCraken, Auther Eckhart, Wal-ter Dustin, Harry Row, and others, Celebrated the Day.

The pupils of Miss Annie Mattingly's kindergarten school celebrated the as versary of George Washington's birth-day by holding appropriate exercises last Thursday afternoon. These taking part Hursday arternoon. Those taking part were: Rath Cunningham, Buby Crichton, Mable Lindon, Venice Pierce, Elizabeth Rogge, Madline Shuman, Laura McKennie, Maud Newberry, Frances Dayton, Fauline Rogge, Roy Clark, Mark Cohn, Frank Valle, Eugene Oppenhimer, Ivan King, Max Levenson, Wilson Miller, Robert Cunningham, Jerome Prayer. ert Cunningham, Jerome Prager, Entertained Their Friends. A very pleasant and enjoyable time was held on Washington's birthday at the resi-dence of H. H. Holmes, No. 8 East Sixth street, the occasion being a party given by their children, Gertrude and Philip. some of their schoolmates. Gar ancing were induiged in until a late hour, then a bountiful suppor was given the little folks, and they all went home feeling happy and glad that George Washington had decided to have another birthday.

A Pleasant Home Social Affair. erly, Pleasant Home, on Saturday evenng, the 3th inst., to celebrate the joint pirihday of Mr. and Mrs. Shetterly. The vening was passed in games, and at 13 'clock supper was served, and at 1 o'clock and hostess many happy returns of the Surprise to Miss Horton.

A surprise party was given Miss Marths Horton, Thursday evening, at her hom Missouri avenue, Albina. A fine crowd f young folks was present. The guests 735 Misso social intercourse, followed by recitations and music, after which light refreshments sang songs. Those present were: Miss were served. Among those present were: Nora and Clara Horton, Miss Nellie and

