

corn, Mr. and Mrs. Davies and Arline

Anniversary Reunion.

The members of the Veteran male double quartet and their wives, met at the residence of Mrs. J. R. N. Sellwood, 41 East good objects. At the close of his re-marks, he presented to Miss E. C. Feit, the accompanist of the club, and in behalf of the "boys," an enlarged framed photograph of herself, A social time fol-lowed.

IN ARMQ CIRCLES.

Various Happenings of the Week at Vancouver Barracks.

Captain H. C. Cabell was the guest of day evening.

Mrs. J. W. Jacobs left the latter part of the week for San Francisco, to be gone

Mrs. Frank Taylor returned the early part of the week from a three months' visit to relatives in Washington and New Edward McCammon, who has been spending the holidays with his parents, returned to the university of Washington on Thursday.

Mrs. T. H. Barry, accompanied by her two children, started for Washington, D. C., last Thursday evening and will make MATRIMONIAL ALLIANCES.

Weddings of the Week in Portland and at Other Points.

to Mr. Bert Bercovich, of Oakland, Cal., was solemnized on Sunday evening, December 31, at 6:30 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.

L. Mendelson, in this city. The pariors were beautifully decorated. Ferns, smilax and palms were used profusely, and strings of smilax, white satin ribbon bow-knots and doves formed a bower unde which the happy couple were united. The presents were numerous and exquisite

Mr. and Mrs. Bercovich left for Oakland their future home, Monday night. The bride, who is a brunette of striking ap-pearance, was handsomely gowned in or-gandle, and carried a shower bouquet of Lawrence-De Lanney.

The marriage of Miss Rozelle De Lan-on Christmas day, at Comstock, Or. The oride was attended by her sister, Miss lora De Lanney, and Edward Lawrence brother of the groom, acted as best man. Rev. Dr. Gordon, of Drain, officiated. Only the intimate friends and relatives of the families were present. At the con-clusion of the ceremony an informal re-

Belt-Barnett.

nett. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Hugh D. Atchison, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, in the presence of immediate relatives. After congratulations, a dainty supper was

Hedwell-Olson

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ander-son, Sellwood street, Lower Albina, Mr.

G. F. Hedwell, of Seattle, was married to Miss Elin C. Olson, of this city, Wed-nesday evening, January 3, Rev. W. O.

Forbes officiating. There were many friends of the young people present. Mr, and Mrs. Hedwell left on Friday for Seattle, where they will make their future

Steele-Porth.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Upper Albina, Rev. W. O. Forbes officiat-ing, Mr. W. B. Steele and Miss Clara

Porth were united in marriage Saturday evening. December 23. The house was beautifully decorated, and the bridal party stood under an arch, the keystone which was a bunch of calla lilles.

On January 1, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mount Tabor, Isabel Brown was married to C. F. Soesbe, of Portland, Rev. Bray

IN AND ABOUT PORTLAND.

ent and Prospective.

home on East Alder street and Grand avenue, Monday evening. It was the 40th anniversary of their marriage, and which Mr. and Mrs. Older are prominent members, undertook to make the occasion a memorable one. The corps assembled, with the purpose of giving the long-wedded couple a genuine surprise, and its efforts were rewarded with complete success. The evening was pleasantly spent in a sociable manner, and closed with a Boodle Club Banquet.

nteous spread, served by the ladies and Mrs. George Older were the Soesbe-Brown.

of this city, was solemnized at high no bride coses.

ception was held.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Mendelson

York.

The Old-Fushioned Girl. She's only an "old-fashioned girl," she says, (is it enough to disgrace?) "old-fashioned girl" with womanly ways, And a winsome and womanis face; A girl who is innocent, modest and sweet, Who is sensible, cornest and true-

The kind that will surely be obsolets In another short year or two. She's only an "old-fashioned girl," you see, And not in the least "up to date";
But she is the kind of a girl for me.
And the kind that I want for a mate.
I know it's very "old-fashioned" to say
Your wife is a "saint from above"-But I own I am fond of her "old-fashioned

And proud of her "old-fashloned" love!

—Arthur Grissom in New York Journal.

LIMITED SOCIAL DOINGS

Ball of the Volunteers and Symphony and Glee Club Concerts Chief Events of Past Week,

Socially, the week just ended, except for the grand ball given on New Year's night by Company H, Second Oregon volunteers, under the patromage of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society of the organization, and which proved one of the most successful functions of the season, was not especially hilarious. The symphony concert and give club entertainment, helped out by the tea of Mrs. John Young, were about all there was else of importance to keep the ball rolling. If one should except the marriage of Miss Woodward, which the marriage of Miss Woodward, which was strictly private, and attended only by the families of the bride and groom.

Next week the Young People give the second of their series of parties, and the following week the Assembly Club will give their third ball of the season. give their third ball of the season.

GRAND BALL OF COMPANY H.

Second Oregon Boys Conduct a Successful Social Function. New Year's night witnessed a social triumph of company H, Second Oregon volunteers, in the form of a grand ball given at the Armory under the patronage of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society of the com-The affair was one of the most successful functions of the season, and a large gathering responded to the compuny's invitation to be present. The decorations of the hall, arranged under the direction of William Fernbacher, formerly quartermaster-sergeant of the company in Manila, were attractively gotten up, patriotic designs, of course, predomimating. Flags and bunting occupied the space overhead, while the four walls of the hall were covered, as never before, with red, white and blue. On either side of the platform occupied by the music were great letters formed of the national ors spelling the company's title. abundance of evergreens set off the bright coloring with excellent effect.

Conspicuous on the platform was a large floral design, elso in the national colors, and which was provided by Mrs. June McMillen Ordway, whose son was a member of the company and died while returning home on a hospital ship. Near were grouped all the historic relics of the company, presented to it, or won in old National Guard days. The pretty flag given by the girls of the high school, as the boys were about to depart for the Philippines, was also there, as were tro-Married, at the home of the groom's uncle, Mr. A. B. Purrier, 134 East Twentieth street, Wednesday evening, January 3, Mr. Ross B. Belt and Miss Lillian Barphies denoting triumphs in peaceful con-nest detains the state of the war.

Never was a larger or jollier crowd gathered in Armory hall. The Stanford football team, which had, during the day, gone down before the Mulmomah players, of whom more than half are embers of company H, was present as guests, and the members of the compan were dressed in khaki suits, leggings and black succe-the uniform of the tropics. It was the first public social function here at which khaki uniforms have been

NOBLE-WOODWARD WEDDING. Simple but impressive Services at Trinity Episcopul Church.

The marriage of Miss Adelaide Woodward and C. H. Noble was solemnized at Trinity church on Wednesday after moon, at & o'clock, in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties. The decorations were very simple, but exceedingly effective. About the chancel were potted plants and evergreens, while, upon the altar, were tall silver vases filed with calls illies. Mr. Lighter played the bridgi chorus from "Lobeturith" as the weeding party entered and took its place at the chancel steps. The service of the Episcopal church was read by Rev. Dr. The bride was charming in tailor-made traveling gown of gray, with large hat, and she carried a magnifi-of Sunnyside, officiating. cent bouquet of bride roses. Those present were: Judge and Mrs. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Noble, of Seattle: Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hopkins, Lewis Woodward and Frederick Hopkins, Social and Other Events Past, Presjr. Mr. and Mrs. Noble departed the same ing for San Francisco, where they will reside for the next few months. recipients of a pleasant surprise at their Various Social Events.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. Smith gave a party last Tuesday night, in honor of their daughter, Miss Ruth, which was attended by about 66 guests. They were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. William Cullen Alvord and Miss Clara Peal. The parlors were tastefully decorated in holly, mistle-toe and cut flowers, and the orchestra was screened behind palms. Dancing was the

One of the most delightful happenings of the new year was a serenade to Mme. Norelli, tendered by the Swedish and Nor-wegian double quartet, which not only sang, but presented Mms. Norelli with a courred Saturday evening. The club rooms, on Union avenue and San Rafael street, were handsomely decorated with evergreen and in the national colors. An interesting programme was carried out, consisting of music, singling and dancing.

An elegant supper was served, during which speeches were made by President Behrrs and others. The festivities continued until an early hour in the morning.

Joint Installation Ceremonies. The joint installment of officers of Lincoln Garfield post, No. S. and corps No. 19, took place at G. A. R. hall January There was a large attendance from other posts and corps. Miss Ada M. Dewey, of Lincoln Garfield corps, presided at the piano. The post called to order, and gave way to the corps. Mrs. Julia A. Lawton, past department inspector and past corps president, officiated as installing officer. The following-named officers were installed, to act for the coming year: President, Dr. Flora A. Brown; senior vice-president, Mrs. Mary Mitchell; junior vice-president, Miss Eva Burt; treasurer, Mrs. Julia A. Law-ton; chaplain, Miss Dewey; conductor, Mrs. Manning Wilkinson; guard, Mrs. Emma J. Brown. The appointive officers were: Secretary, Mrs. Hattle V. B. Bel-din; assistant conductor, Mrs. Elizabeth Shepperd; assistant guard, Mrs. L. A. dence of Mrs. J. R. N. Sellwood, 41 East Thrty-first street, for the purpose of celebrating their anniversary, on Monday evening last. The first part of the even-ing was spent in song, the quartet singing a number of selections. Then Judge S. Builock, the leader, made a few fitting remarks, giving the history of the organi-zation, and of its efforts to help along all good objects. At the close of his re-Woodle, A short programme of musical selections and recitations was rendered, selections and recitations was rendered, after the corps installation ceremony. Post officers were installed as follows: Commander, J. S. Jackson; senior vice-commander, P. Billip Lawton; adjutant, R. N. McMaster; quartermaster, H. Sutcliff; surgeon, Dr. James Barr; chapiain, Rev. A. J. Barden; officer of the day, T. B. McDevitt; officer of the guard, D. C. McDonald; sergeantmajor, T. C. Bell; quartermaster-sergeant, J. F. Williams. Major Bell and others J. F. Williams. Major Bell and others made pleasing remarks, and an original ode to the Bean was read by Comrade J. P. Shaw.

Lively Watch Meeting.

An enthusiastic watch meeting was held Captain and Mrs. H. P. McCain on Monat Odd Fellows hall, in Lower Albina, on New Year's eve, by some of the members of the late '98 Social Club and their friends. The hall was commodiously ar- home this week. a few weeks.

I. Wygant, from Albany, N. Y., is visiting his brother, Major Henry Wygant, Twenty-fourth infantry.

Miss Amy Smith has gone to Fort Stevens, Or., for a few days and will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. George A. Skinner, Mrs. Frank, Taylor, returned the santre ranged for the event and the watchers assembled early, in order to have a pleas-ant time during the intervening hours. In the midst of the festivities a recess was proclaimed and Deacon C. O. Jones transformed the social function into an old-fashioned prayer meeting, which the deacon conducted in a manner that would have excited the envy of his brother districts. vine, "Sam" Jones.

At the close of the recess, a variety of nteresting games were played and choice selections of music rendered, and when the hands of the clock indicated the ap-proach of midnight and the advent of the proach of midnight and the advent of the new year, the watchers sat down and tick-led their palates with oysters and other fancy dishes. After exchanging best wishes for a joyous New Year all 'round, the meeting dissolved. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Paul, the Misses Amy Setterwight, Minnie Wagenblast, Florence Wright, Blanche Roark, Calia Love, Florence Jubb, Marie Kurth, Alice Thomas, Maybell Young, Ora Darr, Edith Thomas, Maybell Young Ora Darr, Edith Smith and Bessle Kennard; Messrs. W. Sullenberg, R. C. Clyde, William A. Young, D. E. Payne, Frank Botsford, M. C. Bur-pee, John E. Wallace, C. O. Jones, Geo. Buchta, William Massman, C. I. Scoffins Jake Wagenblast, Henry Rowe, Ray Miller and Howard Paul.

Multnomah Club Ball. The second annual ball of the Multno-Wadhams & Co. attended, in a body, a banquet given by Leo Fried recently at Brandes cafe. Mr. Fried retired from the firm on January 1, after having been a member of it for the period of 19 years. He will soon start upon a tour of the world, to last two years. The banquet was attended by 30 persons. Mr. Hahn acting as toastmaster, Mr. Fried was pre-sented with a fine pair of binoculars by his former employes.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lutke, of this city, entertained, on New Year's, eve, "the usual number" that meet annually to hold watch meeting. At 10:30 o'clock supper was served, and when the tolling of bells announced the birth of a new year it was ishered in with firecrackers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harkleroad gave a delightful New Year's party at their residence, 250 Fargo street, Monday night. A very enjoyable time was spent playing whist and other games, after which came a delicious lunch.

PEOPLE COMING AND GOING.

Ebb and Flow of the Social Tide in and About Portland.

W. C. Witzel is visiting New York and other Eastern cities. Dr. Beatrice Grenler left yesterday for Walla Walla for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer left for the Eastern states on Wednesday evening. Frederick Hopkins left for Chicago on Wednesday to be gone about three weeks.

Mrs. Leopold Rosenthal left on the morning train for a sojourn of several weeks in California. Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzio and Miss Sib-sen leave on Monday for a short trip to the City of Mexico.

Mrs. Henry Taubenheimer, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Florence, has returned from California. Miss Edna Taylor and Miss Alice Juston left last week to take a course at Mills seminary, Oakland. The second party of the Young People's Club will be given on Friday next, the 12th inst., at Parsons hall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cotton have re-turned from the East and taken apart-ments at the Hobart-Curtis for the win-

Mrs. Frederick French, of Chicago, is visiting her sen, Mr. Sidney French, in this city. She expects to make Portland her home.

Henry McConnell, who has been spending the holldays with his parents in the city, will return to Stanford university this evening.

Mrs. Edward A. Plerce, of Salem, has been the guest of Mrs. W. Henry Games, at "The Waldorf" the past week. She left for home Friday.

At St. Helen's Hall, a very jolly, informal dance was given last Friday night, which was attended by all the pupils and quite a number of their friends.

Mrs. Ruth A. Brown, of Woodburn, has been visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. B. F. Jones, Mrs. J. D. Kennedy and other friends here and will return to her Miss Mayme Kuykendall, who has been spending several months in North Yamhill with relatives, has returned to the city, and will soon leave for Boston to complete her musical education.

H. B. LITT

Leaves the 14th for New York. If references are satisfactory, will take measures subject of approval, for real tailor suits, skirts, waists and petticoats, and evening and street dresses.

Dancing.

New dancing class forming by Mrs. Nina Larowe, Foreman hall. Call or telephone Brown 950. Children's class Sat-

Common Sense Beauty Parlors. Facial blemishes removed. 70 Lewis

H. A. Webber, teacher of mandolin, banjo and guitar. Studio 515, 514 Marquam

AMONG THE COLLEGES. School Term Resumed at Various

of the Institutions. The Pacific university school opened Wednesday morning with an inmah Amateur Athletic Club will take creased attendance and with bright pros place in the clubhouse Tuesday evening, pects for the term. Nearly all the old was one of the most brilliant events of the season, and there is little doubt that the coming affair will equal, if not sur-pass it. The committee in charge consists of Lansing Stout, George P. Dekum, the Sumner Woman's Relief Corps, of J. C. Muche and Charles McDonell.

WORD FROM HOME.

SAILORS ON NEWLY ARRIVED SHIP GETTING THEIR MAIL AT A PORT. LAND PIER.

Burns' Anniversary,

The Caledonian Club has secured the services of the Hon. George H. Williams to deliver an address on Burns on this occasion, January 25. They are also pre-paring a first-class programme from the poet's works for that night, to be fol-lowed by a social ball, they having se-cured Arion hall for the occasion.

Minor Happenings.

January 30. The ball given last winter students have returned. Professor Robertson and wife visited friends at Salem during the vacation. Professors Sweet-zer, Bradly, Bates, Flinn, and Miss Farnham visited Portland during the holidays.

At the state normal school the apparatus was moved from the old training school building to the new one during the holidays, and now school is being held in the new building. The young women's basket-ball team is practicing for a match game to be played with the Cor-vallis team in the early part of February. The annual conventon of the Oregon division of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. will be held in Monmouth, January 12, 13 and 14. Delegations from all parts of the state On January 2 the Christmas vacation at Mount Angel college ended and the stu-ceived the attendance will be even greater than before. The wave of prosperity has struck the Benedictine Sisters of Mount Angel, who Penedictine Sisters of Mount Angel, who are the co-partners of the Benedictine Fathers in educational work, and they report the largest attendance of pupils in the history of their institution.

School work at Willamette university was resumed Wednesday. The first days after the holiday intermission showed many vacancies in the classes, but all the students will be in their places for the students will be in their places for the new week.

Oregon City. The Misses fielden entertained a number of friends Friday evening with a "Progressive Jenkins" party. William Hoffman was awarded the first prize. Refreshments were served. Miss Minnie Meyer gave a Japanese tea to a number of her young friends Wednes-day evening. The young women appeared in costume. "Conundrums" were a feature of the entertainment.

Miss Veda Williams was given a sur-

NORTH OF THE COLUMBIA.

Various Events of the Week in State of Washington.

Vancouver.

The Vancouver High Five Club met with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. DuBois last week.

Miss Veda Williams was given a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Miller Monday night. "Progressive hearts" was the feature of the evening. Refreshments were served.

The V. M. C. A. gave a pleasant entertainment Wednesday, evening in honor of the closing of the "popular lady contest."

Gymnasium class exhibitions were given, and the woman's auxiliary served refreshments. Miss Nora Califf was awarded a gold watch as the prize for the most Miss Ethel Flick left on Thursday for gold watch as the prize for the most

MAY ACHIEVE OPERATIC FAME

MRS. S. M'DONALD, OF PORTLAND.

Professor W. H. Kinross and other good judges of musical talent in this city say of Mrs. McDonaid, the subject of this sketch, that she has a rare meszo-soprano voice and dramatic ability of an order that may enable her to achieve a success on the operatic stage equal to that of Nevada, Nordica or Emma Abbott. She is now preparing herself for an operation career.

an extended visit to relatives in North popular lady. Miss Califf received 1(23 Dakota. Mrs. Anna Daniels gave a very enjoy- in the contest, $22. able tea to a number of young ladies last Miss Pearlette - K Friday afternoon, in honor of Miss Car-

The chief social function of the week was the delightful afternoon tea given by Mrs. C. L. Hunt and Mrs. M. F. Ellrich, at the home of the latter, last Thursday. "Dutch whist" was the feat-ure of the affair.

ples enjoyed a delightful evening. Mrs. J. H. Long gave a very enjoyable

Monday night the Knights of Pythias gave their annual masquerade ball at the Grand opera-house. The affair was a great social and financial success. The net proceeds, about $50, go to the Carbonado relief fund.

On New Year's day the following-named ladies kept open house and received their friends: Mrs. N. B. Coffman, assisted by Misses Herndon, Millett, Correll and Newland; Mrs. J. Y. Coffman, assisted by Mrs. J. C. Rush, Mrs. Haller, Mrs. Kepner and the Misses St. John and Codley; Mrs. Frank Everett, assisted by Mrs. E. E. Smith, Mrs. Robinson and the Misses Mae Gates and Sadle Gates; the Misses Maynard and Holbrook, at the home of Miss Maynard.

Olympin. The Woman's Relief Corps of Olympia gave a recepton and ball New Year's night, in honor of the Thurston county boys, who lately returned from the Phil-ippines with the First Washington volunteers. Hon. J. O'B. Scopey presided and addresses were made by Adjutant-Gen-eral Fox. State Superintendent Browne and Leonard Fowler, editor of the State. A chorus of girls and boys gave a patriotic drill, with song accompani After the reception the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing, and at mid-night a banquer was served by the Reiler Corps. There was a large attendance, Centralia.

Mrs, H. J. Miller is visiting her daughter Mrs. Williams, in Portland. Dr. Williams and family, of Minne visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Taylor, North Centralia. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Davis, on January 1, Miss May Ready, of this city, was married to Mr. Frank H. Mc-Hard, of Illinois, Rev. Fretz, of the Bap-tist church, officiating. Miss Ready has spent her entire life in this city and is of Centralia's most popular young

SOUTH OF COLUMBIA. Various Events of the Week in the State of Oregon.

Salem. Dr. H. H. Ollnger returned this week from a month's visit in San Francisco. County Surveyor B. B. Herrick and famly have returned from a three months' isit in California.

On Monday, January 1, Miss Wanless and Mr. Ralph de Sart were united in mat-rimony, at the home of the bride's parents, near this city, Rev. W. C. Kantner officlating.

The Capital City Galety Club, which gave a number of pleasant dances last winter, has been reorganized and will give semi-monthly dances this season membership will be limited to 25 young Miss Mae Boise gave a whist party last Saturday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Rudolph Prail, of Portland. Twenty lalies were present and were seated at five tables. Mrs. Hal. Patton took the first prize and Mrs. Claud Gatch the second.

A Masonic installation, followed by a banquet and a dance, was one of the chief social events of the week in Salem. The ladies of the local order of the Eastern

In the contest, X22.

Miss Pearlette Killin, postmistress at Handy, was married last Sunday to G. C. Pendleton, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Killin, Rev. J. M. Dick, of Hubbard, officiating. The bride is a member of one of Oregon's prominent ploneer families.

Miss Lulu A. Meyer was married last Sunday to A. E. McCausland, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Meyer; Rev. A. J. Montgomery officiated. After the cerem The Cotillion gave its closing party Friner was served. Mr. and Mrs. McCausday evening at the Grand. About 20 couland will be at home in Oregon City after January 8.

A very pretty home wedding occurred Mrs. J. H. Long gave a very enjoyable at the home wedding occurred at the home of Chehalis. About 20 friends enjoyed her hospitality, and passed a very pleasant evening.

A very pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Salisbury, at Parkplace, Gladstone, Monday evening, the contracting parties being their daughter, Miss Maude E., and E. M. Rasmussen. Rev. A. J. Montgomery officiated in the presence of about 20 invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen will reside at Gladstone Pendleton.

Ben Borroughs entertained a number of his young friends on New Year's night. Mrs. Van Horn, of Walla Walla, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. F. Wamsley. Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Bean have re turned from a trip to Mr. Bean's old home in Maine.

E. H. Clarke and Frank Frazier received their friends on New Year's day at the Hotel Pendleton.

A reception was tendered the U. of O. glee club on Friday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. F. C. Noif. A number of young ladies assisted in receiving.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Johnson gave a dinner party on New Year's day to the fol-lowing named friends: Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Taylo and Mr. and Mrs. M. Baruh,

The ladies of Pendleton who received New Year's callers were: Mrs. F. B. Clopton, Mrs. F. E. Judd. Mrs. H. C. Guernsey, Mrs. L. Cohen and Mrs. Physics at the home of Mrs. Charles Miss Roberts, at the home of Mrs. Clop-Mrs. H. F. Johnson, Mrs. F. W. VI cent, Mrs. M. Baruh, Mrs. C. S. Jack-son, Mrs. W. L. Shiverick, Mrs. T. C. Taylor, at the Johnson home, on Jackson Mrs. N. Berkley, jr., Mrs. Ross Dickson, Mrs. E. P. Marshall, Mrs. Haldane Dick-son, Mrs. John Vert and Mrs. C. C. Berkeley, at the home of Mrs. N. Berke-

Mrs. G. A. Hartman, at her home, with Mrs. S. P. Sturgis, Mrs. A. D. Stillman, Mrs. G. I. LaDow and Mrs. C. J. Smith. Mrs. C. E. Roosevelt, at her home, as-sisted by Mrs. F. F. Wamsley, Miss Burns and Miss Hexter. McMinnville.

Roswell Conner returned home from San Francisco Monday. Miss Maggie Boyd returned to her home in Portland Monday. W. C. Cook and wife returned home Monday from Southern California.

The J. U. G. Club entertained the D. D.'s at the home of Mrs. T. S. Patty, last Mon-day afternoon. Dr. J. F. Calbreath and family left Mc-Minnville last week for Salem, where they will make their future home. Mrs. W. D. McDonaid entertained a few friends at whist Wednesday evening. Mrs. J. W. Hobbs and Mr. E. M. Briedwell made the highest scores. Miss Stella Patty gave a delightful party to a number of her friends on Wednesday vening, December 27. Cards were played, some very enjoyable selections. Refreshments were served. Albany. Captain W. H. Kenting and family left on Tuesday for their home in Oskaloosa, Mrs. Harris and daughter, of Layton, Neb., are visiting at the home of Mr. P. W. Spink. Mrs. E. D. Cusick gave an entertainment on Wednesday evening in honor of her sister, Mrs. E. B. Piper, of Seattle. W. Gifford Nash, of Eugene, Professor Seely, of Salem; W. H. Lee, C. E. Sox and Professor George Wirtz met in this city The annual banquet of the Boodle Club | Employes and members of the firm of dents, with but few exceptions returned, Star entertained their brothers, after the December 29, to make arrangements for studies being resumed the following day. ceremonies by which the new officers of the annual musical festival of the Valley New students were among the number, that order and of the Royal Arch chapter that order and of the Royal Arch chapter were installed.

A very pretty home wedding occurred at noon on New Year's day, at the home o' Hon. H. M Palmer, near Albany. The contracting parties were: G. M. Junkin of Sherman county, and M ss Lois R. Palmer, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. H. L. Reed, of the First Presbyterian The Magazine Club reception, held on New Year's day, at the home of Mrs. P. A. Young, was the leading social event of the holiday season. The artistic home was tastefully decorated with wreaths of holiy and mistletce, while ferns and palms, softly shaded lumps and candelabra were placed in course available and placed in every available nook, Mrs. A. M. Cunnon poured coffee in the Oriental entertained.

Corvallia.

Miss Clara Irvine, of Portland, is the guest of Miss Clara Fisher, Mrs. F. G. Clark entertained a number of friends New Year's afternoon, the occasion being an informal reception to Mrs. Nerton Clark.

com, and a large number of guesta were Misses Eva and Lelia Tucker enter-tained about 35 of their friends New Year's eve. Games, music and dancing were the order of the evening. Refreshments were served.

The Ladies' Coffee Club held a reception at Firemen's hall, from 2:30 to 5 o'clock New Year's day. A delightful afternoon was spent by those present. In the evening there was a dance.

Miss Upshur has gone East for a month's trip. She will visit friends at Washington, D. C.

Dr. Jay Tuttle left on Wednesday for Rossland, B. C., where he will attend the wedding of his daughter, Nettle, and Mr. Robert Hunter.

The Whist Club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Thomson on New Year's night. The first prizes were won by Mrs. E. C. Lewis and Mr. George Noisnd, and the consolution prizes by Judge and Mrs. Taylor. Dancing was indulged in during the evening and a dainty luncheon was served.

Mrs. H. B. Morso, of Portland, has been for the last two weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Riddell. Misses Anna and Lena Burkhart, of Portland, have spent the last week in The Dalles visiting Miss Davis.

The state university students, who have seen enjoying the holidays at home, have all gone back to their studies at Eugene.

The Columbia Dancing Club gave their fourth party New Year's night at Baldwin hall, which was very tastefully decorated with evergreens.

Baker City.

The chief social event of the week was the ball and banquet given by Baker City lodge, No. 338; Henovolent and Prothe longer of Elks, the occasion being the first use of the lodge's new half, and to be the first lodge quarters in this part of the state. Including about 70 Elks and ladies from La Grande and Union, there were present about 30 persons. Hon. Raiph E. Moedy, of Portland, deputy grand exalted ruler of the Oregon Elks, will nex Tuesday formally dedicate the new hall.

Robert Taylor and wife are visiting Se-attle, Whatcom and Blaine. Mrs. Mand Vaughn, of Portland, is visiting friends and relatives in this city, Miss Lenn Boos, who has been in Port-and the past three months, has returned

Roseburg. Lew H. Zigler has returned from a two years' absence in Eastern Oregon, George Carpy has gone to La Grande, o become chief clerk in the land office. Mrs. F. H. Rapp has gone to Juneau, Alaska, where she will rejoin her husband.

"My Own." My own-the dictionary makes The value of the words appear
A little thing-it only takes A line or two to make them clear,
"Peculiar," "Belonging to," "My special property alone."
Will that description do for you.

My own? But dictionaries lack a heart. A lexicographer is etern, And it requires another art The phrase's real intent to learn. Though commentating eages fill A hundred tomes, as they are prone— We could explain it better still.

-G. C. P., in Westminster Gazette. A Sight for the Gods. The girl you'd give the world to win, To show you how she holds you dear, Now fondly ties beneath your chin few fondly ties comment wear.

A necktie you can never wear.

—New York World.

"A Perfect Food," "Preserves Health,"

"Prolongs Life."

"It is at once a delightful food and urishing drink, and it would be well for humanity if there were more of it consumed and less tea or coffee."-The Homeopathic Recorder,

Walter Baker & Co. Umited. DORCHESTER, MASS. Established 1780.

Annual Clearance Sale

15c Collars ..... $1.50 Elderdown Sacques .. $1.10 $4.00 Eiderdown Robes ....$3.45 $3.00 Waists .....

$3.50 Sateen Skirts ...... $2.95

272 Washington St.