

Winter has no more rigors... I look to gloves and necker bright... When I saw her lovely face...

She was pissing fate... I was nineteen, she twenty-eight... When first I saw her - lovely face...

The twenty-eight and I nineteen... I look to gloves and necker bright... To find more favor in her sight...

She twenty-eight, I twenty-eight... I see the powder on her face... Her form has angles more than grace...

They Enable Women of Limited Means to Keep up a Presentable Appearance at All Times.

Every woman who is wise in shopping... I look to gloves and necker bright... To find more favor in her sight...

Very few plain silk waists are seen this year... They are usually in combination either with contrasting silk, with velvet, satin or lace...

with leaf-shaped scallops, piped with satin and, at the upper edges, with a full frill of chantilly lace.

with leaf-shaped scallops, piped with satin and, at the upper edges, with a full frill of chantilly lace.

Heavy satin is very much in vogue in place of taffeta.

One of the loveliest theater waists of the season is made of white silk, mottled with splashes of rose-pink satin.

The collar is straight and high at the sides. It is edged and encircled with a piping of the same fur.

carved ivory fan and the faint scent of violets and sandal-wood.

Satin Theater Bodice. The remaining illustration shows a theater bodice in Parma violet satin.

A couple of plain flannel shirt waists, to wear under the tailored waist, are quite indispensable to my lady's collection of bodices.

NOBODY LOOKS AT A MAN'S NEW HAT.

BUT WHEN A WOMAN WEARS ONE!

should find its way into every wardrobe. These two unpretentious bodices need not become nearly as monotonous as one might fancy.

natural defect on this score can be disguised by the color of the belt.

MILLINERY AS A FINE ART. That's How One Successful New York Milliner Approached It.

Most women who gain ascendancy in the millinery trade learn the business from the hat frame up, so to speak, and become known through their years of experience.

nery as her life-work, to enroll herself as pupil in the individually taught class of an efficient art teacher.

Our Sary Emma's Photographs. Our Sary Emma is possessed by an art something queer.

Buttonhole Sewing by Men and Whittling Contests by Women.

LOTS OF FUN IN THIS.

SOME HOPE FOR OLD MAIDS. Over Twelve as Many Bachelors as Spinsters in United States.

side, I am an enthusiast. I enjoy making the best and most of my customers' native possibilities.

FASHION REPEATS ITSELF. Veers Around to Graceful Mold of First Empire-Skirt War.

That history repeats itself is a platitude, but a platitude sometimes is the truth.

and out on the principle of the sun-ray skirt. There is the skirt set into small tucks at the back, or into actual gathers.

California's Girl Artist. A California girl, who acquired much of her success with the brush in New York art schools, will have two pictures hung in the salon at the world's fair in Paris in 1900.

Infant Crises. Infants, says the Woman's Home Companion, enable one to distinguish, almost from birth, three classes—the healthy, the one which the child exercises his lungs the fretting of moderate discomfort, and the acute cry of pain.

The Brute! The first pang of her married life. Was when heart's dearest put his foot on her best parlor chair.

Japanese Women Divers. Over 100 Japanese women following the hazardous profession of divers are found along the coast of the peninsula.

End-of-the-Century Woman. Here at the end of nineteen hundred years they tell us woman is a creature "new" which she always like herself appea.

She is timid as the morning dew. Yet is she ofttime wiser than the sea.

Denver Republican Joins Issue With Mrs. Caroline Corbin on the Political Equality Question.

Denver Republican Joins Issue With Mrs. Caroline Corbin on the Political Equality Question.

WOMEN IN THE PULPIT. Three of Them Preach in Chicago Churches on One Sunday.

Chicago News.

Chicago News.