EDWARDS ESTABLISHED 1878. The only place where you can afford to buy on credit. Preserved Natural Palms. Have become a necessity for home decoration. 185-187-189-191 First St. Large Tree Palm 10 feet high $9.50. A neat little fancy chair, upholstered in velvet, $3.00. A new lot of Sideboards, just received. We have the best selection of old Dressers in the city. Elegant French plate mirror, in one, for $11.00.

Quantity-Quantity-Prices. We received in Portland during the season of 1899, 21 complete carloads, COLUMBIA, HART-FORD and VELETTE Bicycles. Almost two carloads to any other dealer's one. Our machines have given the best of satisfaction to all purchasers. They are wheels that satisfy. The rare combination of prices at which we are offering the COLUMBIA, CLEVELAND, HART-FORD, STORMER and PENNANT Bicycles should induce every intending purchaser to buy a standard Bicycle, made by a responsible house, in preference to a questionable make of wheels. Columbia Chainless $75.00, Cleveland Chainless 75.00, Columbia Chain Wheels 50.00, Cleveland Chain Wheels, Light Roadster 50.00, Cleveland Chain Wheels, Road Racer 50.00, Cleveland Chain Roadster 40.00, Hartford Chain Wheels 35.00, Stormer Chain Wheels 35.00, Pennant Special Chain Wheels 30.00, Pennant Chain Wheels 25.00. Juvenile Bicycles at specially low prices. Wheels sold on installment. American Bicycle Company. Portland Branch Pope Sales Dept. 132-134 Sixth Street. An Old Newspaper Man says about Grape-Nuts. Arthur M. Hull, manager of the St. Paul Globe, thinks advertisements are written to inform other people about food and its value, but are not intended for newspapermen themselves. Grape-Nuts is a cereal food that rebuilds the brain and nerve centers. The Plums of Commerce. Admiral Dewey in New York Journal. All the great nations are striving, today as never before, for increase of commerce—not for the commerce of the East merely, but that of the world in general; and by side with the increase of commerce must be placed the necessity for its protection, for the nation which is lacking in power to protect its commerce upon the seas and in its ports is not only without

ENGLISH CAPITAL INTERESTED

Will Assist in Development of Seven Devils Country.

E. H. Anderson, of Portland, who has just returned from the Seven Devils country, in Idaho, says English capital is being interested to a very large extent in the copper mines, and considerable amount of development work is being done.

PLEASED AT THE DECISION

What Superintendent Gardner Says of the Schmidt Case.

During the past week the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society has admitted in the Home 19 children, and placed out 15, leaving now on hand 37 children, 18 of whom are boys and 19 are girls.

WHY IT WAS CANCELED.

Reasons That Kept "A Cheerful Liar" From Succeeding.

Many comments have been made concerning the sudden termination of the engagement of "A Cheerful Liar," which was given to a crowded house at the Metropolitan theater last Sunday night.
