

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK IN PORTLAND AND AT OTHER PLACES.

Perhaps the most prominent wedding that has ever occurred in Scandinavian circles in Portland was the marriage of Theodore Anderson and Miss Hilma C. Peterson, which was celebrated at Auditorium hall, Saturday evening, January 20. Rev. J. W. Simon was the officiating minister. The hall was artistically decorated with ivy, smilax, potted palms and ferns. Suspended above and among the ivy and ferns were tulle and tinsel, and in aerial lemniscas, giving a pleasing effect in the brilliantly lighted hall.

The bride wore a dainty gown of white organdy, over silk, trimmed in real lace, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Agnes Gustafson was maid of honor, and Charles Anderson, brother of the groom, was best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Agnes Gustafson, Miss Tilla Anderson, Miss Mabel Anderson and Miss Bertha Hansen, each of whom carried bouquets of bride's roses. The groomsmen were: Sven Anderson, uncle of the bride; Alf Nilsen, John Nilsen, Gustaf Johnson and Charles Anderson.

A delicious lunch was served in the parlors of the adjoining hall, at the close of the wedding ceremony, and after the wedding and bride's cakes had been allotted, the happy couple and guests engaged in dancing and merry-making. About 150 invited guests were present, including prominent people from other cities in Oregon and in Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will be at home after January 31, at their residence on East Madison street.

Eldridge-Rogers.

A home wedding was solemnized at high noon on Wednesday, the 24th inst., in the presence of a few invited relatives and friends, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. L. Bowman, Tenth and Clifton streets, this city. The contracting parties were Mr. Arthur S. Eldridge, of Buffalo, N. Y., and Miss Alice H. Rogers, of Marshall, Or., and Rev. Mr. Morris, of the Episcopal church, officiated. The bride was becomingly gowned and carried a bouquet of white roses. After the ceremony the bridal party entered carriages and were driven to the Hotel Portland, where the wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge will visit friends in Oregon for a few days before starting for their future home in Buffalo, N. Y.

Febvet-Ward.

On Sunday evening last, a quiet wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of St. Francis church, the Rev. Father Shebol officiating. The contracting parties were Miss Anna Ward and Mr. John J. Febvet. The bride was attended by Miss Julia M. Parker, of Salem, and the groom by his brother, Mr. George Febvet. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Colonel and Mrs. M. E. Freeman, where a bountiful supper was served. The bride and groom took the evening train for Seattle, and will be at home at 38 Columbia street, after February 1.

Beary-Fitzner.

A pleasant home wedding was solemnized at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sol Beary, 147 Tenth street, Sunday evening, the 21st inst., in the presence of close relatives only, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Carrie Beary to Dr. A. Titzer, of this city. Rev. J. Bloch officiated, and Miss Sophia Burkheimer was bridesmaid; Mr. Sam L. Beary was best man and little Estelle Goldsmith played Lohengrin's wedding march. The rooms were prettily decorated with ferns and Oregon grape. The bride carried a bunch of bride roses. The young couple left on a trip to the Sound street, Sunday evening, the 21st inst., in the presence of close relatives only, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Carrie Beary to Dr. A. Titzer, of this city. Rev. J. Bloch officiated, and Miss Sophia Burkheimer was bridesmaid; Mr. Sam L. Beary was best man and little Estelle Goldsmith played Lohengrin's wedding march. The rooms were prettily decorated with ferns and Oregon grape. The bride carried a bunch of bride roses. The young couple left on a trip to the Sound street, Mrs. W. W. Graham and Charlotte J. Hellenbrand were united in marriage, Rev. Dr. Morrison officiating. The wedding was a very quiet one, only a few of the most intimate friends of the young couple being present. A dainty lunch was served, the table being beautifully decked with flowers and evergreens. Mr. and Mrs. Graham sail for Germany early next month and will remain in Berlin for several years. Mr. Graham is said to be a violinist of exceptional ability.

Glutsh-Druck.

A pretty family wedding took place last Sunday, January 2, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Druck, the contracting parties being their daughter, Miss Nelly Druck and Mr. Emil Glutsh. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Staub, after which an enjoyable evening was spent, only intimate friends of the family being present. The young couple are making their home at Paradise Springs, where they will be pleased to receive their friends.

Karo-Lunterstein.

The marriage of Miss Annie Lunterstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Brumberg and Mr. Louis E. Karo was solemnized on Sunday, January 21, at the Auditorium hall. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Abrahamson, in the presence of a large number of guests. An elaborate supper was served, after which dancing was indulged in until a late hour. Mr. and Mrs. Karo will receive at their new home, 228 Sherman street, today.

Morrin-Roles.

Mr. Thomas Morrin and Miss Mollie Roles, both formerly of this city, were married at Walla Walla Sunday evening, January 7, by Rev. L. A. Johnson. In consequence of the recent death of the bride's grandparents and the illness of her mother, Mrs. Roles, the wedding ceremony was quietly conducted, with only close friends in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Morrin will make their home in Walla Walla.

Roth-Downs.

Miss Marguerite M. Downs and Mr. J. F. Roth were quietly married last Saturday evening, at the home of the bride's parents in Piedmont, the Rev. Mr. Stevens officiating. After the ceremony there was a dainty lunch. The bride carried a bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. and Mr. Roth will be at home to their friends at their home in the Hill block after February 1.

Engagement Announcement.

The engagement of Miss Nellie Hembree to Mr. George Housman, both of this city, is announced.

IN AND ABOUT PORTLAND.

Social and Other Events, Past, Present and Prospective.

A pleasant and genuine surprise party was given Miss Pearl Grace Gilbreath Tuesday evening, on the occasion of her 18th birthday, at the residence of her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wager, at 173 Arthur street. Miss Gilbreath was the recipient of a number of valuable and pretty presents, and her friends who were present enjoyed a very pleasant evening. A nice luncheon was served at 11 o'clock, shortly after which the guests departed, with unanimous wishes for "many happy returns."

Special French Classes.

French pronunciation classes will be opened February 1 (Thursday), under the direction of Mme. A. de Fonfré Smith. Persons who have a knowledge of the French language, and yet do not feel that their pronunciation have an excellent opportunity of perfecting themselves; for after having taken the course, one never hesitates at the pronunciation of a single French word. Those who have no knowledge of French build the necessary foundation for study. Over 200 persons in Portland have successfully taken this course. Terms (only for courses opened February 1, $2.00 for complete course, the same for next course. Reading and conversation classes, $3.50 a month in class of five, two lessons per week. Address 121 Tenth street, Tel. Front 215.

A Pretty Compliment.

The following letter received by Mrs. Ordway, from Madam Norell, the gifted singer, is self-explanatory:

"Portland, Jan. 18.—Mrs. June McM. Ordway, Portland, Or.: My Dear Mrs. Ordway—Please allow me to express my appreciation of the honor tendered me by the dedication of your lovely "Bird Notes." It is a most charming composition, and the delightful melody it contains could only spring from a pure and tender heart. It is with great pleasure that I add this gem to my programmes. Very sincerely yours, JENNIE NORELL."

A Trip to Paris.

For those intending to visit the Paris exhibition, a special course is given in daily-life conversation. It reads like a novel. Classes for beginners, Monday, Wednesday, Friday, at 19 and 3 The Grand Central Hotel. Schuch Oregonian building, Director, Professor Vannod.

Popular "Oregon March."

Day After Christmas.

(In a flat.)

"Twas the day after Christmas and all through the flat
There was drumming and strumming on this and on that,
The "Doctor" little boy had a horn that he blew
Till it seemed he must blow the contrivance in two;
The "Widder" little one had a drum that he beat
As hard as he could, without stopping to eat,
Young George brought his wife a piano, and said
Elsie never let up for a minute all day;
The "Grooms" gave their daughter a new violin—
I wonder if wishing folk harm to a girl?
The "Blackie" brought their sweet little Willie a flute,
And he started right off on a horrible toot!
There were thumping and jumping and clapping and yelling,
There was rumbuling of cars, there was jingling of bells,
There was laughing and strumming on this and on that—
Oh, the day after Christmas is—in a flat!"

WHERE ENJOYMENT RULES

Very Jolly Weekly Entertainments at a Most Hospitable Home—Happenings of the Week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Meers, after giving a series of dinner parties, a children's party and a reception, to Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Morrison, all of which were largely attended, although they were entirely informal, have been "at home," on Thursdays in January.

On these occasions, their home has been filled with their friends, who have entered joyously into the merry-making. The enjoyment of the evenings has been much heightened by the liberal sprinkling of young people present. To dancing, singing, card playing, lotto and pool have been added cakewalking and candy pulling. The entire house has been elaborately decorated with Christmas greens and, in the dining-rooms, from a beautifully laid table, delicious refreshments have been served.

GARBED AS JUVENILES.

Unique Dinner Entertainment Given by Miss Flanders.

Miss Flanders gave quite a unique entertainment on Wednesday evening, in the shape of a dinner party, at which all the guests were attired in juvenile costumes. The hostess herself looked unusually fetching in the gown of a youthful miss of "yester olden time." Miss Frances Lewis was most attractively gowned as a rural lass, and Miss Mable gave a very faithful representation of Alexander's Linticum. Miss Belle Alnsworth appeared as "Little Lord Fauntleroy," and Miss M. Louise Flanders was attired as a little kindergarten maid of G. Miss Ethel Williams appeared as a cute little babe, in beautiful lace lingerie.

The dinner passed off most successfully and afterwards Miss Alnsworth took a number of flahgship photographs.

Miss Flanders' dinner guests were: Miss M. Louise Flanders, Miss Laurie King, Miss Mabel Macleay, Miss Alnsworth, Miss Maud Alnsworth, Miss Frances Lewis, Miss Alice Heitahu, Miss Frances Hoyt, Miss Ethel Williams, Miss Helen Eickman and Miss Whitley. Besides those at the dinner there were present: Mrs. Flanders, Mrs. C. H. Lewis, Miss Williams and Mrs. George Good.

Dance of the Fleur de Lis.

The fourth dance of the Fleur de Lis took place Thursday evening at Burkhardt hall. The affair was managed exclusively by the women members of the Fleur de Lis and proved a pronounced success. The attendance was unusually large and the decorations very artistic. The many-colored helms surrounding the stage made a very pretty effect, and the musical programme was, as usual, excellent. The patronesses were: Mrs. J. A. Hamilton, Mrs. E. H. Thorton, Mrs. J. D. Beatty and Mrs. A. P. Wheeler. The whetors of the next dance are: February 22, March 22 and April 18.

Pleasant Birthday Party.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Meers celebrated the birthday of their little daughter by giving an afternoon party, at their residence, on Johnson and Twenty-fourth streets, on last Thursday. Games of all descriptions served to amuse the youthful contingent, and these were supplemented by a delicious supper. The guests of young Miss Meers were: Donald Skene, Kenneth Drake, Preston Holt, Edwin Holmes, Harvey Black, Bertrand Cassida, Mollie Hazard, Jack Hazard and Hallet Max-well.

Multinomial Festivities.

The principal event of the coming week will be the reception and dance given by the Multinomial Amateur Athletic Club, at their clubhouse, on Tuesday evening. The preparations are on a very elaborate scale, and it will undoubtedly be one of the most brilliant events of the season. The patronesses will be: Mrs. Joseph N. Tol, Mrs. James Laddlow, Mrs. J. H. MacCracken, Mrs. Thomas B. Foster and Mrs. H. W. Goodie.

Golden Wedding.

A pretty society event at Oakland, Cal., last Wednesday was the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rand. The house was beautifully decorated and many of the most prominent people of Oakland and San Francisco were present. Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Rand, of Portland, were present and assisted in receiving the guests. Mrs. W. Wetzel, of this city, was also expected to attend, but was unavoidably detained in Portland.

Charming Dinner.

Mrs. L. A. Lewis gave a dinner on Thursday, which was a most charming affair in every way. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Lewis,

WOMAN'S ABLEST CHAMPION.

MISS SUSAN B. ANTHONY AS SHE APPEARS TODAY.

"Many famous women," says the New York World, "will gather in Washington next month to attend the celebration of the 80th birthday of Susan B. Anthony, which will be the feature of the fifty-second annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage League. Miss Anthony will have reached her 80th year on February 15, and it is planned to make the observance one of the most noteworthy functions of the life of the 'Grand Old Woman.'"

"Her great work is far from finished, but there is enough to celebrate in what she has accomplished. There will be a reception in the Lafayette opera house in Washington, in the afternoon, when women from all over the country representing different organizations will present greetings, and in the evening there will be another reception in the Cooper gallery."

"Miss Anthony is all ready for the receptions. She has decided upon her gown, for, like all women, Miss Anthony has paid much attention to dress all her life. She will order no new gown, for she says those she has are plenty good enough.

"I have a handsome black satin made for my trip to Europe last summer. The waist is all trimmed in white, and I shall wear that for the afternoon doings."

street, Sunday evening, the 21st inst., in the presence of close relatives only, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Carrie Beary to Dr. A. Titzer, of this city. Rev. J. Bloch officiated, and Miss Sophia Burkheimer was bridesmaid; Mr. Sam L. Beary was best man and little Estelle Goldsmith played Lohengrin's wedding march. The rooms were prettily decorated with ferns and Oregon grape. The bride carried a bunch of bride roses.
