That a young man or woman thoroughly qualified to render superior service is sure of a good position within reasonable time. The success of our graduates proves this. Hundreds of them are pleasantly and profitably employed, both as bookkeepers and stenographers. A business education first, a literary education afterwards, is bread-and-butter philosophy. We have educated hundreds of young men and women for successful careers, and can do better work now than ever before because of better facilities. Students may enter at any time. Our catalogue explains our methods of instruction fully. Call or send for a copy.

SYMPATHY FOR BOERS.

EUGENE, Or., Jan. 28 .- (To the Editor.)

in yesterday's Oregonian, opposes antagonizing "the power whose interests run parallel with our own." Nobody in the United States is in favor of antagonizing

Great Britain in the Boer way, or any other matter, in the sense of intermeddling. We have never considered it proper to interfere in the disputes or entanglements of foreign powers outside of this hemisphere; but 99 persons in every 100 in this country sympathine and are in favor of the nation's expressing its sympathy struggle in defending their territory and their liberty against an international high-wayman. This does not mean that we should go to war, but that we should anount go to war, but that we anount maintain our historic regard for the rights of humanity, instead of making mawkish slobbery over a pirate, for fear of losing our gold or his favor in supposed national advantages. No nation, however, siding in with injustice, ever reaps any permanent gain from it, even in a material way. The Boers, a Christian nation, are only mining speculators, temporarily, through deceit and treachery, at the head of a great empire, and the indications are the lated no conditions of that agreement. I would have no objection to expansion by England or any other nation in a just and natural manner, and favor the permanent retention of the Philippines by the United States, but such "expansion" as England be a great calamity to the world. For that reason it is not only to her interest, but to ours, that she keep out of such miserable messes as she is making in the Transvani. But, if she cannot draw out before going any farther on the "down-ward road," she had better be beaten and get a good lesson, at whatever cost, and retain her asefulness, instead of going on and taking the final plunge. She has only herself to blame, and her success now would be tenfold worse for her than de-cial to look after British interests as our consul in the Transvaal. If the belief should become general that the republican administration is "backing up" Great Brit-ain, it will lose enough votes in the fall election to turn the country to Bryan, whom the nation naturally distrusts on other questions. Moral principles, after all, have the greatest influence on the masses of the people. The expansion of the United States in the East and West Indies was British in the Transvanl. It is nothing but highway robbery.
