F. E. Stranahan

orchestra supplied the music.

Wednesday evening.

Many Pretty Gowns,

Vancouver Barracks.

Chaplain Leslie R. Groves, who has re

tached to the Fourteenth Infantry.

Bishop C. Barker, Episcopal Bishop of Western Washington, was the fruest of Major and Mrs. Allison, for a few days

Captain Thomas W. Darrah, the popu-

the staff of General William A. Kobbe

Major James A. Watrous, paymaster

parted last Saturday for San Francisco

Thomas, to join their respective regiments.

MATRIMONIAL ALLIANCES.

Weddings of the Week in Portland and at Other Points.

E. Davis were quietly married on Sunday evenling last at the Bay View Hotel, Newport. The ceremony was performed by Rev, Issue Dawson, of St. Stephen's Church, in the presence of the immedi-ate relatives of the bride and groom.

The hotel parlor and dining-room were catly decorated for the occasion, with

sus. After the ceremony all rethe dining-room, where an elabferns, lvy, etc., the American flag being rute wodding suppor was served. The young people begin married life with the best wishes of a large outle of friends, the bride being the estimable daughter of the

The groom has been connected with the

C. & E. R. R. for years. Mr. and Mrs. Hoeflein will reside in Albany.

Campbell-Bingham.

at Vancouver last Saturday, the contracting parties being Miss Edith Bingham, of this city, and Thomas Charles Campbell.

and Mrs. Campbell will leave shortly for Nendel-Baker.

There was a quiet wedding at Milwau-kie on the evening of Wednesday, Feb-tracting parties were Mr. George H. Nen. det of Milwaukie, and Miss Margaret B. Baker, of Hood View, Or. They were united in matrimony by Rev. D. Rend

Barber, Congregational minister of Sher-

of the bride acting as best man and maid

Miss Mary Rowlands, daughter of Mrs.

M. E. Rowlands, of Irvington, and W. W.

Riggs were united in marriage on Wednesday evening, February 28, at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's mother, 842

Broadway street, in the presence

wood, the brother of the groom and sister

Riggs-Rowlands.

ruary 21. The Nendel home was derated with ferns and bolly, and the land, where a repast was served.

clude a visit to the Orient.

of honor, respectively.

Mississippi, Immediately after the emony the bridal party repaired to the idence of the bride's parents, in Port-aded Eastern trip, that may in-

A very pretty wedding was solemnized

Mr. William C. Hoeflein and Miss Edith of a general court-martial now in arrived at Manila,

Tricked by Fate. le loved her for her fragile form, Her pule, angelie face;

He loved her for her ewantike neck, Her stender, willowy grace; She was an airy fancy, and He had an artist's these— His collar might have almost spanned. The winsome creature's walst,

In tender tones he told her of The possion in his breast, And then she needed in his arms. The preacher did the rest! He looked with pride upon life bride-His "airy, fairy queen"; and every day was fatr, and they Were biliseful and serens.

But that was years and wars ago-A down, fraybe flore.

She has a double chin who was no willowy before:

She puffs and pante upon the stairs, Her girth is something great, That he was tricked by fate

DOWN ON MARROW BONES

Society Repenteth and Constrains Itself to Mild Enjoyment-Doings of the Week.

'No, there hasn't been a blessed thing not even a dinner, this week. Society has stopped dining and dancing and flirt ing-is down on its know, figuratively speaking, devoutly praying to be delivered from the bondage of the world, the flesh and the devil, for 40 days at least. After

The belle of three seasons shrugged her shapely shoulders expressively and resumed work at her embroidery frame,

"Of course," she continued, "there was the theater. Monday afteht we all flocked to see Blunche Walki les Chopatra. By the way, I wish somebody would call attention to the very unsatisfactory manner in which the boxes are lighted in the Marquam Grand. No woman enjoys sitting conspicuously in the public eye in a ghastly glow that adds 29 years to her age, and simply kills the effect of the

"In it the colored light, do you think?"

"Partly, perhaps, though there isn't enough of any sort. I always wear any old thing, if I am going to occupy a box, and save my best for the pare I know dozens of women who do the same, because no matter what you have on in the boxes it is hardly seen. But I think it is time we entered a complaint or filed a protest, or whatever it is you do when you clamor for the public good. Please do say something about it

See Here, Mr. Manager.

"You see, it is such a little thing to asktherely that the management remove those hideous colored globes, and put in a dozen or so softly shaded lights, or a sufficient number, at least, to preserve us from the mortification of being mistaken for our grandmothers. That is no experience we none of us covet, or care to

"Punny, is it not, how we cling to our youth and shudder when we find the first gray hair, and all but weep at sight of the first tiny wrinkle in the otherwise smooth face? An met the art of growing old gracefully! Happy is the woman who has mustered it." and she sighed, let-ther her embroidery frame fall unheeded into her inp, while she looked away to the purple hills, framed in the oriole window and to the snow-crowned summit of Mount. Hood, glerious in the sunlight of dawning

While she gazed at the landscape and mused, I regarded her. A queenly girl, upon whose fair face the distractions and dissipations of three seasons have left no mark. Time has thus far passed her by one lingering touch. Surely she has little to dread from the coming years. she remarked presently, coming back from that mental excursion to the top of Mount Hood, or elsewhere, ely anything going on just now. except golf. It is lovely out at the links days, and enthustastic golfers are simply living there. I don't play myself; hardly know a golf stick from a croquet mallet, but I like to go out and idle away an afternoon in the sunshing And one is always sure to meet some one worth while, you know,

Symphony Concept.

"There was the Symphony Orchestra Concert Thursday night. Nearly everywent. The boxes were occupied by representative Portland people, and the house was well filled. The Symphony Or-chestra is improving. If it continues to progress, we will in time have a musical aggregation that will compare with some of the orchestras of large Eastern clifes speaking of possibilities now, and please to remember that 'if.'

nger members of society were in a flutter of expectancy prior to the initial party of the Volkamenias, which large gathering of relatives and friends.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. W. Farquhar, Mendelssohn's wedding march being played by an orchestra. The young couple stood under a beautiful wedding bell, which was suspended from the ceiling by white ribbons. The decothe ceiling by white ribbons. The deco-rations, were pretty. The chandellers were festooned with smilax and ferns, and the pariors looked like 'a small grove; Mere and there were beautiful palms and potted plants. The bride was charming in white taffeta, covered with slik muslin; ornaments, diamonds. The young people were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Wingate-Henderson. S. W. Wingate and Mrs. Annie B. Henderson were married Friday. February 2t, at the residence of W. A. T. Bushong, at Waverly, by Rev. Dr. Gibson, of the United Presbyterian Church. A number of friends and relatives were present and an elegant dispure was served. Wr. and an elegant dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Wingate will be at home after March 15 at 321 North East Eighth street.

Engagement Appouncements, The engagement of Miss Evelyn Fisher to Mr. Robert William Schmeer is an-

The engagement is announced of Miss Adele Frances Harritt, daughter of J. W. Harritt, of Salem, to Mr. Harry A. Green,

IN AND ABOUT PORTLAND. Social and Other Events, Past, Present and Prospective.

employes of the several departments of the Western Union Telegraph Company in this city handsomely repy crowd that gathered at Burkhard membered one of their number last Tuessday evening. The hall had been day afternoon. Mr. S. W. Wingate, for many years chief electrician of the Porttastefully decorated for the occasion with paims and gariands of fvyl Purple was the prevailing note in the color scheme, land agency, was recently married to an and the affect was one of subdued rich-ness. Mrs. Martin L. Pipes, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Albert V. Garnier and Mrs. Charles E. Sawyer were the patronesses, and they estimable lady of the East Side and on the return of the happy couple from their wedding trip, Mr. Wingate's assoclates called and presented them with a magnificent silver water pitcher and tray. were ably sustained in their pleasing du-Engraved upon each plece was a large letter "W," which to the uninitiated, may stand for water, which or any old thing to be contained in a pitcher so fine, but which, by the telegraph fraternity, will be recognized as Mr. Wingate's private "ster" which has been been in ties by the reception committee, consist-ing of Charley Boise, George Henriot, Frank Busby and Ed Stemme. Everest's There were many pretty gowns-most of hem worn for the first time, in honor of private "sign," which has been heard in many offices, from Kansas City to the Pacific Coast. Mr. Wingate responded this event. The Volkamenias will give their next party one year from the date to the presentation speech in a happy of the first, at the same place. The Wednesday Night Club met infor-mally at Burkhard hall on the evening of February 28. This club will hereafter meet every Wednesday night, for music A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wilson, at Sunnyside, on Wednesday last, the occa-sion being a surprise party tendered to the host and hostess by a few friends. Parsons Hall was the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening, when the Sans Souci Club met and danced the midnight hours away for the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening, when the Sans Souci Club met and danced the midnight hours away for the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening, when the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening, when the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening, when the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening, when the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening, when the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening, when the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening, when the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening, when the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening, when the scene of a very delightful affair Friday evening when the scene of a very delightful a and Mrs. Snooks, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Neil, Mrs. Jocelyn and her son, Mr. H. Ford, and Miss Ford, Miss Beeder, Miss Harper, Mrs. Larose, Mrs. Ferguson, the Misses Neil, Mr. G. Neil, Dr. Hraden and Mr. Raymond, Cards and dancing occupied the attention of the ight hours away. Mrs. Alexander Kerr gave a small, but very enjoyable, party at her residence on East Stark and East Twelfth streets Mrs. R. C. Mays gave a musicale during the week at her home on Flanders street, Mr. Coursen, Mr. Conrad and Miss Julia Sprague, of Tacoma, took part in dancing occupied the attention of guests until the time arrived for depart-ure to their homes, Mrs. Robert Evans gave a pleasant the programme.

Mrs. George M. Wells and Miss Wells

Seventh street, on the afternoon of Febare spending the week in Cathiamet, vis-iting Mrs. John West. AGATHA. day anniversary of her daughter day anniversary of her daughter, Georgia Luanus. A number of the friends of the little girl were invited to her home and were afterwards taken to a matinee, the care of Miss Cecile Shambrook, sis Various Happenings of the Week at of Mrs. Evans, and Mrs. L. Lachmund.

After returning, the small folk were served with light refreshments. has been at-Mr. and Mrs. George Baker gave a mu sical and whist party last Tuesday even-ing at their home in Piedmont. Professor Schnauffer favored the company with vocal solos, and Mrs. A. S. Foster ren dered several instrumental select Mrs. W. T. Gardner and Mr. A. S. ter carried off the laurels at "duplicat lar Adjutant of the Thirty-fifth Infantry, has been detailed as Adjutant-General on First Lieutenant Charles R. Krauthoff, Fourteenth Infantry, has recently been appointed captain in the Commissary Degathered at Dr. Hamilton Meade's sidence, on Hancock street. Music and imes were enjoyed, and lunch was artiment and relieved from duty in Ma-Miss Viola Manner entertained a num Doctor J. R. Reagles left here last week ber of her friends on the evening of for his new station, Fort Stevens, Or., where he relieved Dr. George A. Skinner, Washington's birthday. The evening wa ent with whist and vocal and instru-ental music. Mr. W. A. Robb enter who is under orders to report at San Fran-tained the guests with a number of vocal has been a daily visitor at the Post during the past week, being one of the members ortland camp, No. 167, Woodmen of the Captain E. F. Glenn, Twenty-fifth In-antry, and Second Lieutenant W. C. weeney, Twenty-fourth Infantry, de-

World, at its hall, on Wednesday even-ing, February 28, was a gratifying succase. It was given by the members to their wives and friends. The committee recursed the adjoining hall to accom-modate the 600 people who were present, when Past Court Commander C. M. Be called the assembly to order. After enjoying a musical programme, the com pany repaired to the dancing hall, which as filled to its utmost capacity. Mrs. William G. Stimson gave a delight ful whist party Thursday afternoon at her home, 581 Sixth street. Hearts were trumps, as the decorations of the par-lors plainly indicated, out flowers and fvy vines being also plentifully in evi-dence. Choice refreshments were served to the company.

A select entertainment and dance we given by Eureka council, No. 204, Knight and Ladies of Security, at the Auditor ium, Monday evening. The programs was unusually attractive. Deserving especial mention was the address on t aims and objects of the society by Mrs. N. L. Gustin. St. Appe's Charitable Society gave qued party Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. J. Hunt, at Irvington, Mrs. A. N. Wright won the first whist prize, a silver bonbon basket, which she nated for another whist party. Mrs. H. Diamond won second prize.

The operetta dress rehearsal of "Cinderelia" was given at Burkhard hall lest evening by Miss Muxon and Miss

Porfland Visitors Complimented. A "ten" was given recently by Mrs. John Evans, in Chicago, in honor of Miss Maude Hudson, of Portland, who is the guest of Miss Luella Sinclair, and Miss Orma Benedict, who is visiting her

Mrs. Preston Burnett, of the Windy City. PEOPLE COMING AND GOING. Ebb and Flow of the Social Tide in and About Portland. Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Strain have taken up their esidence at the Guilliaume. Miss Irene Anderson left last evening for Baker City, to remain indefinitely, Miss Bessle Ewing returned Thursday from a two months' visit in Eastern Ore

Mrs. Mary H. Leinenweber and daugh, Astoria, are visiting with friends John H. Hall and wife have returned from a visit to San Francisco and South-

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gevuriz receive this afternoon and evening, at their resi-dence, 289 Beventh street.

rived from San Francisco and are stop-ping at the Hobart-Curtis. by M'ss Heilborn on the evening of Washington's Birthday. A few hours were spent most delightfully and, by way of Mrs. F. J. Knepper returned Monday, after having spent the last six months novelty, the men were the cooks for the visiting relatives and friends in the East. Miss Pearl Cole gave a charming card Mrs. Irving Blinn and Master Louis party on Thursday evening of last week, in honor of her guest. Miss Barker, of Portland. "Hearts" was the game for the evening and dancing was also indulged in. Blinn and maid, formerly of Los Angeles, visiting Mrs. J. M. Sutton, in this Mr. R. O. Holmes is here from Seattle to attend the funeral of his brother, A. A. refreshments being subsequently served.

Mrs. P. A. Stokes gave a very pleasing

Holmes, late of Company D, Fourteenth Infantry, Manlla, 'Afternoon" to about 30 ladies on Friday ast. Pictures of celebrities were scat-Mrs. A. C. Fellows and her mother have returned from a two months' visit to Mrs. tered through the rooms, and the guests spent a lively few hours guessing the identity of them. Mrs. J. A. Fulton cap-Fellows' sister, Mrs. Robert Robley, of tured the prize. Mrs. H. C. Exon left during the past week for San Francisco, to visit her daughters, Mrs. A. A. Wayne and Mrs. Pendleton. Miss Charlotte Baumister, of Walla Walla, is a guest of her cousin, Miss Stella

Miss Marie Maloney, who has been visit-Alexander. ing her sister, Mrs. Arthur D. Marshall, of Astoria, for the past two months, left Thursday via the Northern Pacific for Mrs. W. C. Shults, with her young son, of Spokane, is visiting her parents, Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Nye, on Water

Mr. Herbert M. Lee, for a number of street, years head bookkeeper for the Standard Miss Lena Jenkins entertained a few Oil Company in this city, left Thursday friends on Saturday afternoon at the for Sumpier, where he will enter on his duties with a prominent firm. home of her aunt, Mrs. C. B. Wade, on Locust Hill. Miss Jenkins was assisted by Mrs. W. L. Shiverick. Harry T. Nicolai and Samuel B. Archer, members of the Gamma Eta Kappa Fra-

Harry T. Nicolal and Samuel B. Archer, members of the Gamma Eta Kappa Fraternity, have gone to San Francisco, Mr. Nicolai will visit parts of Southern Callforniae and Mexico, while Mr. Archer will remain in San Francisco, where he will spend about six months. They will act as delegates from Psi Chapter to the

MR, CHARLES KING, AS RIP VAN WINKLE, AT THE METROPOLITAN THEATER.

in Portland.

rosts Hall.

m, of Salem.

of the season.

n Blue River.

this city last week.

San Francisco Saturday.

her home in Huntington,

Wednesday afternoon,

H. Eppinger, Rev. W. E. Potwine of-ficiating. The young people left on a wed-involved the idea of covering the scope of General Lew Wallace's "Ben-Hur,"

by assigning each of the prominent char-

Albany.

Mr. L. E. Hamilton has been visiting

Miss Zulu Winn has returned from

Fred Weatherford, of Bishop Scott's Academy, is visiting his parents here.

Miss Gibson, who has been the guest pleasant reception at the home of Mrs. Nelson on last Friday evening.

season was the party given by Miss Ora

Simpson to about 40 of her friends on Friday, February 23. Miss Simpson was assisted in receiving by Owen Beam and Miss Mary Stewart, who were hand-somely costumed as George and Martha Washington, respectively. Progressive games furnished the chief amusement o

Corvallis.

Miss Holland, of Salem, is the guest of her sister, Miss Connie Holland, at So-

A number of their young friends were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Woodward

Mrs. A. B. Cordley entertained a num

guest of honor being Mrs. R. M. Davis-

The ball given by the Lady Maccabees, at the Opera House, Friday evening, was one of the most delightful social events

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church was pleasantly entertained at tea, by Mrs. W. A. Wells, McMinnville.

H. L. Heath left Monday for the mines

Miss Bergitta Nelson pleasantly enterained a few of her friends at her home tained a number of friends at her home in

E .M. Jennings and family left last week for their home in Illinois, after spending about 10 months in McMinn-

The firemen's ball, given Thursday even-ing. February Z, in Campbell's Hall, was largely attended, and proved a successful

Oregon City. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stevens and daughter, Miss Murial, and Miss Bertha Gold-smith returned from an extended visit to Miss Edith Wishart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wishart, was married to

Herbert Thorne, of Portland, Wednesday,

at 4 P. M., Rev. J. H. Beaven officiating, at the home of her parents, and in the

The Dalles.

Grant's Pass.

Miss M. H. Flynn returned Monday to sence of a few invited guests at their home, Tuesday evening.

several months' visit to California of Mrs. P. A. Young, returned to home in Portland last week.

The Modern Travelers gave a

One of the chief social events annual convention of the Gamma Eta bride's brother, Dr. E. A. Vaughan, on Kappa, which will be held in San Fran-cisco March 2.

Lovely Millinery.

Next Saturday Heiler's new millinery ding trip to Portland and the Sound. store, 380 Washington street, corner of West Park, will open for business. Mrs.

On Thursday evening the Tribe of Ben-Hur rendered a musical programme and J. Heller has returned from an extended gave a banquet to a large number of peo-trip to New York, where she purchased ple. The order of exercises at the dinner most beautiful designs in millinery creations from the master minds of the trade in New York and Paris. The new store is handsomely decorated and fur nished, and has a strictly metropolitar The original store East Side will continue as heretofore.

"Antony and Cleopatra." As a most interesting study, to be begun Wednesday, 2 o'clock; also evening Shakespeare class to be formed. Those wishing to join communicate with Mme J. H. Bauer, 475 Main street, $1 per month. Thirty Cases

Have arrived, made under my supervision while in New York. H. B. Litt.

The Jolly Neighbors' sixth party, Friday vening, Burkhard's

Miss Bertha Martins, decorative art as removed to room 312 Alisky building. Go to Storey's Ladies' Tailoring Parers, 29 Lewis Building, for first-class adies' talloring.

Series of six talks on the "Poetical Books of the Bible," with illustrative readings, to be given by Mrs. Louis Alt-man during successive Tuesdays in Lent; 3:29, Selling-Hirsch Building. Course tickets, $2 50; for sale at Ewing's and Gill's, also 405 Stark street.

SOUTH OF THE COLUMBIA. Various Events of the Week in the State of Oregon. Salem. A number of the relatives and friends of Mrs. Louisa Forstner gave her a pleasant surprise call on the evening of February 18, that being the 57th anniversary of her birth.

The ladies of the local Degree of Hono last Wednesday evening entertained their brothers of the A. O. U. W. lodges. Card playing, dancing and social converse furished the entertainment.

Last Tuesday evening Mrs. G. A. Rock well was given a birthday surprise by t members of the congregation of the Pre byterian Church. The evening was passed in pleasant social amusements and closed with the serving of refreshments.

The Duplicate Whist Club was enter tained this week by Mr. and Mrs. Squire Farrar. Six tables of players were pres ent, and a very enjoyable time was had. The club will hold its next meeting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Gil Protection Lodge, A. O. U. W., gave a dance in its hall last Monday evening. About 50 couples were present and partici-pated in the pleasures of the occasion. The event was so successful that 't probable the lodge will give similar dance ing parties later in the season.

Astoria.

Mrs. E. C. Lewis has returned from an xtended visit to Southern California. On Saturday evening of last week, Mr. nd Mrs. W. O. Wilkinson entertained a large number of friends at their home Grand avenue, with cards and dancing. The ladies of the Public L brary gave musicale on Tuesday evening, at the home of Mayor Bergman, A pleasing musical and literary programme was ren-

Dr. E. E. Ferguson, of Pendleton, and Dr. Belle Rinehart were united in mardered. The Euchre Club was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sanborn on Friday evening. Billiards, dancing and refresh-ments kept the guests delightfully interriage Saturday evening, by Rev. D. V. Poling. Only relatives were present. and Mrs. Ferguson will make The Dalles sted until a late hour. their future home.

Dr. A. A. Finch and Miss Gertrude Mc Connell, of Woodland, Cal., were married at the home of the bride's parents, on Sat-Mrs. R. A. Booth returned from Sagiurday of last week. They arrived on the State on Thursday and will make their home in this city. naw Tuesday. Miss Bertha Barrie is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralph Hanna; in Portland.

Mr and Mrs. Edward Ehrman have ar- The Chafing Dish Club was entertained

I. GEVURTZ, THE HOMEFURNISHER FURNITURE FURNITURE CARPETS, STOVES

REMEMBER

That we have the largest stock of Carpets in the city, that our prices are the lowest and our patterns the prettiest.

> This week we shalf offer the biggest bargains in Extension and Center Tables ever thrown on the

6-foot ash Extension $3.75 This 6-foot polished oak Ta- $10

WE SELL ON EASY TERMS

I. Gevurtz, the Homefurnisher, 173 and 175 First St.

Girlish Figure Won Back

When added flesh hides the lines that once drew admiration, the

Foster Abdominal Hose Supporter

Latest Styles In Shirt Waists Have Arrived

AT BECK'S, 272 WASHINGTON ST.

day from a two months' visit to New Jersey and other Eastern points, Mrs. Henry Phillips, Mrs. E. P. Phillips and Miss Maude Phillips, who have been spending the winter at the Preston Peak mine, left for San Francisco on Tuesday.

Forest Grove.

Mrs. Emery Wilson has returned from Miss Minnie Uhlman and Mrs. A. T. Knox, of Portland, visited here last

Mrs. W. H. Pisk, of Chicago, is visit-ing Professor J. W. Marsh and Mrs. E. P. Cadwell. Mrs. Anna Hatch, assisted by Miss Josephine Baber, entertained at her home in Forest Grove, last Thursday, Rev. M. D. Dunning, the Congressional minister, and his wife, and Professor H. L. Bates, of Pacific University.

Roseburg. Frank Hogan, of Grangeville, Idaho, is disting old friends here.

Miss Grace Cheadle, of Lebanon, is vising her brother, Dr. E. M. Cheadle. s visiting her daughter, Mrs. Will Bone-

Mrs. Kennedy, of Portland, is a guest f Mrs. R. A. Voss, of this city. Mrs. S. A. George, of Waitsburg, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. M. G.

Last Friday evening Earl Tooze enter tained a number of friends at his hor the occasion being his 13th birthday.

Palestine. A pleasant surprise party was fendered

Miss M. Theresa Boltano, at the home of her parents, Palestine, Or., last Tuesday night. NORTH OF THE COLUMBIA.

Various Events of the Week in the State of Washington. Vancouver.

The Vancouver High Five Club met with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Marsh on Wed-Charles D. Gray and wife, of Omaharre guests of their grand children.

re guests of their grand children, Va. entine Fike, Miss Mabel Fike and Free- H The Association of young men in this ity, known as "The Highbinders," is rebearsing for an amateur minstrel performance, to be given in the near future The social event of the week was the afternoon High Five party and "ten" given by Mrs. A. B. Eastham last Saturday. The guests numbered 200. A farewell dance was given at Webber's

Hall on Tuesday evening by the Government employes, who expect soon to leave for Manila, in charge of Government State Senator Charles Bowlen and wife, of Red Wing, Mont., who have been mak-ing a tour of Pacific Coast cities, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Cone,

Mr. and Mrs. George Cone celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary last Saturday by entertaining a number of their friends. The host and hostess were the recipients of a number of valuable gifts. On Saturday, February 24, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Cone, in this city, occurred the marriage of their daughter. Miss Gertrude Cone, to Mr. Benton Yest, of Troutdale, Or. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. A. Yost, of Troutdale. Afterward a wedding dinner was served.

Walla Walla.

Mrs. A. J. Kneppper, of Portland, is vis-iting Mrs. Alexander Mackay. Hon. John B. Allen and wife are in the Bert Parker, son of Colonel F. J. Par-ker, has gone to San Francisco, to study

Mrs. Nellie Truax O'Niel has arrived from New York City, where she passed the winter.

Lieutenant Heintzelman, Sixth Cavalry has been ordered to Manila, and will leave in a few days, via Scattle Mrs. Dr. Herbert Smith, nee Miss Llda Resser, of this place, is here from her home in Chico, Cal., visiting relatives and friends.

Monday evening the members of the High Five Club heat their husbands and others at cards at the residence of Mrs. John Dooley.

Captain David L. Brainard, of the Com-Mrs. J. N. Denison returned on Satur- missary Department, U. S. A., who was (Established 1899.)

the Greely expedition to the North pole, has been promoted to a full majority in the Army. A large party of ladies and gentlemen went out to the suburban residence of William Ritz, on Monday evening, where they passed several hours, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ritz and Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Reidford.

Services at St. Patrick's.

The following musical programme will be rendered today at St. Patrick's Church, morning services, 10:30: La Hache's mass will be sung complete by full choir se 20 voices, Offertory: Pro Peccatis, from "Stabat Mater," will be rendered by James E. Owens, At the evening services Roswig's vespers will be sung, and after the magnificat, Father Desmarais will give the solution of questions deposited in the question box of St. Patrick's Church of "Spiritualism." At the benediction the "O Salutaris" will be rendered by J. Mailey. Soprane solo intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana." (Mascagni), ndered by Mrs. J. E. Owens. tum Ergo (Rossi) soprano and baritone, duet and chorus. Miss Mary O'Dea will preside as organist. Everybody welcome to morning and evening services. Free

A High Soprano.

sents always reserved for visitors,

A young lady sang in a choir-Her voice rose heir and heir, Till one starry night And was found next morn

-Harvard Lampoor

"A Perfect Food"

"Preserbes Health" " Prolongs Life"

BAKER'S COCOA

Known the world over.
. Received the highest indorsements from the medical practitioner, the nurse, and the intelligent housekeeper Hygienic Gazette.

Walter Baker & Co. Ltd. DORCHESTER, MASS. Established 1780.

OUR DESIGN BOOK is not a mere pamphier, but a large atlas sized Book displaying Thousands of select designs for Center Pieces, Boilies, Lunch Cloths, Table Covers, Sofa Cashoos, Handberchief, Veil, Necks

8

8