Book Store

As an example of how we buy books, we make a window display of nine popular books—150 volumes. It gives you an idea of the quantity of books we handle. The titles: "To Have and to Hold," "Janice Meredith," "Red Postage," "Via Crucis," "David Harum," "When Knighthood Was in Flower," "Prisoners of Hope," "Gentleman from Indiana," "Richard Carvel."

Music Store

New song hits: "I Wonder If the Old Folks Think of Me," "Just a Girl to Mother," "Faint Rose of Red," "I can't Forget You, Honey," "Happy Hobo Two Step."

Tomorrow we begin our annual sale of rich American cut glass. We offer a larger variety, newer cuts, later shapes than ever before, and offer the entire stock, without reserve, at one-fourth less than regular prices. Sale lasts one week only.

In the Jewelry Store

Tomorrow we offer some very special attractions in this store. A sale of Ivories, Dutch Silver and Ebony. All these goods have advanced in price far in excess of what we paid for them, yet tomorrow we offer them from one-fourth to one-third less than regular prices. Ivory Cabinet, prices, special, $1.00 to $10.00 each. A rare opportunity. Dutch Silver Cabinet, prices from $2.00 to $15.00 each.

Millinery Store

We show tomorrow for the first time some Spring Millinery. We have enlarged our millinery store to three times its former size. Have made preparations for the grandest display of millinery ever attempted in this city. We have new trimmers just from New York, with later ideas than local milliners, and with that style and chic to their trimming that places their hats equal to the French. Of course, we have an immense collection of real French patterns, too. Our opening announcement later.

Fashionable Garments

FROM the celebrated "wholesale tailors," the Stein-Bloch Co., of New York. The term "wholesale tailors" is the trademark of the only firm in the United States who tailor on their own premises, in their own shops, the garments which they sell to the leading retailers of this country. They use fabrics and trimmings of the highest class only, and the finished product is practically the same as that turned out by high-priced merchant tailors. Buying the materials and making up the clothes on such a large scale insures a saving that enables us to sell

STEIN-BLOCH CLOTHES

At one-half the merchant tailor's price. Our spring showing includes all the very latest and most exclusive novelties in

Suits and Topcoats

From the greatest manufacturers of "quality" clothes. Plain and fancy cheviot sack suits, in all the new weaves, at $12.50, $15, $18, $20 and $25. Blue cheviot and serge suits commence as low as $8.50 and up to $25. Men's stylish box-cut topcoats, for spring wear, at $10 and up to $25.

IN OUR juvenile department we present an unrivaled selection of spring novelties for boys; a most comprehensive gathering of vestee suits, some with fancy vests, sailor suits, two and three-piece double-breasted suits, many of the fancy suits designed exclusively for this department. We are also showing a complete assortment of "Crescent" clothes for boys from 3 to 17 years. We are agents for this "guaranteed" clothing, and carry it in all grades and sizes. We are pleased to show our goods, and mothers may depend upon polite attention and courteous treatment at all times.
