PREPARATIONS FOR QUEEN VIC-TORIA'S TRIP.

Pots and Pans and Other Parapher nalia Have Already Gone-The Queen's Health.

LONDON, March 21.—The Life Guards, couriers, carriages, pots and pans and other royal paraphernalia have aiready gone to the Royal Isle, which eagerly waits for Queen Victoria to follow. How Her Majesty will be received and the progressive of her be received and the prospects of he ngs in Dublin have quite oversh all other topics, even in a week which has been marked by the annual inter-varsity boat race, the resignation of the Duke of Norfolk as Postmaster-General the announcement of the Delagon Bay Rallroad award, and the rumors of possible war in the far East. Great Britbeen forgotten, so uninteresting has been the progress of peace in the Orange Free State, compared with the stirring accounts of battles which the British people had grown accustomed to read daily.

The Queen is said to be in excellen health, and well able to bear the strain of the trip to Ireland. She commences her journey April 2, and sleeps on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, landing at Kingstown April 4. In anticipation of Her Majesty's progress through the city, the streets of Dublin are already gay with flags and decorations. A curious feature of the preparations at the Viceregal Lodge, where the Queen will stay, are the pots and pans already referred to. Her Majesty is tremendously particular about her kitchen arrangements, and those at the Viceregal Lodge were found to be quite below the royal standard Community no less than 200 conard. Consequently no less than 300 copper fricandeau pans, 84 saucepans, 50 of the state authorities may appear to copper stock pots and many other variin-Waiting, holds three Irish titles, and

A story In is going the rounds that the Queen remarked that she was aware many peo ple imagined her anxiety about the war would cause her death. "I may die," added Her Majesty, "but it will be from some other cause. I do not mean to let Mr. Kruger kill me."

The United States cruiser Albany remains at Newcastle, though her officers expected she would have sailed long before this. Several weeks will probably elapse before she leaves England, no opportunity having yet been secured for testing her guns, and several minor change are being made. In the meanwhile her officers and crew are having a dreary time at Newcastle. Captain Craig managed to get steam heat put in for the crews, but the officers' quarters are merely warmed by a couple of stoves, which arrangement, during the recent bitterly cold weather, has not ad-ded to the happiness of their existence.

Roberts Reports the Dutch Arm Leaving Brandfort.

has posted the following dispatch from Lord Roberts, dated Bloemfontein, March 30, evening: "Reports point to the enemy's leaving Brandfort and proceeding in a northerly direction. The casualties in yesterday' efigagement were more numerous than at first reported. Officers killed, two; wounded, eight, Rank and file: Killed, 16;

wounded, 159; missing, 2."

Even the details of the engagement yeaterday at Karee Sldings station fall to instill much interest. It appears to have been a one-sided affair, although the Boers stoutly held their ground against a force three or four times theirs, for three lours, when, foreseeing the danger of the British cavalry enveloping their flanks, the burghers withdrew in good order on their main body at Brandfort, which, according to Roberts, they seem later to have decided to relinquish with a view loubtless of occupying a prepared position further north. There will probably be a general shifting of camps on account of the Britishers' new position being made a base of a further advance as soon as

TESTIMONY ON REBATES.

Finishes the Los Angeles Hearing. nterstate Commerce Commission

LOS ANGELES, March 31 .- F. T. Pay of the Fay Fruit Company, testified today before the Interstate Commerce Commis-sion. He has received rebates from the three fruit car lines doing business in California, both when cars were refrigerated and when they were not, the rebates ranging from $10 to $50, the latter being for refrigerated cars to the extreme East. Bamuel Westfall, of Westfall Bros., said his company has had rebates for sev-eral years from the car lines. Leland Lyon, of Redlands, testified that his company has received rebates from fruit car lines for orange shipments, and small rebates from Eastern roads, par-ticularly the Clover Leaf line.

The secretaries of a number of local fruit exchanges testified that they have protested against California Fruit Union cars on the ground that they did not want to put their affairs in the hands of a
