

MARION POPULISTS

Refused to Approve the Democratic "Citizens" Ticket.

PRACTICALLY INDORSE REPUBLICAN

Resolved to Call a Genuine Citizens Meeting to Make Further Nominations May 5.

SALEM, April 21.—The Marion County Populist Central Committee today refused to approve the Democratic "Citizens" ticket two weeks ago, and broke a record by practically endorsing W. W. Hall, the Republican nominee for County Clerk.

The members of the committee present were strictly anti-fusion. After they had refused to ratify the Democratic candidates for Judge, Clerk and Recorder, they were visited by the Democratic committee, who asked them to rescind their action.

There are three nominees for state officer who failed to comply with the law entitling them to places on the official ballot. J. C. Young, Middle-of-the-Road Populist, candidate for Congress from the Second District, did not file his certificate of nomination.

Review of Reviews.

It was due to Thomas A. Scott that Andrew Carnegie made his first investment—10 shares of stock in the Adams Express Company, valued at $500. This he did with considerable trepidation. He had labored hard for the money he had saved up while he had worked as a telegrapher. It is part of railroad history how he later fell in with the investment which has made the enormous fortune which has made him one of the world's great financiers.
