THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, ARRIL 29, 1900.

save moved to their country place for the Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Wood have returned from a visit of several weeks in Southern California.

Miss Julia Waldman, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. S. Deutsch, has returned from San Francisco.

Mrs. Burkhart and Miss Cadwell, of 425 Seventh street, have returned from a prolonged visit East. Mrs. H. Riddell, of The Dalles, is vis-iting her mother, Mrs. H. B. Morse, 441 East Twentieth street.

Miss Edsa Amos will leave, in com-pany with Mrs. Margaret McKenzie, Sat-

R. W. Wilbur left on the steamer last evening for San Francisco and Los An-teles, to be away about two weeks.

Mrs. J. F. Dickson and her mother left last week on a visit to St. Louis. They expect to be gone two or three months.

Mrs. J. M. Cress, has returned to the city, after an absence of five months in the East, and will be at home to her

Mrs. Mary G. Evans and Miss Alice

Gardner, of Oxford, Pa., after wintering at Santa Monica, Cal., are paying a short at Santa Monica, Cal., are paying a short visit to Mrs. P. J. Gardner, of this city.

Mrs. S. G. V. Griswold and son, of Omaha, Neb., arrived here yesterday, and will spend the Summer with Mrs. Gris-wold's sister, Mrs. William Schuyler Co-

Miss Ada Hendricks, of Eugene, has been visiting friends in this city since Monday. After spending a few days in Astoria, she will make another visit of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Stevens, of this city, were at the Fifth-Avenue Hotel.

New York, last week. Mrs. Stevens has been visiting in Washington, D. C., for the past five months.

Mr. Max Loeb, for the past 14 years manager of the shoe department of Meter & Frank Co., leaves here Monday night for an extended visit to relatives in Frankenthal, Germany, his old home.

George Sanford Smith, the attorney who went to Manila with the Second Oregon

Volunteers, has been heard from at Yoko-hama, Japan. He is making his way home round the world, and will be in

Mrs. H. C. Exon has returned from a seven weeks' visit to friends and relatives in San Francisco and vicinity. She was accompanied home by her granddaughter, Miss Eva Stranahan, who will spend the Summer in Portland.

"For the First Time."

affair, and the success of the rehearsals, which are already under good headway, Arion Concert.

The Arion Society will give the second concert of the season on Friday, May 4, at their hall, Second and Oak streets. The male chorus will be assisted by Miss Rose Loewenberg, contralto; Mr. William J.

Belcher, tenor, and the Columbia Stu-dents, a string quartet. Miss Loewenberg and Mr. Belcher have been studying with Herr Schott for some time, and this will be Miss Loewenberg's first public appearance as a singer. Her friends will be pleased to have the opportunity of hear-ing her, as those who have heard her in private speak of her voice in the highest terms, and promise for her a brilliant fu-

Admission, 50 cents; tickets at the door.

The amateur theatrical entertainment

urday, for a visit to Europe.

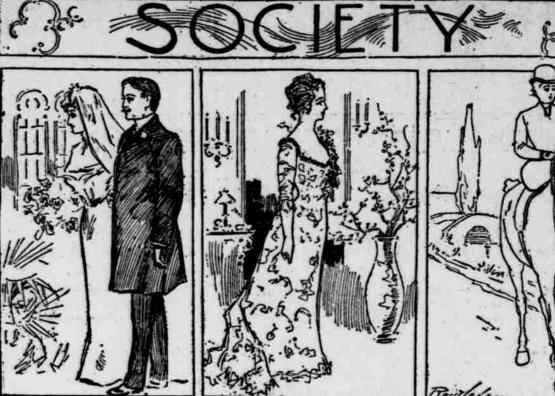

friends at 768 Quimby street.

week in Portland.

Paris by May 15.

Time.'

burn.

The Debutante.

They put the relics of a hundred years

Within her ears; And on her sliken gown some rare old lace They defily place;

They hang a fortune on her throbbing breast, An old bequest; And on her feet are slippers worn before

In days of yore;

In days of yore; About her arms the glistening bracelets show Of long ago; Benenth a coronet, so old and rare, They bind her hair. And under all this record of past days There softly plays A girlish heart that truly yearns to be Forever fore;

Forever free: And Love is there and beams within her eyes

And Love is there and brans and forward cries: "Ah, heart! our time will surely come at last, When this is part; The world looks only at the gems you wear; Ah, heart! Take care!" --Montrose J. Moses in Life.

SOCIETY THERE IN FORCE

Brilliant Social and Financial Suc cess of Portland's Charity Ball-Other Events.

The one event of the week, long expected, long talked of and planned for, was, of course, the Charity Ball. And never in the history of philanthropic functions in this particular corner of the globe was there one more brilliant in effect, more perfect in detail and more satisfactory as to results than that at the Armory Tuesday night, when the Knights Templar received a generously inclined and grateful public for the benefit of the Good Samaritan Hospital. For weeks previously, prominent society women of Portland worked unremittingly, and the success of the affair, socially and finan-cially, was in a large measure due to previously, prominent society women of cially, was in a large measure due to ing. personal effort. Individually and collec-tively, the executive con mittee, enthusiastically seconded by the members of sustically seconded by the members of the various other committees, resolved that no pains should be spared to make every one who bought a ticket feel that his presence and that of his friends at the ball was more to be desired than cold.

gold. "We wanted people to enjoy themselves," remarked one lovely woman, when it was all over; "and," she added, with a little sigh of relieved content, "I think they did." If, by chance, there was any one pres-of glory. The supper, the decorations, the music and the dancing left nothing further to be desired. Archbishop Christie gave a dinner at his residence Tuesday night to the Cathedrai choir. The table decorations were lilies.

Among the guests were: Mrs. Allen Wright, Mrs. Walter Reed, Miss Kathleen Lawler, Miss Lois Steers, Dom Zan and Harry Hogue. There was a quiet little wedding at 140 North Nineteenth street Wednesday morning, at 9:30. Miss Adeline E. Bryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bryan, Gaughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bryan, was married to Mr. Guy Willis, Dr. Edgar Hill officiating. The young couple left for Victoria, B. C., but will be at home at 655 Flanders street after May 15. Everest's return party to all the clubs that have danced at Burkhard's Hall dur-ing the year was an enjoyable affair, and was fully appreciated by all who were there. Next week the Demoiselles give their final party at Parsons Hall, and the Jolly Neighbors will dance for the last time this season at Burkhard's Hall, on the same night.

At the Links.

Golf absorbed the attention of society people during the latter half of the week. There were several luncheon parties made up for Friday at the clubhouse, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The Arlington Club supplied the menu, and the day was perfect-just cool enough to be pleasant, and without the April chill that was so noticeable early in the week. The Symphony Orchestra concert brought out a large and appreciative au-dience on Thursday night. The boxes were well filled, and there were several very handsome gowns to be seen scattered here and there through the house.

The Musical Club, at the First Presbyterian Church, Wednesday evening, rendered a very delightful programme, and Miss Vale's lecture on "Crater Lake," at St. Helen's Hall, the same evening, was most enjoyable.

MATRIMONIAL ALLIANCES.

Weddings of the Week in Portland and at Other Points.

A pretty wedding took place in this city Wednesday evening, April 25, at the home of the bride's father, I. G. Darr, $33 Borthwick street. The contracting parties were Miss Ora Darr and William H. Sullenberg. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends, by Rev. William O. Forbes, of the ent so at odds with himself and the world that he falled to realize in the oc-

Church, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Tisdale and family formerly resided in Portland.

IN AND ABOUT PORTLAND.

Entertainments and Social Events

Here and Elsewhere. The Demoiselles will give their closing party next Friday at Parsons Hall. The club, which was organized this season, is composed entirely of girls, and has mot with flattering success at the three parties already given. The dance next Friday promises to eclipse all the others, and will be followed by a supper in the banquet-hall. The patronesses are: Mrs. J. W. Brandt, Mrs. F. M. Batchelor, Mrs. R. J. Holmes and Mrs. J. L. DeBevolse R. J. Hoimes and Mrs. J. L. DeBevolse. An enjoyable whist party was given by St. Ann's Charitable Soclety on Wednes-day evening at the Cathedral Hall, Six-teenth and Everett streets. After a bounteous supply of refreshments were served by the members, prizes were awarded to those making the highest score, P. J. Cronin winning the first prize for men, and Miss M. C. Lawier the lady's first prize. The consolution prizes were first prize. The consolution prizes were won by Mrs. Peepham and Mr. Crowley. A vocal solo by Professor Epping closed the evening's entertainment. association has recently been formed in Portland, to be known as the Acme Dramatic Club, and which will give dramatic entertainmente, with a view to the graduation of its members to professional ranks, when they become sufficiently pro-ficient. The president is Mr. Tomlinson, of R. G. Dun & Co., and Miss Lucille Broneon is secretary. Professor Rasmus is instructor.

The members of the Foreign Missionary Society of the First Congregational Church were entertained by Mrs. F. D. Smith, Thursday afternoon, at her real-dence, Fourteenth and Yamhill streets. A pleasant time was spent, listening to sev-eral letters from missionaries in foreign lands, which were read by the members. Miss May Kretman's vocal solo and en-core were greatly appreciated. At the conclusion of the programme, Mrs. Smith, assisted by her daughters, served dainty PEOPLE COMING AND GOING.

Ebb and Flow of the Social Tide in and About Portland.

Mrs. William Ladd has returned from an extended visit to California. Miss Williams has returned from a visit to Mrs. Karl Harbaugh, in Seattle. The Misses Berneice Oliver and Mida

Heinbach are visiting relatives at Bridal Veil. Mrs. H. Uhlfelder, of Seattle, is visit-

At the Woman's Union. Miss Mary Tipping, who has been away ing her brother, Morris Ball, 210 Twelfth for some time in the capacity of nurse. has returned ture as a singer.

Nottingham Lace Curtains, fine qual-ities and handsome designs, 3½ yards long; $3.48, $2.48 and $1.48 per pair. Irish Point Lace Curtains, variety of designs, fine close mesh, with broad heavy border, at $5.98, $4.25 and $3.25 colorings.

Lace Curtains

heavy border, at $5.98, $4.25 and $3.25 per pair. Renaissance Lace Curtains, real French face, a matchless variety of designs and pieces; down to $2.48 pair. Imitation Arabian Point Curtains, exact reproductions of curtains worth from $50 to $75 a pair; an exact copy in design, net and general appearance, for $7.25 and $6.75 pair. We want the celebrated Eclipse Stoves and Ranges to be visible in your house this year. They are the best and cheapest. Why not get one?

1. GEVURTZ, THE HOMEFURNISHER, 173 and 175 First Street, N. W. Corner Yamhill

Has heavy posts, solid cast brass vases and brass caps, actually worth $12; on sale this week, $10.00.

Sin a cara a sub little son Virgil, of Prairie City, Or., was a guest of the union for a few days this

Miss Jessie Hadley left yesterday morning for a visit of a few days to her home

The new pipe organ in the Methodist Church in Eugene will be opened by Edgar E. Coursen, Monday, April 30. This is said to be one of the finest organs in Oregon.

Get a bottle of Dr. Pfunder's Celebrated

Common Sense Beahty Parlors.

The Jolly Neighbors' Closing party May 4, Burkhard's.

More economical than lard. At all grocers.

No. 7 Cook Stove, $7.50, No. 8 Cook Stove, $5.50, closet.

Mrs. C. C. Applegate, who has been visiting relatives in Eugene, has returne to her home in Los Angeles.

This 6-hole Steel Range and high years; only $30. Reservoir, $7.50 extra.

WE SELL ON EASY TERMS

Miss Lucille Dunn entertained a number Professor and Mrs. J. W. Gray gave a unique "peanut party" at their home Fri-day night, the guests playing "progres-sive peanuts" with the left hand. B. S. of her friends last Saturday, in celebration of her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. M. J. Fox, who has been visiting Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Hollingshead, re-turned to her home in Astoria last Saturday.

Miss Gertrude O'Brien returned to her home in Albany Monday, after a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Tilast. The decorations were artistic. Re-freshments were served. Mrs. F. B. Dunn, Miss Dunn and Miss

Amy Dunn, who have been spending the Winter in California, are expected home next month

Mrs. W. E. Loughmiller is in Walla Walla, having been called there by the illness of her sister. Miss Anna Peter.

Mrs. W. B. Hollingshead entertained the married ladies of the Methodist Epis-copal Church Society, with their Rusbande, parsonage Tuesday evening.

The ladies of the Red Cross Society gave a pleasant entertainment in Armory Hall on Tuesday evening. An excellent programme was rendered, followed by danc-ing and refreshments.

The ladies of the H. A. L. Club gave a very pleasant masque party in Frank's Hall Monday evening. The men were

"Preserbes Health"

BAKER'S

COCOA

:BREAKFAST

"Prolongs Life"

-

.

given each year by the young people of the Unitarian Church is always a social event of importance in the community, and this year there is promise of a plentiful amount of stage fun, laughter and enjoyable surprise. Early in May the Wm. G. Ellot Fraternity will give a dance at Arion Hail, preceded by a delightful little in one act, entitled, "For the First " As the play has never before in Astoria yesterday, where she expects to remian until September. Mrs. M. J. Fox, of Astoria, is a guest of the Women's Union. Mrs. W. O. Meader, accompanied by her little son Virgil, of Prairie City Or was the busiceling of soles by Mrs. L. L. Porter. Hand Busiceling of soles by Mrs. L. L. Porter. Hand Busiceling of soles by Mrs. L. L. Porter. Hand Busiceling of soles by Mrs. L. L. Porter. Hand Busiceling of soles by Mrs. L. L. Porter. Hand Busiceling of soles by Mrs. L. L. Porter. Hand Busiceling of soles by Mrs. L. L. Porter. Hand Busiceling of soles by Mrs. L. L. Porter. Hand Busiceling of soles by Mrs. L. L. Porter. Hand Busiceling of soles by Mrs. L. L. Porter. Hand Busiceling of soles by Mrs. L. L. Porter. Hand Busiceling Mrs. W. M. Miller. been given in this city, its title is a spe-cially happy one. Mrs. Grace Watt Ross and Mrs. Tarpley will have charge of the

The hall, parlors and dining-room were elaborately and tastefully decorated, the color scheme being green and white.

which are already inder good heading. gives indication of a clever performance. The leading parts will be taken by Mrs. Lawrence Knapp, Mrs. C. U. Gantenbein, Miss Grace Eilot, Mr. Lawrence Cheal and Mr. Frank Dekum. at Cape Horn.

Mr. Coursen in Eugene.

Bellomy and Miss Jean White received the first prize, and the consolation honors were awarded to F. W. Greenman and Mrs. E. G. Canfield. Before departing, the guests left their autographe, written with the left hand, H. E. Cross winning the first prize and Mrs. C. N. Greenman the

Any Drug Store.

Oregon Blood Purifler, Guranteed, tested and true.

Sample treatment, 25 cents, this week only. 70 Lewis building, Park and Morri-

Sans Souci's last party May 2. Every housewife should try Ko-Nut.

entertainment part of the programme con-sisted of the reciul of "Hiawatha's Fam-ine," by Mrs. V. Harris; a solo by Miss Imogene Harding and plano selections by Miss Hattle Cochrane and Mrst Harris.

casion a delight too quickly passed, it was through no fault of the gallant Knights and their fair friends.

Kaleidoscopic Picture.

Beautiful? Of course, it was beautiful, But when I would describe the scenethe "kaleidoscopic picture," embowered in green and set to music, of flowers and lights and fluttering banners; the gleaming snow of bare shoulders and rounded arms, sheen of satin and glitter of jewels; airy draperies, pretty girls, graceful women and handsome men-I am remind-ed of the fact that Wednesday's Ore-gonian contained an account so well and charmingly written, and so complete, as to leave little to be said. The decorations that transformed the great hall upstairs, where the dancers moved to strains of music, into a veritable greenwood hower: the supper-room, with its splendidly ap-pointed tables, its wealth of color, glow-ing lights and flowers and fragrance; the orchestras-the services of both volun-teered-all these have been so graphically described that any further word must be a repetition. But I must mention one feature, ally pleasing to the committee and delightfully welcome to all, namely, the presence of so many of the representative people of Portland-for instance, Mr. and Mrs. Whitehouse, Judge and Mrs. Wood-ard, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mason and a score of others who care little for the frivolities of fashion.

The Gowns.

Then, too, there were the gowns. Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, who led the grand march with Judge Williams, and who had charge of one of the refreshment tables, wore a dress of white silk crepe, richly em-broidered, and in her hair was a wreath of apple blossoms. Mrs. Mackenzie, who presided at the other table, was magnificent in white satin, the corsage gleam-ing with gems, and her dark hair rolled ing with gems, and her dark hair rolled back from her face like a midnight cloud. Mrs. Linthicum wore a delicate pink silk, very dainty and becoming. Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Mallory were both handsomely gowned; Mrs. Ayer was in white, and Mrs. Allen Lewis was in yellow silk and chiffon, rich with em-broidery. oldery.

Frank wore a dainty toilet of Mrs. black dotted net with jet spangles; Mrs. Barker made an attractive figure in the splendid pageant, in a gown of gray crepe de chine, and Mrs. Theodore Wil cox was beautiful in mauve silk, with white lace. Mrs. Alvord, tall and state ly, was in yellow, and Mrs. Walter Honly, was in yellow, and Mrz. Walter Hon-cyman wore a handsome black gown, with white lace; Mrs. Wheeler was in silk buff net. Mrs. H. W. Good looked charming in a pale gray silk grenadine, and Mrs. Ehrman's gown was particular-

Mrs. Holt Wilson, who is one of the ost exquisitely graceful women in Port-nd society, was in white-white ince over silk, with tiny rubhings of chiffon. Mrs. Walter Burns wore a pink brocade and Miss Wilson white silk. Miss Will-liams was attired in an effective white gown, with black lace, and Mrs. J. Frank Watson was in soft gray. Miss Ham-mond was in a gown of green crepe de chine, with a zouave jacket of lace, and chine, with a source incret of the in pale Miss Rowe was a striking figure in pale blue satin, with red roses in her dark hair; Mrs. W. A. Mears wore a youthful gown of doited muslin. But time and space will not permit a further mention of beautiful gowns and girls. Besides, it is well to leave something to the imagina

Its Last Party.

The 1900 Club gave its last party for the greens and smilax. The bride was attrice in a traveling gown of pale gray. She carried bride roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Annie M. Sullenberg, sister of the groom, Ernest I. Darr acted as best man. After congratulations, an elaborate supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Sullenberg left the same evening for a trip to Senttle. They will be at home after May 1, at 350 Sellwood street.

Willis-Bryan.

A pretty and entirely informal wedding occurred Wednesday morning, at 9:50 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bryan, 149 North Sixteenth street, this city. Rev. Dr. E. P. Hill united in marriage, Mr. Guy G. Willis and Miss Adeline E. Bryan, in the pres-ence of only immediate relatives. The parlors were artistically decorated with palms, ferns and Oregon grapes, with bride roses and lilies of the valley. A wedding breakfast was served, after which the newly-wedded couple took their departure for the Sound and British Columbia. At home, after May 15, at 656 Flanders street.

Van de Weile-Tillman.

On Tuesday morning, April 24, at 8:30 o'clock, a party of friends gathered at St. Lawrence Church to witness the marriage of Miss Rose V. Tiliman, eldest daughter of Mr. Frank Tillman, of this city, to Mr. D. Louis Van de Welle, # business man of Depere, Wis, Rev. B. Orth performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Van de Welle left the following morn. ing for Depere, where they will make their future home.

Devere-Jacobs.

Miss Dora J. Jacobs and Mr. Claude Devere were married Wednesday evening, at the residence of the groom, and in the presence of a few intimate friends. Mr. Devere is a veteran of the Spanish War, having served with the Second Oregon Regiment in the Philippines. He is now instructor of billiards at the Multhomah Athletic Club.

McKinny-Bolton.

Mr. J. W. Kinny and Miss Emma Bolton were married Monday, April 23, et 8 P. M., at the home of the bride, 194 East Eighth street. The ceremony was very quiet, and was performed in the presence of a few friends, by Rev. G. A. Blair.

Marriage Announcement.

The wedding of Mr. M. Marks, Jr., of Portland, and Miss Leah Harris, of Oakland, takes place Sunday, April 29, at 6 P. M., at 212 Tweifth street, Oakland, Cal.

Robinson-Smith.

Mr. H. H. Robinson and Miss Edna E. Smith, of Portland, were quietly married at Astoria, on April 35, and will make their home in Portland for the present.

Slagel-Loomis. Married, at the Baptist parsonage, Sa-lem, Or., April 25, by Rev. Ronald McKil-lop, Eleanor A. Loomis, of Newport, to G. W. Slagel, of Marion County, Oregon.

Engagement Announcements.

The engagement is announced of Miss Ida Kreidel, of Ellensburgh, to Mr. A. H. Davis, of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. C. Hoffman announce the engagement of their only daughter, Anna M., to Mr. Frederick J. Wyatt.

The marriage of Miss Beatrice Tisdale and Mr. N. Bernard Hutchinson, of Ta-coma, Wash., will take place at the resi-dence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walker H. Tisdale, 311 North K str senson Friday night, at Parsons Hall. temporarily closing its career in a blaze T. E. Winecoff, of St. Luke's Episcopal cursions with his parcels under his arm, as unaffectedly as if he were the child of an un-titled subject. Unlike his father, he is sound of wind and limb, and bicycling is one of his favorite sports. Many a youthful wheelman scorching along the smooth roads in the out-skirts of the lovely old Mecklenburg town has picked up an impromptu race with a big, blonde, good-humored boy, without ever knowing that the competitor was the next in line young German soldier from becoming too luxurious. He began to draw a salary as lieutenant when he was only 10, and his younger brothers have done likewise, although the Kaiser, believing that independent sources of income are not good for little boys, is said to have pock-his admission to the famous First Regiment of Foot Guards, after the manner Hohenzollerns, who have been connected with this regiment since the younger days of the first Emperor William. Another important event of the day will be the receipt of a notal which dates back to 1545, and is the highest of the English orders. All of the European monarchs are knights of this order, to which only 25 English peers are admitted. Several other illustrious orders will also be given to the Prince, and it is intended that the occa-sion shall mark his departure from boyhood and entrance upon serious training for the extraordinary and varied collection of duties which his energetic and ambitious father is

MANLY IMPERIAL BOY.

The feature of his 18th birthday that will be of most interest to the Crown Prince will be from the hands of his great-grandmother, Queen Victoria-the Order of the Garter,

The Prince finished his four years' schooling at Ploen the last week in February, and now is with his father in Berlin, but in a few days will move to the Potsdam Palace, where he will be kept busy with military studies. Like his father before him, he will take his turn at guard and at the drill of recruits and all the other duties that help to keep a for the imperial throne of Germany.

eted the money him multiplying for himself.

Miss A. S. Jorgens en, 291 Morrison. Sale this week Knox style hats, tam-o'-shanters Ko-Nut, a perfect substitute for lard; stains no animal fat. Try it. For sale by all grocers.

Ko-Nut, made from cocoanut oil, purified and sterilized.' Better for pastry than lard. Give it a trial. At all grocers, Bertha A. Trullinger has recovered from her recent illness, and will be pleased to see her friends at room 20, Benson building.

SOUTH OF THE COLUMBIA.

Various Events of the Week in the State of Oregon.

Salem.

Mrs. McGilvery, of Albany, was a guest of Mrs. H. B. Holland last week. Mrs. B. B. Sinnott, of The Dalles, returned to her home Wednesday, after a short visit with her sister, Mrs. H. P. Mc-Nary. Mrs Fred & Wiggins left this week for

New York City, where she will visit about two months and then go to Paris to attend the exposition.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. R. S. Bean entertained a company of friends in honor of her mother, Mrs. Thomas Condon, and her sister, Mrs. McCormack, of Eugene, On Wednesday evening, April 25, Mise Lydia Muellhaupt was married to Mr. C. E. Adams, Rev. J. Muellhaupt officiating. Both bride and groom are residents of Sa-

The local members of the A. O. U. W. gave a boating party last Thursday even-ing. The party went up to Independence ing. The party went up to incorporate in and back. The evening was spent in dancing and social converse.

Last Wednesday evening the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church gave a reception in honor of Mrs. A. L. Hutchison, of Scattle, wife of a former pastor of the church. About 150 persons were present. An excellent programme of vocal and in-strumental music was rendered, and light ients were served.

Last Thursday evening, at the home of the bride's father, in this city, Miss Anna W. Metschan and Mr. George H. Cattaw. Account and an origon in the second secon maid and Mr. Antone Metschan as rides best man. The bride is the eldest daugh-ter of Hon. Phil Metschan and a very popular member of Salem's best society. The groom is an attorney at Canyon City, where the newly wedded couple will make Oregon City. Mrs. Joseph Heller, of Seattle, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. D. Latourette.

A. E. Donaldson left Monday for St. Louis, Mo., where he will attend the Pres-byterian General Assembly as an elder del-

Mrs. E. E. Williams and son arrived from Denison, Tex., Sunday, and joined Mr. Williams, who has been here for the past two months. Mr. Williams and family will again become residents of the city. . Mayor and Mrs. C. D. Latourette en-tertained the members of the local legal raternity Wednesday evening, and the occasion proved to be a very enjoyable tocial event. The wives of the married attorneys accompanied them, and enough young women were invited to fill out the social complement for the single lawyers. The feature of the early part of the evening was a game of progressive literary conundrums, Gibert L. Hedges carrying of the first prize, and the consolation award falling to the lot of George W.

awarded first prize, after casting lots. Mrs. Fannie L. Cochrane gave a historical sketch of the guild, covering over a quarter of a century. An elaborate lunch was served. The decorations were an artistic " A Perfect Food "

Sti Paul's Episcopal Church Guild celebrated the 26th anniversary of its organization by a reception to the women of the cock, Wednesday afternoon. The guild was assisted in the entertainment by the Daughtens of the King, Miss Annita Mc-Caryer, Mrs. N. W. Lawrence and Mrs. J. P. Keating receiving the guests. The

There were five winners in the guessing contest, "Nations," but Miss Harding was parish at the home of Mrs. Charles Babfeature. The society cakewalk given at the Armory Friday evening was witnessed by an audience of fully 400 people, who, enthusiastically applauded the entertainers, whose work was all for charity-a bene-fit for the Y. M. C. A. Among those who participated in the grand cakewalk were United States land officers, county and city officials, militia officers and prominent society women. William Galloway, receiver of the local land office, was master of ceremonies, and the cakewalk figures were under the direction of Miss The grand Nina Larowe, o fPortland. march was preceded by a musical pro-gramme, consisting of solos by Frank Confer, Mrs. C. W. Pope and Miss Mary Miles. Some surprises were occasioned by the unique figures presented by the dancers, and the judges, at first, an-nounced that they were unable to de-termine whether Register C. B. Moores, of the land office, and his partner, Mrs. Theodore Clark, or Gilbert L. Hedges and Miss Veda Williams were entitled to the cake. Both couples were again called out, when Mr. Moores and Mrs. Clark virtually yielded up their claim to the prize to Mr. Hedges and Miss Williams. Others who participated in the cakewalk were Miss Bertha Goldsmith and Bruce C. Curry, Mrs. L. L. Porter and Thomas P. Randall, Miss Ethel Caufield and J. J.

Eugene.

ing Mrs. J. M. Shelley.

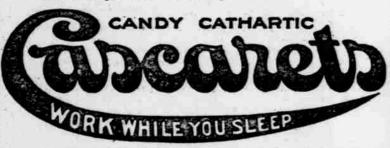

Five Club Tuesday afternoon.

are visiting relatives in Eugene

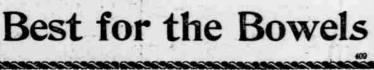

CASCARETS. Surprising, isn't it, that within three years our sales are over 5,000,000 boxes a year? That proves merit. Cascarets do good for so many others, that we urge you to try just a 10c box. Don't put it off! Do it today.

When you ask for Cascarets, don't let the dealer substitute some-thing else. There is nothing else as good as Cascarets, and if you are not pleased we pay your money back. 10c, 25c, 50c, all drug-gists. Sample and booklet free. Address Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

able for him in a good many ways, writes a staff correspondent of the New York

Press from London. The boy destined to be Emperor of Germany is already half an inch taller than his father, and is so quiet and unassuming that one wonders at it, considering his father's bustling omnipotence. But one of the many activities of Emperor William II has been to see to it that his three boys worked hard and did not get the big head. All three were at school at Ploen last year, and were treated as much as possible like other schoolboys, by the Emperor's own orders. The Crown Prince used to return from his shopping ex-