Saving Money.

There are very few things that one can save money on more satisfactorily than on clothing—providing one knows how to go about it. Of course one can't save money by buying poor-quality clothing; that's the most expensive kind of economy. But the man who wears is practicing economy in a practical way—he's SAVING MONEY. In the first place, the price is low; but that doesn't count for so much as the QUALITY—quality of the GOODS and quality of the WORKMANSHIP. It's clothing that doesn't disappoint, and the man who wears it is SAVING MONEY.

Moyer Quality Clothes

Competition Is Dumfounded

at the vast progress we have made in securing the best to be had ready-to-wear clothing. Everybody knows what exceptionally great values we have heretofore offered. This season we have outdone all previous efforts with a stock as varied as the people's wants—every feature a fashionable one—every price a fair one.

SUITS AT $10, $12, $15, $18, $20 AND UP TO $30.

Not a common-place design in the lot, but a certain style and character that individualizes them from the ordinary kind.
