

Rondegu. To hold her hand that Summer night, I strove against her sweet affright; She let one dainty finger tip A moment rest upon my lip To thrill me with delight,

Then, when we stood our love to plight, Our hearts in wedlock to unite, How sweet my sense of ownership, To hold her hand!

Long years have come and taken flight! Tonight I'm and and wretched quite. This weeping eye and swollen lip— She'd not have swiped me such a clip. Had I but exercised my right but exercised my right aid her hand! —Catholic Standard Times.

ECHOES OF CHARITY BALL

"Agatha" Promises Never, No. Never. to Do So Again-Lewis-Royt Wedding-Other Events.

"You did mix things up beautifully last week." The Belle of Three Seasons turned from the Louis XV writing table where she scribbles her notes and answers the letters of her acquaintances (she uses a tablet and a fountain pen, and utilizes her knee as a deak, when she writes to her friends), and regarded me with an of grim disapproval.

"You will have to explain," I said, try ing to look a little less guilty than I felt. "Explain, indeed! Don't add hypocrisy to your list of sins by pretending innocence. Did you not inform an expectant and credu-lous public that somebody else led the grand march at the Charlty Ball, when you should have told the truth and shamed His Satanic Majesty, by accord-ing that honge to Mr. C. V. Cooper and Mrs. A. G. Barker? Then there were Mrs. Walter Burns, who had charge of the Walter Burns, who had charge of the refreshment arrangements, and to whose tact, able management and indefatigable industry much of the success of that part of the affair was due, and Mrs. Koehler, who had charge of the decorations, and last, but by no means least, me! You didn't say a word about my gown."

"Oh," I cried in dismay, "I forget all about it but well as the same and the same and the same are same and the same are same as the same and the same are same as the same are same as about it; but really and truly, I intended about it; but really and truly, I intended to say something."

She looked at me. "Have you ever heard," she said sternly, "of a place that is powed with good intentions?"
"But," I said, catching desperately at this floating straw, "you requested me not to mention it."

No Reason at All. "Oh, did I? Well, I suppose a good many other people make similar requests, and a nice, interesting society column you would have, if you heeded them. How-ever, I will forgive you this time, if you will promise never to do it again." It is very easy for an amiably dispos person to make promises, so I promised and peace was restored. "Let me think a moment," she continued, deserting the writing table and going over to the divan. Have you ever reflected upon the fact that perhaps not more than one woman out of 10 can walk properly across a room!

It seems simple enough, but—watch the attempt and you will conclude that it is a most difficult feat, since so few secom-plish ft. The majority either slouch or pass it. The imajority either siouch or wasdile, or mince or stride; now and then you will find a fair malden, usually of the aesthetic type, who wriggles, but only rarely will you have the good fortune to observe a woman who knows how to walk about within the restricted limits of four walls. The Belle of Three Sensons is one; it is a positive pleasure to see her. one; it is a positive pleasure to see he cross the room—she moves with such freedom, such unconscious grace! She sank down among the cushions. "There was the Hoyt wedding," she said, "but I am unable to tell you much about it, because I was not there. It was strictly a family affair, only rejutives inand, "but I am unable to tell you much about it, because I was not there. It was strictly a family affair; only relatives invited, and I happen not to be a relative. I regard it in the light of a misfortune, because I wanted particularly to go.

"Of course, you went to the May Day reception, at the Raby Home?"

Baby's Home Reception. I replied, "I was out of town but tell me all about it please. Were the bables on their good behavior?"

"Perfect little cherubs, every one of them. You should have seen the nursery —a lovely bower of purity—all white snow-balls! You know Miss Ella Stephens had entire charge of the decorations, and she always designs something as pretty as it is original. Give her a few flowers and vince and drooping boughs and she will create a bit of fairyland while you walt.

She is an artist who takes her colors fresh from the palette of Nature. "I am not going to describe anything in detail; I only remember the effect of the whole. The hall was a dream of gold—Scotch broom and yellow popples. I believe—and the parjors were charming with plack hawthern and chestnut boughs and hanging baskets, laden with pink bloom. On the table was a great vase of carnations, and La France roses atrewn about over the white cloth. Mrs. Hannah Robertson and Mrs. Harry Al-len poured tea and were assisted by Bessie Barker, Kate Sitton, Ruth Scott and Alice Sibson. Lucy Sitton was in charge the candy table in the hall, and Mrs. No Cox, Mrs. Sitton, Mrs. Riley, Mrs. Rockey and Mrs. Frank Woolsey rec the guests."

The Demoiselles.

The Demoiselles danced for the last time this season at Parsons Hall Friday night. This most delightful club has been one of the successes of the year, and at its closing festivity fairly excelled itself. It has gone far toward proving that girls, when they undertake an enterprise, social or otherwise, possess the grace and ability to carry it to a happy issue. It is the hope of their many friends that the Demoiselles may dance again next season, and for many seasons. The "Jolly Neighbors" gave their farewell party at Burkhard Hall Friday night, and as usual, it was well attended and most charmingly managed. The members are possess the grace and general delightful social of the Sans Souci, at Parsons Hall, Thurs—

Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. Holt Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Holt Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Holt Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. darges will visit different points of interest in their friends with music finds tour over the Northern Pacific. They will visit different points of interest in their friends with music finds tour over the Northern Pacific. They will visit different points of interest in their friends with music finds tour over the Northern Pacific. They will visit different points of interest in their friends with music finds, the newly wedded couple left on a bridge tour over the Northern Pacific. They will visit different points of interest in their friends with music finds, the newly wedded couple left on a bridge tour over the Northern Pacific. They will visit different points of interest in their friends with music finds, the newly wedded couple left on a bridge tour over the Northern Pacific. They will visit different points of interest in their friends with music for forty. Again the priday will visit different points of interest in their friends with music for forty or the Northern Pacific. They will visit different points of interest in the points of interest in the priday will visit different points of interest in the priday will visit different points of interest in the priday will visit different points of interest in the priday will visit different points of interest in the priday will vis This most delightful club has been one night, also had their final dance of events of the week was the luncheon day night, also had their final dance of the senson. All the club was there. The music was never better and, in spite of farewells, everybody was happy. It is expected that the officers' hop at Bishop Scott Academy will be given next week. It promises to be an unusually brilliant formular and lilies of the values of the bostess and her mother, those senson.

enjoyable affair was Mrs, Patter-An enjoyable affair was Mrs. Patterson's luncheon at the golf club Tuesday.
Mrs. C. E. S. Wood. Mrs. Frank Hart,
Miss Sallle Lewis, Miss Williams. Mrs.
Tucker, Mrs. C. J. Reed, Miss Hoyt and Mrs. Langfit were among the guests, 12 in number. After luncheon a few pleasant hours were passed on the green.

Lewis-Hoyt Wedding.

wedding of the week was that of Miss Frances Hoyt and Mr. Robert Wilson Lewis, at the bride's family residence, 152 North Sixteenth street, Monday, April 30. The fact that by this marriage two of the representative families of Port-land are united invests it with more than and are united invests it with more that ordinary interest and importance. It was an afternoon function. There were flowers great quantities of whife bride roses everywhere, banked upon the mantelpiece and filling the corners of the spacious room, where, amid a wilderness of palms, the altar was set in the wide bay window, bowered in white bloom with trailing the bowered in white bloom with trailing fin-gers of smilax. The hall was fragrant as an English laws in Springtime, with flowering branches of pink hawthorn and the dining-room was beautiful with

Dr. Morrison read the always impressive marriage service of the Episcopal Church. There were no bridesmaids, and the bride wore her going-away gown of lavender crepe and a hat of black. The ceremony occurred at 5, and at 6 Mr. and Mrs. Lewis took the train for New York. They will return to Portland in July, and begin housekeeping turker their gin housekeeping under their own roof.

Miss Virginia Wilson gave a card party for Mrs. Bailey, of Tacoma, who has been viciling here, on Wednesday night. The decorations were roses, and they were everywhere in profusion. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wilcox. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mr. and Mrs. Linthicum, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mears, Mr. and Mrs. Seam with pink carnations and lilies of the valicy were placed in slender cut-glass vases. Beside the hostess and her mother, those present were: Mrs. McKennie, Mrs. H. Biddle. Mrs. Clayton, Mrs. Wygant, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Groves, Mrs. Allison and Mrs. J. H. Wholley, Mrs. L. R. Groves gave a charming dinner last Friday evening, in honor of Mrs. Henry Wygant, who departed on Monday, accompanied by her son Philip, to spend the Summer months with relatives in the Eastern states.

Eastern states.

Mrs. Glenn, wife of Captain Edwin F. Glenn, Twenty-fifth Infantry, is visiting for sister, Mrs. George C. Squires, in St. Paul, Minn.

Paul, Minn.
Major Rudolph G. Ebert came down from Smattle the early part of the week and spent a few days with his family here. Major Ebert expects to sail with General Handall and his staff for St.
Michael, Alaska, about the 56th of this month. month.

General F. M. Boutelle, retired, and Mrs. Boutelle returned on Wednesday from a short visit to San Francisco. Brigadier-General Gilbert S. Carpenter, retired, and Mrs. Carpenter, are visiting friends in Vancouver this week.

Mrs. James Parker has deferred her departure for Manila for a couple of weeks, when she will be joined by Mrs. R. L. Bullard and Mrs. P. G. Wales, who will sail about the 15th inst. to join their hus-bands in the Philippines.

MATRIMONIAL ALLIANCES.

Weddings of the Week in Portland and at Other Points.

Orrin Glenn Parker and Miss May Rose Plunkett were united in marriage by Rev. Edgar P. Hill, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Tueeday morning last, at the residence of the bride's parents, & North Ninth street. The impressive ceremony was performed in the presence of the families of the contracting parties and their immediate friends. The

60

Enca

QUEENS OF MAY.

matrimonial sea with the best wishes of many friends and a bright future before Walte-Powell. On Wednesday evening, April 25, the wedding of Mr. George Cropsey Walte and Miss Helen Lois Powell was solemnized Miss Reien Lois Powell was solemnized at Trinity Church, Rev. William R. Powell, father of the bride, officiating. The church was prettily decorated with calls lilles and green foliage. The bride was attired in heavy white silk, and carried a bunch of bride roses. Miss Saille Powell, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. William Powell acted as groomsman. After the cremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 62 Johnson street. Many handsome presents were received by the young couple. Mr. were received by the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Waite will be at home after May 15 at 865 Johnson street.

Isaacs-Rosenthal.

The marriage of M'se Bertha Rosenthal, of San Francisco, to Mr. Joseph Isaacs, of this city, was solemnized, last Sunday evening, by Rev. R. Abrahamson's house, in which the wedding took place, was laviship decorated with seasonable flowers, while the ceremony was performed under a huge bell of calla lilies. The bride was charmingly sitired in white orsandle, with vell and orange biossoma, and carried a bunch of lilies of the valley. Miss Julia Gifkert, who acted as bridesmald, was gowned in pale pink. A reception was tendered to the newly married couple Monday evening at the residence of Mr. M. Gilbert. Isanes-Rosenthal.

Watson-Vaughn.

Watson-Vaughn.

Married, April E, Mr. Prank O. Watson and Miss Lorett P. Vaughn, by Elder S. B. Letson, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn, at Hoquiam, at 8 o'clock in the evening. The parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Watson, of Montesano, and Misses Helle, Louise and Lettle Watson, sisters of the groom, were present. Miss Ellen Cunningham a epecial friend of the bride, from Centralia, and the parents of the bride, Henry M. Vaughn and wife, with numerous other kindred and friends, were also present. Mr. John Phillips was groomsman and Mr. John Phillips was groomsman ar Miss Louise Watson bridesmald. Th happy couple are at home in Hoquiam.

Adler-Holzman. Last Sunday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weingart, Mr. I. Adler and Mrs. Eather Holaman were united in mat-rimony, in the presence of a few friends, Rev. Dr. N. Mosessohn officiating. The couple will reside at 229 Mill street. Lautenschlaeger-Tennant.

Married, Wednesday, April 25, George J. Lautenschlaeger and Laura A. Ten-hant, at the manse of Calvary Presby-terian Church, by Rev. William S. Gil-

IN AND ABOUT PORTLAND. Entertainments and Social Events

Here and Elsewhere. Mrs. W. L. Straugh gave a pleasant reeption Monday afternoon, at her residence, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Hamilton, who takes her departure from Portland this evening for her home in the East. The parlors were decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. Refreshments were served.

The sliver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. I. Offner was observed at their residence, 283 Lincoln street, last Sunday Progressive whist was played until 11:20 P. M., when lunch was served. The whist prizes were won by Mr. M. Wise and Mrs. R. Eckstein, of McMinnville, and Mr. Benjamin Wise and Miss Helen Mellis. There was a numerous attendance.

A surprise party was tendered Charles Fimpel, by his schoolmates, at the home of his mother, Mrs. E. Mutch, 14 Union Mrs. Linthicum, Mr. and Mrs. Waiter Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mears, Mr. and Mrs. Snow,
Mr. and Mrs. E. T. C. Stevens, Miss Russell. Miss Williams, Miss Hoyt, Miss

Mrs. Linthicum, Mr. and Mrs. Waiter

Plunkett residence was prettily decorated for the occasion. Albert J. Pickering officlated as best man, and Miss Ailce Plunwas spent in games, music and dancing.

The "purple" side of Ellas Spaulding's

Fourth street, on Friday evening, the occasion being the 18th birthday of the recipient. hTe evening was passed in joyous fashion and a bountiful repeat was provided. Numerous handsome presents were given Miss Juger. Those who attended were: The Misses Estella Harnden, Anna Guinn, Mabel Hale, Katle Schoellhamer, Marion Cohen, Edna Monroe, Minnie Blackwood, Aille Junger and Florence Norton and Messrs. Archie Scranton. William. Donaka, Charles Casto, William Harnden, William Hale, Forest Peterson, Jessie Junger, Mr. Olifver, Jack Zanilia and Ralph Thompson.

The East Side High School Alumni party, next Thursday evening, at Burkhard's next Thursday evening, at Burkhard's Hall, will be the last event in school society until the graduating receptions, at the end of next month. Owing to the large membership of the Alumni Association, only a few outside invitations have been issued. Various noveitles have been planned.

A delightful musicale, vocal and instru-mental, was given at St. Helen's Hall, last Vednesday evening. A very large crowd illed the music hall and balconies and filled the music hall and bulconies and thoroughly enjoyed the programme. The Misses Heming and Raley appeared in a Beethoven concerto and a Chopin rondo for two planos, and showed much profi-ciancy. Others who entertained the com-pany were: Mrs. Kenney, Mrs. Susic Fen-nell, Mrs. Wulter Reed, Rov. Dr. A. A. Morrison and Miss Brents.

PEOPLE COMING AND GOING. Ebb and Flow of the Social Tide in and About Portland.

Mr. Hy Ellers, of Ellers plane has returned to Portland. Mrs. G. Foster Book returned yesterday from a year's visit in the East. Mr. G. A. Taylor and family bave moved to 14% Eleventh street. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Ladd, after a pleasant voyage, have arrived in London.

Mrs. H. W. Goode is expected home from San Francisco the first of the week. Mrs. M. Hexter returned Thursday from an extended visit to Dayton, Wash. Mrs. Benjamin Lombard, of Chicago, is visiting her son, Mr. B. Lombard, at The

Mrs. W. O. Wilkinson, of Astoria, was in Portland Wednesday, the guest of Mrs. G. W. Sanborn, of Astoria, spent a few days during the week visiting friends in Portland. Miss Resaline Grenier is visiting in Portland, after an absence of several months in Walla Walla.

in Walia Walia.

Miss J. M. Dutcher left Tuesday evening to visit her sister, Mrs. A. J. Folkera at San Francisco.

Miss Carrie George, of Medford, Or., is visiting in Portland, as the guest of Mrs. J. O. Thomas.

Miss Sears has returned from a three months visit with her sister, Mrs. James Birrel, at Boise, Idaho.

Mrs. F. R. Wall arrived in Portland from San Francisco yesterday, and is the guest of friends, at Sil Lovejoy street.

Miss Ada L. Cress left last week for Miss Ada L. Cress left last week for California to attend commencement exer-cises at Mills College, she being a member

Mrs. Jerry E. Bronaugh, of Spokane, and Miss Stella Dorris, of Eugene, are vis-iting the family of E. G. Clark, at 769 East Taylor street. The many friends of Miss Helen Teal will be glad to know that she is much improved in health. She is spending the Summer at Hood River. Miss Edythe Wendorff, after an absence of 10 months visiting relatives in Buffalo, N. Y., and other Eastern cities, has returned to Portland.

Mrs. J. H. Vaientine arrived in Portland on Friday, April II, and is visiting at the name of her sister, Mrs. J. Thorburn Ross. 500 Main street. She will remain several Miss Vinnie Wetzel, who has been a resident of this city for the past 19 years, left Monday for her old home near Chi-cago, where she will reside with her Mrs. William Estabrook Jones arrived Yesterday from Boston, with her baby and surse, on a visit to her mother, Mrs. R. L. Durham. She will remain till Miss Claire J. Senders, who has been spending the Winter in Eastern Canada and New York City with friends and rei-atives, returned to her home, 523 Johnson street, on Saturday.

A competent and reliable lady can ob n the Portland agency for the cale of most standard cosmetics and toilet preparations on the market by applying to Mrs. Gervaise Graham, Hotel Portland, Monday before 1 o'clock.

Harris L. Idleman, for many years in the passenger department of the O. R. & N. Co., and a prominent member of the Multnomah Athletic Club, left last Friday evening for the East, where, after visiting the principal cities, he intends to locate in New York City.

Dance of "The Demotselles."

Thunder and lightning could not keep the younger people from the Demoiselles party Friday evening, nor were any of the 100 couples present sorry for having braved the storm. Parsons Hall, in which the affair took place, was prettily decorat-ed. Long strings of Oregon wild climbem were arranged with excellent taste while a hundred or so of incandescent lights were concealed in fancy Chinese lanterns. The banquet-hell also looked pretty with dozens of tete-a-tete tables and many flowers. There were new party dresses, and the dance programme was made up of waltzes and two-steps, lastdresses, and the dance programme was made up of waltzes and two-steps, last-ing until way into the wee hours of morning. The patronesses were: Mrs. J. W. Brandt, Mrs. F. M. Batchelo R. J. Holmes and Mrs. J. L. De Bevoise

A Unique Concert.

On Tuesday evening, May 15, a "colo-nial" concert of great popular interest will be given at the First Congregational Church by a chorus of 30 voices, unue the direction of Mr. Edgar Clark, This chorus will be assisted by Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, Mrs. J. Raley, Mr. William A. Montgomery and Mr. William J. Beicher, of the First Congregational choir.

Te old songs sung by ye great-grand-fathers and ye great-grandmothers in ye old colonial days will be sung as they were given 190 years ago. Ye men and women singers will wear ye old colonial costumes of a century past. Further an-nouncement of the event will be made in

At the Women's Union. A fire escape is the latest addition to the equipment of the building. Miss Carpenter, of Satem, is now resid-ing at the Women's Union. Mrs. Zoah Dunham, of Chehalts, Wash., made a short stay this week. Mrs. Reberts, of Castle Rock, Wash. was a guest at the Union this week. Miss Ella Henneberry left for Astoria in Thursday, to be absent for 10 days. Misa Susie Tipping, or Butte, Mont., i here on a visit to her sister, Miss Mary. Mrs. S. B. Suksdorf has returned this

Amateur Theatricals

Rehearsals are progressing satisfactor-lly for the bright and sparking farce that the Unitarians will give Friday, May 18, at 815 P. M., at Arion Hall. Society is already on the oul vive about it, for these pleasing exhibitions of amateur theatrica

FURNITURE CARPETS STOVES

100 E

THE HOMEFURNISHER

Here are four surprises. We know the prices will surprise you, but atill more of a surprise will be the fact that the styles and patterns are the very latest and quality the very best.

THE STATE OF

0 0

4

CARPET SURPRISE

An Excellent Wearing Brussels Carpet, per yard ... An All-Wool Ingrain Carpet, per yard .. 60c Linen-Warp Matting, good ...20c quality, per yard

Fine Lace Curtain, 4 feet wide, 31/2 yards long $1.25

The celebrated 4-hole Eclipse Rang-and high shelf,

$25.00

$7.00 Go-Carts, from $3.50 up.

A good durable Go-Cart,

We sell on easy terms in Portland or anywhere in the surrounding coun-

1. GEVURTZ, The Homefurnisher, 173-175 First St., N. W. Cor. Yamhill

well-comblished feature of the Spring season, and are each year anticipated with growing interest. The play this wear will be a one-act comedy by Julier Wilbor Tompkins, ebtitled, "The First Time."

Musical Club Notes. There will be no student recital in May, as announced.

The annual business meeting and elec-tion of officers will be held the second Wednesday in June.

The next artist recital will be given some time in May by Mile. Antoinette Trebelli, who so charmed San Francisco au-liences this Winter.

At the last business meeting an important change in the constitution was made whereby students of teachers who are as-sociate members of the ctub may be ad-mitted to the privileges of student mem-

Manila Souvenir Buttons. The ladies of Oregon are patriotic and are always glad to prove it in a practical way. For this reason it will no doubt become extremely fashionable to wear the Manila souvenir buttons that are now being sold in such numbers for the benefit of the soldiers' monument. Buttons are being made with pin backs especially for the ladies. Gentlemen who read the signs of the time will not be slow in seeing that the ladies are supplied with them.

Women's Auxiliary.

The women's auxiliary of the Unitarian Church will meet on Tuesday afternoon at the usual time and place, instead of at the usual time and piace, instead ... Wednesday. This change is made in oropportunity to meet Mrs. Emily Fifield, of Boston, Mass. Mrs. Fifield has been in Berkeley, Cal., attending the Pacific Coast Unitarian Conference, and will be in Portland Tuesday only. It is hoped in Portland Tuesday only. all members will be present to greet Mrs.

Portland Woman's Union.

and New York City with friends and relatives, returned to her home, 523 Johnson street, on Saturday.

Miss Lila Barnes, who has been in San Francisco for the past five months, taking lessons in the art of painting on china, has returned home, and will remain here for some time, at least,

Mrs. Proctor, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Minnie, and by Miss Louise Ross, left Thursday for the Paris exposition. They will stop a while in Glasgow, Scotland, the former home of Mrs. Proctor.

Ladies should know that we make apslique work, all the way from a set of trimming to a full costume; also platting in any style from an eighth of an inch to any width desired.

Do You Need Photos?

Kranch, the progressive photographer, is prepared to supply your wants. Our specialty is likeness and finish. Northwest corner Seventh and Washington

Miss A. S. Jorgensen, 291 Morrison, Sale this week Knox style hats, tam-o'-shan-Imported saflors at reduced prices this Miss A. S. Jorgensen, 291 Mor-Artistic work, complexion, scalp and manicure. Bertha A. Trullinger, room 20, 1911 Morrison.

Veivet leather, for burnt or poker work, n every shade. Patrick, Mastick & Co., 91-93 Front street. Mrs. E. S. Miller, who has been serious ly afflicted with the grip, contracted on her return trip from New York, wishes to announce to her pupils and friends that she is slowly improving and will be ready to begin lessons May 15. Studio at residence, 432 East Ankeny street. SOUTH OF THE COLUMBIA. Various Events of the Week in the State of Oregon. Salem

Miss Catherine Gilbert has gone to Moscow, Idaho, where she will visit relatives. Mrs. L. S. Skiff left Wednesday for an extended visit with friends at different points in Washington.

Miss Neille Lowry has returned to her home in Aberdeen, Wash, after a short visit with Miss Alice Temple, of this city.

Mrs. D. A. Clark, of Los Angeles, who has been visiting Mrs. A. E. Dinsmore, of this city, left Tuesday for the City of Mexico.

Rev. W. E. Copeland, who has resigned his pastorate of the Unity Church in this city, announces that he will remove with his family to Burley, Wash.

Mrs. George McNamar entertained the members of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Congregational Church at her home in South Salem, Friday afternoon, The members of the Order of the Eastern Star enjoyed an old-fashioned "necktle social," in their hall, last Tuesday evening. A number of the ladies were dressed in their grandmothers clothes, and gave a representation of an eld-time singing school.

The local lodges of the A. O. U. W. and Degree of Honor are planning a picula, to be held at the State Fair grounds, in to be held at the State Fair grounds, in the latter part of May, or early in June. The object is to bring together as many members of the order as possible, and to this end all the Workmen lodges of Marion, Linn, Polk, Yamhili and Clackamas countles will be invited to participate. Committees have been appointed and the details of the affair are being arranged. It is proposed to have present some of the best speakers and musicians of the order, and to make the occasion the greatest event of the year in A. O. U. W. circles.

Mrs. Neille Swift and Miss Bowiby are visiting relatives in Portland. Captain Downs, United States Army, has gone to Indiana for a vacation of a month.
W. L. Robb and family have returned from Seattle, and will spend the summer in this city. ... Mrs. C. B. Haraden has returned from last for California, where he will re-main for some weeks. George W. Barker has returned from Stanford and has accepted a position with the Astoria National Bank.

Skagway, Alaska, and will reman here Judge J. Q. A. Bowlby left on Saturday

Mrs. P. A. Stokes entertained at sup-per the Nob Hill Tennis Club, at her home, on Saturday evening of last week. H. G. Van Dusen, who has been in San Francisco for several months, has re-turned to his home in the city, much improved in health.

On Friday evening last a very enjoyable dancing party was given at Fourd & Stokes' Hull, by the Assembly Club. This is the last of the club's parties for the sea-After the entertainment given by the Spinsters' Club last week, several of the young women participating were entertained at a chang-dish supper by Mr.

and Mrs. H. D. Thing. ncement has been made of the approaching wedding of Miss Neilie Nicker-son, who is well known in society circles here. She will be married in June to Mr. Bertram La Muirt, at Eureka, Cal. On Saturday, a merry party of 15 young ladies, wish we haperons, left for a few days stay at Gearhart Park. They are the guests of Miss Lottle Bennett, at the summer cottage of Mrs. W. S. Kinney, and are equipped for a royally good time. A number of men friends will join the party for Sunday. Golf will be the principal amusement.

McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eksteln returned nome Monday from Portland. Mrs. W. C. Cook returned home Wednes-day from a visit to friends and relatives in Dallas.

Misses Lens and Mary Payne, of Sa-em, have been guests at the home of W. Warren.

Judge George H. Burnett, of Salem, spent a few days last week with his mother, in this city. Mr. and Mrs. W. Cressy went to Daller

CORSETS EVERY PAIR

GUARANTEED.

SUPERIOR to all other Corsets in lightness, flexibility, fabrics, wearing qualities, fit and detail of finish. Boned with pliable rust-proof metal boning: Every length of waist breadth of hip and bust measure perfectly fitted in all the here shapes, aty prices from $1.00 to:$3.00 per pair,

ALL MERCHANTS SELL THEM

week from an extended stay at San Diego, Cal.