

Leon C. and Arthur E., of Seattle, are stopped at 23 Market street, A. B. Gibb, of Seattle, is expected today from California.

R. Alex Bernasconi, now in San Francisco, will return on the steamer Columbia.

Miss Alverda G. Hawk, a member of the First Presbyterian Church, and late librarian of the W. C. T. U. at Sunny-side, Or., left for the East last Sunday morning.

Mrs. E. S. Miller has returned from Salem, where she sang before the Alumni Association of Willamette University.

The pupils of Miss Marie A. S. Boute, assisted by Miss Helen Goss, vocalist, and Miss Frances Gill, violinist, will give a recital at the new saleroom of Eilers Piano House.

Invitations may be secured through Miss Soule, members of the class, or at Eilers Piano House.

PROGRAMME. Gullitt Madeline Lang, Le Trot du Cavalier, Spindler Turkish March, Gullitt Hebertta Rokochid, Pleszczona Polish Chivalry, Pleszczona Miss Winifred Rankin, In der Senne, Heins Mr. Roy Wilson, (a) Gavotte, Heins (b) The Violin, McDonald Nocturne, Schumann Miss Elizabeth Koch, Cavatina, Raff Miss Frances Gill, (a) An Den Fruhlung, Grieg (b) Idyll, Lock Miss Lillian Brown, (a) Cuban Hammo, Paladino (b) Villanelle, Dell'Acqua (a) Two Lullabies, Leschetzky (b) Marciau Characteristic, Wollenhaupt Mrs. Edith M. Johnson, Tarentelle, Sherwood Le Fluteau, Miss Beatrice Hadden, Polonaise, Chopin Polka de la Reine, Raff Miss Frances Sheehy, Der Frelschiuer, von Weber Piano quartet.

For the Street Fair. The Acme Dramatic Club, an amateur organization which is said to number some talented young people in its membership, will present at Corvallis, Wednesday evening, July 11, "The Treasure of the Sea," a play which has been adapted from an English drama.

Rain, Bicycle and Traveling Skirts are shown in the better styles and materials, also few new designs in hats and coats at an usual better value than elsewhere.

Every shade of velvet leather for fancy and burnt work, Patrick, Mastick & Co., 21-23 Front street.

Apply work, plating, dressmaking in all its branches. Ladies' tailoring a specialty. Stephens, 29 Alder street.

The Musical Club announces a song recital by Miss Anna Miller Wood, mezzo-soprano, at Boston, at Arion Hall, Thursday evening, June 28.

Various Events of the Week in the State of Oregon. Astoria. Mrs. Frank M. Gunn, of San Francisco, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. McKee, this city.

Mrs. William Hettick and Mrs. J. H. Smith are spending a few days at Seaside, where they are occupying the Thompson cottage.

Mrs. J. T. Ross and Miss Hobson have returned to the city, after having taken part in the Anton Schott concert this week in Portland.

Miss Amy Powell left on Saturday last for Boston, where she will pursue a course of study at the Harvard University Summer School.

Mrs. Robert F. Wilson, of this city, was married on June 14, at Fairfield, Ia., to Miss Antoinette Murray. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are now en route to their home here.

Sunday in Pendleton, where they will remain for the Summer. Mrs. W. A. Ferguson, of Walla Walla, who has been visiting her brother-in-law, C. J. Ferguson, has left for Tacoma.

Dr. and Mrs. John Dickson arrived Saturday from Southern California, where they have been for the past few months.

Mrs. Mary B. Clifton left Sunday for Long Beach, where she will spend the Summer with Mrs. J. E. Moore, who has taken a cottage for the season.

Mrs. Leon Cohen left Sunday morning for New York. She will join Mrs. C. S. Jackson and the Misses Thompson in Baltimore and sail for Paris on the 23rd inst.

Mrs. G. A. Hartman and Mrs. S. P. Sturges arrived from Portland Monday, accompanied by Miss Jennie Hartman, who has been at St. Helen's Hall during the Winter.

Mrs. C. S. Jackson, Miss Ida Thompson and Miss Harriette Thompson left Friday for Baltimore, whence they will sail, on the 23rd inst., for Paris. They will be gone for four months and will visit points of interest in Europe.

Corvallis. Miss Lettie Wickes left Thursday for California to spend the Summer. Miss Naomi Cowan, of Lebanon, was the "commencee" guest of Miss Edna Irvine.

Miss Jessie Pinley, of Carleton, was the guest of Miss Alice Kholder during the week. Mr. W. T. Howitt arrived Saturday from Stockton, Cal., for a visit to Corvallis relatives.

Miss Nellie Hogue, of Albany, was the "commencee" guest of the Misses Greaves. Miss Bertha Emmett, of Salem, was the "commencee" guest of Miss Edna Garrow.

Miss Lyle Lawrence, of Oregon City, was the guest of Miss Leona Smith during the week. Miss Leona Smith entertained the Sorores Literary Society from 4 to 5 Monday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Cumfitt, of Albany, was a guest at the Webber home during commencement week. Miss Bertha Emmett, of Salem, was the "commencee" guest of Miss Edna Garrow.

Professor and Mrs. George Coole left Wednesday for Santa Barbara, Cal., for a month's visit. Miss Beattie Barker, of Astoria, was the guest of Miss Mildred Linnville during commencement.

Mrs. F. L. Washburn, of Eugene, has been the guest during commencement of Mrs. J. W. Wilson. Miss Ida Jones, of Brooks, was the guest of her sister, Miss Kate, at Alpha Hall, during the week.

Miss Ruby Cornell, of Salem, was the guest of Miss Helen Steiner during the week. Miss Estelle Cane, of Portland, was the guest of Miss Emma Baker, at Sorores Hall, during commencement.

Mrs. L. L. Porter returned to her home in Oregon City, Saturday, after a week's visit with Corvallis relatives. The senior class of G. A. C. was entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Withycombe from 4 to 5 Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Esther Avery returned Tuesday from Portland, accompanied by Miss Mae Bradford, who will be her guest here. Mrs. Dennison, of Grand Rapids, Mich., arrived last week and will be the guest of Corvallis friends during the Summer.

Mrs. M. Johnson, accompanied by her daughters, Mabel and Mildred, arrived from Portland Monday on a visit to friends and relatives. Miss Esther Berry, of Corvallis, and Mr. George W. Carl, of Carleton, were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. W. Carl, on Wednesday afternoon.

Forest Grove. Rev. C. F. Clapp and wife gave the students of Pacific University a reception last week at their home. Miss Emma Stewart and brother, Horace, after an absence of several months, have returned to Forest Grove.

Mrs. Jane Smith, Mrs. J. C. Clark and Harry Danforth returned Wednesday from Philadelphia, where Mr. Danforth has just finished his studies in dentistry. Millard O. Lowndale played an audience of 300 people in March Hall Tuesday night by singing six songs.

Rev. J. M. Hunter and wife, Mrs. Belle Walker, and daughter, Edith; Miss Alice Christian and Mrs. Bettie Benson and daughter, Mary, left Friday to attend the state convention of the Christian Church, which began last Friday and will close July 3 at Turner.

Among those who attended the commencement exercises of Pacific University were Congressman T. H. Tongue, wife and his two daughters, Marie and Elizabeth; Napoleon Davis, of Portland; Miss May Liewer, of Vancouver; Myron Selis, of Umpqua; J. W. Strange, of Roseburg; M. O. Lowndale, of Lafayette; Mrs. Walter Reed, of Portland; Mrs. E. U. Marsh, of Astoria; Mrs. A. U. Marsh, of Astoria; Mrs. C. H. Rames, of Salem; William N. Barrett and wife and Cal Jack, of Hillsboro; Miss Jessie Hibbs, Gaston; Miss Jennie Snyder, McMinnville, and Miss Minnie Wilson, of Corvallis.

Grant's Pass. Messrs. Charles L. Young and Charles W. Schoonover, of the Preston Peak Copper Company, left last week for their homes in New York. Judson Bent, of San Diego, one of the owners of the A and B mine, on Galice Creek, arrived Wednesday, and left for the mine the next day.

Grant's Pass will celebrate the Fourth in an energetic way. The local lodge of the Woodmen of the World has the matter in charge, and the various committees have arrangements about completed. President W. C. Howley, of Willamette University, will be the orator of the day.

The young people who have been away at the various educational institutions have commenced the Summer vacations. Miss Stella Axtell, from Holmes' Business College, and Miss Adella Hart, from St. Helen's Hall, Portland; Messrs. Edward Van Dyke, from the State University, Zera Pool, from the San Jose Business College, and John Booth, from Northwest University, at Evanston, Ill., are among them. Miss Elsie Hobbes is visiting friends in Portland. Miss Bertha Nelson is visiting relatives in Portland. Miss Lena Wynn, of Portland, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. O. O. Hodson and daughter, Edna, have returned from Portland. Miss Rosa Goucher is visiting her friend, Miss Helen O'Connell, in Salem. Mrs. J. W. Fenton and children have returned from a visit to Portland. Miss Nettie Kinsley is spending her vacation in Portland with her mother.

Charlie Redmond, a student of U. of O., has returned home to spend his vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Clatsop Irvine, of Portland, are visiting relatives in McMinnville. Mrs. Anna Todd and daughter, of Tillamook, are visiting her parents in this city.

Mrs. Jacob Wortman has returned from Grant's Pass, where she has been visiting her sister. Mr. S. I. Hibbs gave an enjoyable "tally-ho" party Friday evening to a number of his friends. Mrs. F. E. Rogers pleasantly entertained a number of friends at her home last Tuesday.

Mr. Lair Thompson, a student of McMinnville College, left Monday for his home in Albany. Eugene. Mrs. F. L. Washburn is visiting in Corvallis. Miss Grace Driver is visiting friends in Brownsville. Miss Maude Shelley, of Portland, is visiting her parents in Eugene.

Professor W. Gilford Nash is visiting at his old home in Nashville, Lincoln County. Mrs. E. C. Smith and daughter, Miss Winnie, are taking an outing at Sodusville. Mrs. J. G. Gray returned Thursday from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Frank Miller, in Albany.

Mrs. C. C. Applegate, who has been visiting Mrs. J. M. Shelley, has returned to her home in Los Angeles. Mrs. O. D. Lindgren, Miss A. T. Cockerline and Mrs. S. J. Wilson attended the Woodman Circle convention in Roseburg the past week. Oregon City. Miss Edith Luskon, of Crookston, Minn., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. W. Stafford.

Mrs. L. L. Porter is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Spangler, at Corvallis. Mrs. R. D. Wilson returned Monday from a six weeks' visit to her son, Charles U. Wilson, at Spokane. Mrs. E. S. Bollinger and daughter, Miss Helen, returned Thursday from a 19 days' visit with friends at Astoria.

Mrs. James Yeager, of Noyahport, Wash., who was visiting Mrs. P. McIntyre, returned home the first of the week. Mrs. R. T. Bray, of Seattle, is visiting her daughters, Mrs. J. E. Hodges and Miss Harriet Bray. Mrs. Bray was accompanied by Mrs. Annie E. Riosden. Salem. Mrs. J. W. Meredith and daughter, Jennie, have returned from a visit to the Eastern states.

Mrs. E. R. Piper, of Portland, is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Leo Willis, of this city. Silver Bell circle, Women of Woodcraft, gave a reception and banquet last Wednesday evening, in honor of visiting guests. Miss Edith M. Johnson, of Jefferson, and Mr. James H. Vagabond, of Portland, were united in marriage last Thursday, at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. A. W. Bagley officiating. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Johnson, of Jefferson. The groom is an employe of the Southern Pacific Company, at Portland.

Albany. Mr. John Terry, of The Needles, Cal., is visiting his family here. Mrs. J. S. Kingsley and daughter and Mrs. F. M. Henderson, of Portland, are guests of Mr. Joseph Henderson. A delightful event was the closing musicale of the season, given by the Albany Musical Club, at the residence of S. E. Young. The programme was devoted to the compositions of Norvin and DeKoven.

Hillsboro. Congressman Tongue and daughter, Marie, returned from Washington, D. C., last Monday. Hon. and Mrs. S. B. Huston returned to Hillsboro Tuesday evening, after an extended visit to the Eastern states. J. C. Lamkin and wife, of this city, celebrated the 33rd anniversary of their wedding last Tuesday evening. The Hillsboro Band serenaded them and refreshments were served.

Trousdale. Mr. Harold Snow is home from Albany College. Mr. E. B. Williams, of Portland, and his family, are spending the Summer at "Sweeher Farm," their country place. Mr. Charles Messervy, of Arlington, Gilliam County, spent a few days here visiting his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas. He will visit his mother and then go to Deep River.

NORTH OF THE COLUMBIA. Various Events of the Week in the State of Washington. Vancouver. Rev. Hugh Lamont, wife and son departed on Monday for their new home in Nampa, Idaho. Miss Edith Henriksen is visiting friends in Astoria. Mrs. Minnie Eddings and daughter are visiting at Independence, Or. Mrs. F. C. Leathers, of Tacoma, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bover, at this city.

Wedgebury. They will make their future home in Aberdeen. Mrs. N. G. Kaufman is visiting relatives in Olympia. Mrs. Fred A. Hart has returned from her visit to Tacoma. Mrs. Wm. Balcomb, of Winona, Minn., is visiting friends here. Mrs. Julius Hoyer and Mrs. William Dutcher attended the annual Woodcraft

OLDS & KING

Sun Umbrellas and Parasols. Necessary protectors from Summer rain or sunshine, are here in great variety, at very low prices.

White silk Parasols, plain, $1 each. With dainty ruffles, $1.50 to $2 each. Ladies' Neckwear. At Half Price. 3000 Hats, 2 yards long, with handsome lace ends. $1.25 each this week.

Ladies' Summer Gloves. For general service and comfort. Fine black silk gloves, 3 pair, at $1.25 each. Double, 65c pr. Finer and heavier grades, 75c and $1.00 each.

New Kid Gloves. White and pearl, all sizes, at $1.15 to $2 pair. Two Specials in Men's Furnishings. Some of the best bargains of the season.

NO. 1-MEN'S NIGHTSHIRTS. With trimmed fronts; fine fabric garments, at 50c each. NO. 2-NOVELTY HALF-HOSE. Great variety; extra 12 1/2 grade; 2 pairs for 50c.

Men's Underwear. Summer time, best styles and weights such as Balbriggan, Linnen Mesh, Silk and Linen, Silk and Lisle, and light-weight Wool, Merinos and Cashmeres, are here at prices to suit all incomes.

Warm Weather Shirts. Dressed and most comfortable for business or semi-formal wear. With or without collars, at $1.15, $1.50, $1.75 to $3 each. Mothers' Friend Waists. In neat, pretty, striped percales; pink, blue and lavender. Collars attached or detachable. Laundered and ready for use.

Boys' Blouse Waists. White, with embroidery trimmings. Dressed in style; sewing doubly sure. Prices, 50c and 60c EACH. $1.00 to $2.25 each.

There Are Thousands of Men Who Know About Mount Hood Negligee Shirts. And there are other thousands who will want them when they know of their good features. Mount Hood. Primary Features. Every Step In Their Construction. For Outdoor Enjoyment.

OLDS & KING

San Francisco, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Hixon. Mrs. B. P. McGinnis, of Salem, Or., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McKee.

Mrs. G. W. Brice and Mrs. Harvey Brice, of La Crosse, Wis., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. Kies, in Fruit Valley. The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Proebstel, at Riverdale, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Olson has been enjoying a visit from her mother, Mrs. Lambert, of LaCrosse, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Myers have been enjoying a visit from their daughter, Mrs. J. C. Byler, of Montesano.

Mrs. Jacob Weatherman, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ina, and Mrs. M. R. Sherwood, are in Portland. The ladies of the Congregational Church enjoyed a delightful afternoon with Mrs. E. C. Benjamin Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Carter attended the wedding of Mrs. Mabel Tarr and Richard Trask at Montesano Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Griggs left Monday for Portland, leaving that place Wednesday for Skagway, Alaska, by way of Seattle. They will spend the summer there.

Herbert A. Elyce, one of the members of the First Washington Regiment, which did duty in the Philippines, has gone to Stevens Point, Wis., where he will make his home in the future. Mr. Charles H. Towner, of Grand Marais, Mich., was married to Miss Clara Belle Morse, of this city, Wednesday morning last. They left for Michigan, via Seattle and the Canadian Pacific.

Walla Walla. Hon. Alexander Reed, of Tacoma, is in the city. Miss Libbie Burrows has returned from Portland. C. C. Cran, of Whitman County, is here on a visit. Mrs. L. J. Schell has returned to her Portland home.

W. A. Froberg has gone to Bingham Springs for the season. Miss Edna Evers has returned from the Normal School at Ellensburg. Dr. E. G. Pugsley has returned from a protracted visit on Puget Sound. Miss Almee Lowe has returned from the Normal School at Ellensburg.

Ben Stone is home for the vacation from the preparatory school at Ithaca, N. Y. Robert Ankeny has returned from the Shattuck Military School at Fairbairn, Minn. Miss Charlotte Baumlester left for Astoria Thursday, to visit her aunt, Mrs. Ed. Baumlester.

OLDS & KING EVERY DRY GOODS WANT SUPPLIED EXTRA RESULTS DEMAND EXTRA EFFORTS

Our desire to lessen many Summer lines brings EXTRAORDINARY ATTRACTIONS throughout our store. You'll find at every turn far more than we can announce. But a partial list will appear each day.

SPECIAL HAT SALE Tomorrow Only—Ready-to-Wear Street Hats at Half Price. Lending styles for street, outing and general Midsummer wear. As samples: Waiting Hat of fancy straw, navy or white; corded silk and white; corded leather trimmings; worth $3.00 each. Tomorrow.

DAINTY WHITE WASH GOODS. We help increase their popularity these Summer days, with the freshest and prettiest the season brings at the lowest prices. White Organdie Sale. 1500 yards of pure white organdie, 2 yards wide. Albany. Special this week at 25c yd.

SCOTCH GINGHAM SALE. 150 pieces of Anderson's genuine Scotch most beautiful collection yet shown in Bath Towels. Ready for every need of the bath season. Some special values in CREAM TURKISH TOWELS—18x28 inches, 10c each. 18x28 inches, extra weight, 12 1/2c each. 18x28 inches, extra weight, 15c each.

Our Crockery Dept. Adds its share to the list of bargains. Goods of superior quality always shown here at prices to set you buying. Silverware Sale. Best quality guaranteed silverware, plated on white metal. Teaspoons, 7c set. Dessert spoons, $1.25 set. Table spoons, $1.50 set. Coffee spoons, 50c set. Forks, $1.25 set. Knives, $1.50 set. Oyster forks, $1.00 set. Sugar shells and butter knives, 25c each.

Dinner Sets. Best decorated English porcelain, 100 pieces, $7.25 set. Same, with gold lines, 100 pieces, $8.25 set. Fruit Season Sundries. Covered jelly tumblers, 30c dozen. Pint Mason jars, 6c dozen. Quart Mason jars, 8c dozen. Half-gallon Mason jars, 5c dozen. Mason rubbers, 3c dozen.

NEW AUTOMATIC REFRIGERATORS. Made of hard wood, have perfect circulation of dry air. No flues to become clogged or rusty. Are durable and economical of ice. All the latest improvements. Fourteen sizes. Prices from $12.60 up.

tion from the Shattuck Military School at Fairbairn, Minn. Mrs. Lester S. Wilson entertained a large party of young people Wednesday evening with cards. Miss Charity Ankeny is home from St. Helen's Hall, Portland, to pass the vacation with her parents. Miss Alletta Baumlester, of Astoria, passed several days with her cousin, Miss Lettie Baumlester, during the week.

Hon. Oscar Cain, pro-secuting attorney of Walla Walla County, has gone to Kansas and Iowa for a few weeks. Mrs. Miles Palmdorfer has returned to her Spokane home from a protracted visit with her sister, Mrs. Harry Burford. Saturday evening Mrs. John L. Sharpstein held a large reception in honor of her guest, Mrs. Leeper, of Lewiston, Idaho.

H. O. Peck and Wm. G. Campbell went to Victoria to represent Walla Walla at the meet of the Northwestern Sportsmen's Association. Misses Lettie Prendergast, Effie King and Dorra Edwards have returned from Ellensburg, where they have been attending the Normal School.

Mrs. S. C. Wingard entertained a party of ladies on Friday afternoon with cards and delicious refreshments in honor of her guest, Miss Minnie Krutz, of Seattle. The Misses Chandler, of Chicago, are visiting their cousin, Mrs. E. D. Crocker. On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Crocker gave a largely attended reception in their home.

Mrs. Edwin Stanton Isaacs and her sister-in-law, Miss Grace Isaacs, gave an "at home" Thursday afternoon, which was attended by a large number of ladies and gentlemen. Refreshments were served. Cheshal. Mrs. A. Donahoe is visiting friends in Portland.

Dr. C. A. Custer, of Portland, has located in Cheshal. Harry Coffman will spend the Summer at his home in this city. Miss Maude Drake is home from the State Normal School at New Whatcom. Miss Marya Forster is home from an extended stay in Arizona and New Mexico.

"You see," she explained, "I have a son, and the author of 'Sappho' dedicates it to his sons after they are 21 years of age. So I wanted to know if it was a book that I could give to my son when he comes to my own boy. We women who have children to bring up ought to be so careful about these things."

"And how old is your little boy now, Mrs. Twiddlelums?" "He was 2 in February." Heavy Passenger Travel to the East on Account of the Low Rates Now Being Offered by the Burlington.

Have you made inquiry at the Burlington Route ticket office, corner Third and Stark streets, and ascertain what a low rate they are naming to all points East. It will pay you to call or write for particulars if you are going East. The Burlington now operate their own train out of Portland daily, and are the only line running through cars to Kansas City, St. Louis and many other points. R. W. Foster, City Ticket Agent, George S. Taylor, City Passenger Agent.

OLDS & KING

'Twould be hard to find a lady who has not heard of Royal Worcester Corsets.

Of white netting, India linen, Dresden figured, fancy striped silk, and pongee and crepe, in black, blue and extra long. Prices from 50c to $4.50 each. Bias and Hand-Folded Corset. All the latest improvements known to corset makers are shown in the Royal Worcester. Prices ranging from $1.25 up.

Two High-Grade Royal Worcesters. The Banton and Sappho. We especially recommend for small dressers. Royal Worcester Girdles. For ladies who do not wish to wear corsets.

Of white linen ribbon, feather-boned sides, 11-inch straight-front, 11-inch curved-front, 11-inch straight-front, 11-inch curved-front, 11-inch straight-front, 11-inch curved-front. Two Petticoat Bargains. Made as ours always are, correct in shape, style and workmanship.

Black Sateen Petticoats. With double Spanish flounce and four rows of cording; were 75c. Special. 59c ea. Silk Petticoats. Of plain or changeable taffeta, 11-inch flounce, with four rows cording; colors, wine, cerise, blue and lavender. A dainty 64 skirt, at $4.63 ea.

Children's Gingham Aprons. For school, home, seaside or country. Aprons with sleeves and collar. 3c each. Of better gingham, with trimmed collar, 5c each. Of fine Scotch gingham; collar and sleeves embroidered trimmed; ages 2 to 7 years, 6c each. The Oxford Tie. Is the show of all shoes for ladies' Summer wear. Clean, fresh, restful. We can fit all feet.

$2.50 Oxford Ties. Of Russia cut, or vicid knit; tan or chocolate colors; latest lists and special heavy welt soles. Perfect for street. Extra good, at $2.50 pair. Two Specials. Ladies can't miss it in buying these LOUIS HENRIE aprons. Tan, with silk vesting tops; light, flexible soles, and narrow coin toes; BICYCLE BOOTS—Of vicid knit, black or brown, 10 or 11-inch tops; heavy or medium soles; regularity $1.50. Both $2.98 Pair.

There are many popular styles, some at medium prices, are of sateen, oxford cloth, in dark or light shades, at 50c each. Of Madras in neat stripes and checks, light and medium colors, at 75c and $1 each. Lightweight flannels, in fancy effects at $1 each. Fine grades reach $2.25 each, and the cheapest are equal value in proportion to price to the finer qualities.

Colonel O. B. Peckett returned this week from Dawson City, Alaska. Mrs. D. M. Custer, of Aberdeen, is in the city, visiting relatives. T. C. Wilkinson and family have left for Everett, where they will reside. The family of O. F. Haskell have gone to Toledo, where they will make their future home. Mrs. Fred Alms, of Staples, Minn., arrived Thursday on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson. Mrs. M. M. Barstler and two children returned Tuesday from an extended visit to friends in Yamhill County Oregon. The ladies of the Round Table Club met Thursday evening, at the home of Helen A. Eorst. There was a full attendance, and a pleasant evening passed.

Hon. H. E. Elise goes to Cosmopolis this week, to deliver the address before the Young Men's Republican Club, which is to be organized in this city. Memorial services were held last Sunday at the Baptist Church by the Modern Woodmen, after which the members of the order proceeded to the cemetery, where they placed flowers on the graves of deceased members of the order.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Zimmer entertained their bachelor friends at dinner Sunday last. Those present were: F. C. Briggs, F. C. Lewis, R. L. Sebastian, J. Traubnitz, Joseph Blanning, W. C. Scates and D. M. Danne. For Her Son's Sake. An Oak Park woman, says the Chicago Times-Herald, who was out making calls the other day, noticed in the home of one of her friends a copy of "Sappho," which the maid had evidently forgotten to hide when the doorbell rang.

"Oh, Mrs. Twiddlelums," exclaimed the caller, "are you reading that book?" Mrs. Twiddlelums blushed—the other lady declares she is not mistaken about the bluish—and stammered that she had just started in on the book. "You see," she explained, "I have a son, and the author of 'Sappho' dedicates it to his sons after they are 21 years of age. So I wanted to know if it was a book that I could give to my son when he comes to my own boy. We women who have children to bring up ought to be so careful about these things."

"And how old is your little boy now, Mrs. Twiddlelums?" "He was 2 in February." Heavy Passenger Travel to the East on Account of the Low Rates Now Being Offered by the Burlington.

Have you made inquiry at the Burlington Route ticket office, corner Third and Stark streets, and ascertain what a low rate they are naming to all points East. It will pay you to call or write for particulars if you are going East. The Burlington now operate their own train out of Portland daily, and are the only line running through cars to Kansas City, St. Louis and many other points. R. W. Foster, City Ticket Agent, George S. Taylor, City Passenger Agent.

THE SWEET GIRL STUDENT. Illustration of a young woman sitting at a desk, reading a book. Text: Prof. Bore—Miss Ketchum, what kind of a noun is a 'kiss'? Miss Ketchum—Common. Prof. Bore—Decline it. Miss Ketchum—I never do.