Foreigners in Pekin May Yet Be Saved.

ALL WAS WELL TUESDAY

Two Legations Were Then Holding Out.

CHINESE LOSSES WERE HEAVY

Boxer Attacks Diminishing in Force -Besieged Amply Supplied With Food and Ammunition.

LONDON, July 7.-The Foreign Office has issued the text of a telegram from Consul-General Warren, at Shanghat, confirming from thoroughly trustworthy sources the news received courier from Pekin, July 3, by way of Shanghai, to the London office of the Inspectorate of Chinese Maritime Customs, saying that two Legations were, the day the courier left, holding out against the troops and Boxers, and that the troops had lost 2000 men, and the Boxers many leaders.

Mr. Warren adds that the messenger says the troops were much disheartened by their losses, and that the Boxers claim their mystic powers have been broken by the foreigners, and that they dare not approach the legations,

It is further asserted that the foreigners at Pekin ought to be able to hold out for a long time, as they have sufficlent food and ammunition.

Jardine, Mathes & Co., of Shanghai, have telegraphed their London house as follows:

"Shanghai, July 7.-The British legation was standing July 2. There are reassuring reports regarding the lives of the Europeans."

News from other points was distinctly disquieting. A report from Che Foo, dated July 7, says the Catholic bishop, two priests and two nuns have been mur-

A report from Moukden, dated July L. says the Danish mission at Hin Yun was surrounded by Boxers. According to the report, it would be possible to hold out only two days. A party of Cossacks. residents of Moukden, and the British Consul, had started for the relief of those besieged at the Danish mission. The situation at Tien Tsin, July 3, is said to have been most serious. Japanese and Russian forces are reported to have been hurrying there from Taku, but according to some accounts, mutual distrust exists between the allies.

A report from Shanghal, dated July 7, says the British warships are vigilantly watching for the purpose of preventing any attempt of the Chinese to cross the Yangtse Kiang.

THE NEWS IN WASHINGTON.

Consul-General Goodnow Also Reports the Ministers Safe.

WASHINGTON, July 7 .- A cablegram was received at the State Department this morning from Consul-General Goodnow, at Shanghal, dated July 7, saying that the legations were standing the 3d inst., and that recent attacks of the Boxers had been slight. They seemed disposed to adopt starvation methods.

The dispatch has revived hope to a measure that the legationers, or at least ome of them, are still alive in Pekin. Having survived at least two weeks longer than was supposed to be possible, they ing alive five days ago, the unfortunate Ministers and their staffs and guards may be still holding out. In fact, if the only thing they have to face is starvation, as Consul Goodnow now states, the officials elieve there is substantial ground for hope that the horrible stories of the last few days from Shanghai of nameless crimes and massacres committed upon the legationers are at least premature.

No one in Washington is more anxious to hear of the safety of the foreign legations in Pekin than Wu, the Chinese Minlater. He carefully reads every w the Chinese news that appears in the papers, and eagerly asks all the reporters who call upon him for the latest develnts. He also keeps in touch with officials in Washington and makes periodical visits to the State Department to as-

The issue today of formal orders for the dispatch to the East of more than $000 troops from the army posts in the United States was a manifestation of the energy with which the Government is now about to act in the Chinese matter. True, these troops are nominally destined for the Philippines to replace the volunteers now there, but it is admitted that they are being sent out by a route that will easily admt of deflection to Taku or some other convenient Chinese port. Possibly Consul-General Goodnow's cablegram may have something to do with this radical action. Whatever the case, if these troops are landed in China, together with the Ninth Infantry, suposed to be now at Taku and the marine contingent, the United States will have a force in action commensurate with her interests and in proportion to the European forces.

certain if any intelligence has come to Japan is to begin sending troops today with the full consent of Europe, and it is calculated that full foreign reinforcements, including our own, will arrive in Chins, if they are landed at all, in season to finish the work left by the Japanese. The orders today to the troops, it is be-lieved at the State Department, have an indirect, but most important bearing on the situation in China. Once the Viceroya of Central and Southern China become satisfied that the foreign legions are acted upon to take the warning to them-selves and continue to observe neutrality at least. Evidently Consul-General Goodnow's suggestion of yesterday has had its effect, for he pointed out himself the beneficial effects that the addition of troops to the soldiers now in China would

the Situation. LONDON, July 7,-By the average Brittaker the present situation in China is generally referred to as "a crime of the powers." This view is shared by almost everybody not connected with the foreign office. With the rumors that the helpless European women and children were tortured to death at Pekin, there has come home to all classes, all papers and all parties, a keen, sickening sense of Great Britain's helplessness. Some go even farther and describe Great Britain's attitude as an ignominy unequaled in her history. It must not be gathered that this self-criticism excludes equally severe criticism upon the other powers concriticism upon the other powers con-cerned. The preponderance of criticism is only directed against the home Government, in the hope that it will bring some result. The cry is, "What is the good of Lord Salisbury saying that the international understanding is harmony when that harmony will not let Japan step in and save the lives of our Minmen, women and children in his charge?

The events and rumors of the week have completely changed the public at-titude toward China. It is no longer a question of spheres of influence and the maintenance of British power in the far East, but it is a matter of saving human life if possible, and if that is baffled, an overwhelming desire for a speedy and terrible revenge. Emperor William's terrible revenge. Emperor William's stern invocation of vengeance has had a heartfelt echo in Great Britain, and there are indications that the Foreign Office is awakening to the strength of this feel-ing and is taking such steps that international harmony shall not in the future interfere with independent action when great emergencies arise.

The naval stations have become cen-ters of activity, and ships and troops are hurrying eastward. Parliament will be asked for an additional £1,000,000 for the Navy, and the inefficient vessels will be ordered to be struck off the efficient list. The attitude of the United States to-ward China is but little understood, and is generally believed to be entirely controlled by the political conditions of the ante-election period. It is hoped that Japan's star will now arise in the East and save the situation, and the popular demand is that whether or not Russia agrees Great Britain shall speedily make herself strong enough to unite with Japan, if the exigencies of the situation nand such action. The nation is tired "harmonious accord" that is barren of result. It is useless to speculate upon how far Lord Sallsbury will be able to meet this popular demonstration by means of the negotiations at present progressing, though hypotheses regarding their outcome fill countless columns in the British papers.

FRANCE IS WILLING. Tells Japan to Go Ahead and Stop the Trouble.

PARIS, July 7.—In the Chamber of Deputies today the Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. Del Casse, replying to a Deputy, said:

"Japan has expressed to us her desire to act in accord with the other powers and do nothing without them. France has informed the Japanese Government that it will see with pleasure the co-operation of Japan in the common

Del Casse dwelt upon the necessity of a perfect accord among the powers and declared that such accord really exists at the present time.

ORDERED TO CHINA. Two More British Warships About to Sail.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 7.-H. M. S. Arethusa, which left Vancouver yesterday, returning to Esquimalt, has received orders to proceed at once to China, sailing as soon as she can get coal, ammunition and stores aboard, probably Wednes-day next. She is an armored cruiser of the second class, built on practically the lines as the well-known Amphi and of about the same tonnage and speed, Her commander on the present commis-sion is Captain James Startin, who, in 1898, was in charge of the sensational Bo-nin expedition, in which sharp fighting was followed by complete victory to the British arms, the occupation of the rebellious state and the speedy restoration

The feeling of French statesmen is not very favorable to the idea of giving Japan mandate to quell the snarchy existing Northern China. There is not sufficient onfidence in the stability of Japan's civil confidence in the stability of Japan's civil-ization to entrust her with this mission, and it is ponted out that ant-foreign riots even occasionally occur in Japan. Once installen at Pekin, the Japaneae might be disposed to utilize their advan-tageous position to their own ends, which may not be entirely consonant with Western ideas.

SILVER-REPUBLICAN APPEAL.

Voters Called Upon to Support the Democratic Ticket. KANSAS CITY, July 7.—The Silver-Republican party today, by its executive committee, issued the following address:

BOAT WENT DOWN IN A STORM

Bad Seamanship Is Said to Have Been the Cause of the Accident.

CLEVELAND, O., July 7,-The schoones yacht Idler was lost in a terrific storm 18 miles off this port this afternoon, with six persons, all members of the family of James Corirgan, a wealthy vessel-owner of this city. The dead are:
Mrs. aJmes Corigan, wife of the owner of the yacht. Mrs. Charles Reilly, aged 22 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Corris

Miss Jane Corrigan, aged 20 years. Miss Ida May Corrigan, aged 15 years. Miss Etta Corrigan, aged 13 years, Baby Reilly.

Mrs. John Corrigan was the only pasenger aboard who was saved. Holmes, the captain; Samuel Biggam, the mate; four sallors, two cooks and the ship's carpenter were also saved. The yacht left Port Huron yesterday with the family of Mr. Corrigan aboard and started to Cleveland. Mr. Corrigan was ill, and left by the train. At 2 o'clock the storm came up, and inside of five minutes the yatch sank All the women, ex-cept Mrs. John Corrigan and Miss Etta Corrigan, were in the oabin when the gale came up. They became panick-atricken, and refused to leave the place. The men implored them to come to the deck, but they refused. Mrs. John Corigan clung to a cork sofa when the gale came, and was saved. When rescued, Biggam sald:

"It was about 2:05 o'clock when the squall struck us. The yatch laid down on her beam ends, and the water rushed through the deadlights and companionways, and in three minutes she sank. Mrs. James Corrigan, Miss Ida Corrigan, Miss Jane Corrigan, Mrs. Charles Reilly and the infant daughter of Mrs. Reilly were all in the saloon below when the storm came on us. Captain Holmes gave me orders to take in sail, and I transmitted the order to the men. They obeyed quickly. The captain, myself and the crew made efforts to save the women, but without success. We told them the yatche was sinking, but they could not or would not come on deck. I waded into the saloon when the water was up to my neck, but Mrs. aJmes Corrigan would not come out. She may have been rendered in-capable of action by fear and knowledge of the impending doom. An effort was made to take the infant daughter of Mrs. Reilly out, but Mrs. Reilly would not let the child go.

"It was realized that nothing could be done to save those in the cabin, and at-tention was turned to saving those on deck The latter, outside of the captain, mate and crew, were Mrs. John Corrigan and her daughter, Miss Lata Corrigan, The captain and the crew tried to get Mrs. Corrigan and her daughter up on the cross-trees in the rigging, but the heavy sea washed them all overboard.
"For God's sake, Mrs. Corrigan, you and your daughter keep a tight hold on the rigging," we called to them. "Even as we yelled the sea swept them and us overboard. Fortunately, Mrs. Corrigan had succeeded in taking hold of a cork lounge. She clung to it, and was saved."

According to the testimony of several sailors, the topsail, mainsail and fib were all set when the storm came up. This is denied by Biggam, who declares that they were in good condition to face the storm. Captain almes Corrigan declared tonight that good seamanship could have averted the tragedy. He is almost fren-zied with grief. The Idler was a stanch schooner yacht, which Captain Corrigan recently purchased from John Cudahy, of Chicago. The survivors of the wreck were picked up by tugs a few minutes after the accident and brought into this port.

The greatest demonstration of the day occurred this afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the Nebraska Traveling Men's Bryan Club called on the candidate. Mr. Bryan met them on the front porch. H. B. Tomson, president of the club, read the following address:

'Mr. Bryan, our friend and neighbor-We have just returned home from the National Democratic convention. Our party, consisting of the Traveling Men's Club, the Bryan Home Guards, Continental Guards and Hagenow's band, deaire to congratulate you upon your nomination by the great united Den ocracy to the highest office in the gift of the peo-ple. The platform which you stand on is all right; your running mate is Kentuckysleeper on the Santa Fe train as it arrived here. He shot himself through the born; he is a smooth rider and he is all head. A note was left addressed to his right, and you are all right. We take wife and children at Fullerton, saying he will find us all in the front rank of the
