SOME SOCIAL HAPPENINGS

Boise-Hawthorne Wedding Event of Fourth-of-July Week-Other Pleasing Functions.

"It," remarked a prominent member of Portland's "four hundred" (abstract three hundred and fifty, if you are bound to be accurate), with a scarcely perceptible shiver of aristocratic shoulders...

Still, in spite of the Summer exodus, somewhat delayed this season by rainy weather, the week has not been without interest. The regatta brought us visitors, the three days patriotic demonstrations brought us others...

Boise-Hawthorne Wedding.

Besides, there was a wedding of no small consequence, since it cements the union of two old and prominent Oregon families. I allude to the marriage of Mr. Whitney L. Boise and Miss Hawthorne, which took place Tuesday morning at half-past 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother in East Portland...

Higgins-Malney.

Married, at Butte, Mont., June 25, Rev. Father Baltin officiating, Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Higgins, of this city, to Mr. P. H. Higgins, a mining man of Butte. The wedding was one of the prettiest of the season in the Montana city. The bride wore a becoming tulle suit of light gray, with orange blossoms. The maid of honor wore white silk and carried pink roses. A marriage feast was given in Hilberton Hall in the evening, at which over 100 guests were seated.

John-Roberts.

A pretty wedding occurred last Sunday at 5 P. M. at the Taylor-Street Methodist Episcopal Church, when Sumner John, Jr., and Miss Myrtle Roberts were united in marriage by Rev. Dr. Kellogg. The bride wore a handsome white silk, with orange blossoms. The maid of honor wore white silk and carried pink roses. A marriage feast was given in Hilberton Hall in the evening, at which over 100 guests were seated.

Davis-Smith.

A pretty wedding occurred Tuesday at 3:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. I. S. Fuller, 146 Tenth street, when Mr. William W. Davis and Rebecca E. Smith were married in the presence of a party of friends. Dr. Blackburn officiating. After July 15 Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be at home at 550 Fifth street.

Bissner-McCarthy.

Mr. Albert Bissner and Mrs. Abbie McCarthy were married at St. James' Cathedral, Vancouver, on Friday, June 25. Mrs. Bissner is a handsome, white, light gray. After the ceremony the company partook of a wedding luncheon, after which Mr. and Mrs. John departed for the beach.

The wedding of Louis E. Steger, of the ALBANY FAMILY REUNION.

A. B. Griggs and Wife Entertain Their Relatives on the Fourth. A. B. Griggs and family, of Albany, Or., celebrated the Fourth by holding a family reunion. All of the children, single and married, with the husbands and wives of the latter, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, to the number of 24, attended.

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK IN PORTLAND AND AT OTHER PLACES.

A quiet home wedding took place at the home of Mrs. J. Leach, 146 Bancroft avenue, Wednesday, June 27, the contracting parties being Mr. J. Herbert Leach and Miss Dora Lambert, who were united in marriage by Rev. Dr. H. W. Kellogg, pastor of Taylor-Street Methodist Episcopal Church. The bride was beautifully attired in white, with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and anemones. The bridesmaid was Miss Josephine Leach, sister of the groom, and the best man was Mr. Ernest Stansbury, both he and the bridegroom having served together in the late Spanish War in Company H, of the Second Oregon Volunteers. The room where the ceremony was performed was prettily decorated with flowers and ivy. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, only the families and a few friends were present. After the ceremony the company adjourned to the dining-room, where a wedding lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Leach will reside at the corner of East Ninth and Davis streets, this city.

Wigman-Murphy.

A pretty home wedding took place Thursday evening, July 5, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Murphy, in Jefferson, Or., at which time Mr. Tyce Wigman, of Portland, and Miss Emma Murphy were united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Culver, of the Evangelical Church. During the ceremony, the wedding march was rendered. Miss Leila Hannigan and Miss Bessie Hearn, cousins of the bride, were the bridesmaids. The bride was attired in a two-colored, tailor-made suit, trimmed with white satin, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The house was decorated with roses, sweet peas and hydrangeas. There were present only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony, a dainty supper was served, and the newly-wedded couple left for a bridal tour through California. They will make Portland their future home. Mrs. Wigman is the niece of Mrs. T. Hannigan, of Portland. The groom is a business man of this city.

Loesch-Grueber.

A very quiet and pretty wedding occurred Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kuhn, 430 Washington street, the contracting parties being Mr. Charles Loesch, of San Francisco, Cal., and Miss Helen Grueber, of this city. The charming bride, who is a twin sister of Mrs. Kuhn, has been a resident of Portland for the past two years, and is well and favorably known in the city. Her wedding was a simple affair, but one of the most accomplished planned. Mr. and Mrs. Loesch left on the evening train for Yellowtown, Park, whence, after a brief visit, they will continue their journey and make an extended tour of Europe, before returning to San Francisco, their future home. Only the most intimate friends of bride and groom witnessed the ceremony.

Entertainments and Social Events

Here and Elsewhere. An enjoyable entertainment of Fourth of July week was a party given by Miss Ivy Pearl Scott, at her home on East Ninth and Brooklyn streets, this city, last Tuesday evening. The decorations, consisting of artistically arranged palms, roses and flags, called forth much favorable comment from the guests. Interesting games and good music formed the entertainment until a late hour, when supper was served.

the season by giving a launch party Sunday, July 1. Landing at Glasgow's Park, a bounteous lunch was served, and music and games were indulged in. The way home was marked by music, singing and feasting. The party landed at Morrison street.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered Mrs. Joseph Dellar, of Spokane, last week, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Rein, 64 Third street. Thirty couples attended, and "progressive whist," singing and dancing helped to pass the time. Many enjoyed themselves on the lawn, which was lighted with Japanese lanterns, singing the latest rag-time music and cakewalks. Supper was served at 10 P. M., after which the happy crowd departed, wishing Mrs. Dellar a pleasant visit and safe return. Mrs. Dellar thanks her many friends for the pleasure, and will long remember her Portland visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Nichols were presented at the last meeting of Camelia Chapter No. 2, Order of the Eastern Star of Upper Albina, with an elegant china tea set, in commemoration of the 20th anniversary of their marriage. Special festivities followed. Mrs. W. P. George, guardian neighbor, of Astra Circle, Woodson, of the World, left last week to join her husband at Dawson City, N. W. T. The members of the circle, at a recent meeting, tendered Mrs. George a farewell reception which was largely attended. Neighbor Long delivered a few appropriate remarks which were followed by a very interesting program. Refreshments and dancing concluded the evening's entertainment.
