WHERE SURFBEATS SHORE

Beason in Full Swing at Long Beach and the Various Other Senside Resorts-Mnny Visitors.

THE COAST, July 28.-There has been practically no ebb to the tide of travel at Long Beach during the entire month. Immigration during the past week has run as high as at any time during the season. All the cottages between Seaview and Tioga are now occupied, and those desiring this class of accommodations will be compelled to await the leavetaking of some of the present population. And this is talked of in very few pitious this year, and there is a large ritory adapted to that mode of living. The past week has witnessed a wonderful increase in the number of tents, and it is very evident that tent life is becoming dozen blazes dotted the beach within a mile or so. Around each fire was a jolly, good-natured gathering which would not allow time to drag heavily on its hands. Vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc., have helped furnish entertainment. Tany pulls" have also become popular. as the closing feature of these bonfire meetings, and it is needless to say that they are highly enjoyable.

Bathing continues to hold its popularity. The tides this week served very conveniently, and a whistle has been placed on one of the Long Beach bathhouses, in addition to a bell, to mark the bathing hour. Monday and Friday evenings have been set apart for dancing at Long Beach, the public hall being utilized for Long Beach Hotel Wednesday evening Professor Barle, drew a large crowd. The professor, who is certainly a clever performer in his line, is spending a few weeks at Long Beach, prior to his inbended departure for New York Baseball Holds Its Own.

The baseball fever still runs high, and every day is productive of an interesting game. The first Sunday in August the Long Beach team will play a match game at the beach with the Torpedo nine of ortland. A special train will be run om all beach points. Other amusements will be arranged for during the coming week. Croquet has many devotees, and the several grounds at the beach are seldom without players.

The members of "Shetland Camp" gave a musicale at Mrs. Hacheney's cottage Tuesday evening. Lawrence Selling was the star performer, and he was ably sup-ported by the Misses Best and Blidner. George E. Houghton, Al Caswell, Bert' Staver, E. N. Stemme and James Dow-The evening's performance concluded with a dance.

Those present were: B. Allen, Mrs. A. isher, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robinson, Miss A. Best, Miss C. Melme, Harry Allen, Geo William Souls, Al Caswell, Scott, Miss May Hagadorne, Miss Edith Forbes, Nye Kern, M. Creigh-ton, M. Shen, E. M. Ocean Park.

The number of people taking their Summer outing at Ocean Park is greater than ever before. All the cottages are occupied. There are double the usual number of campers, and the indications are that this number will be doubled again during the season. Ocean Park "clam center" of the amount of the luscious bivalves to points down the coast, and not a few persons journey here from Seaview, Long Beach and Tioga to enjoy the sport of The past week has been very favorable for the industry.

Aside from driving and bathing, which are to be classed as standard beach amusements, the time through the day is largely taken up with match croquet games. Boutires hold full sway during

Dr. Gertrude E. Lamberson, who left for Portland Wednesday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Heidford, Dr. Gertrude E. Lamberson, the Miases Niceit, Sheidon, Payne, Bybee, Fisher and Stearns, and Messra. Loomis, Parker, Hannawalt, Reidford, Bottsford and Reewis.

AT THE

An immense bonfire was built on the beach Tuesday evening, in honor of Mrs. T. V. Dunn, of Portland, and the Misses T. V. Dunn, of Portland, and the Misses Silcocks, of Scaview, who are visiting Mrs. Eva R. Dudley, at Ocean Park. Singing and merrymaking were induiged in until a late hour, and several pounds of pinoche were disposed of. Those present were: E. H. Habighorst and wife, Professor Durrette and wife, Mrs. T. V. Dunn, Mrs. Eva R. Dudley, Mr. Builivant and family, Miss C. Prehn, Miss Edna Habighorst, the Misses Silcocks, the Misses Habighorst, Mias Luciel Dudley, Clark Hay, Judge Stearns, F. M. The migration to the Coast during the past week has been one of the heaviest of the season. All the seaside cottages the number of campers is something re-markable. The first week of the coming month, however, is looked upon to de-velop the greatest movement of the year. The weather would admit of no improvement. The temperature has been just right to incite a great desire for bathing, and the surf has run high, thus granting the most desired conditions for the pastime. The evenings have been marked by the same pleasant conditions Clam Digging. The tides were extremely low during the week, and proved very favorable to the digging of clams. The clams are very large this season, and epicureans proounce them of a superior flavor. Gearmrt beach is the best ground for bivalves. Crabs have been scarce; the winds have been in the wrong direction to drive them towards shore. The week has been marked by no formal social functions.
