China Trying to Delaythe Day of Retribution.

PLOT TO GAIN TIME

Paper Against New York Immigration Officials.

LONDON, July 28 .- This week of rumors, edicts and Chinese protestations by the score ends with England as firmly convinced as ever that the foreign Minlaters at Pekin have been massacred. Not only that, but in the determined attempts on the part of the Chinese authorities to nvince the world of the truth of their assertions, prominent organs of public opinion are unanimous in seeing a des-perate plot on the part of the Chinese Government to delay the day of retribu-tion in the hope that the powers will become embrolled among themselves. The Chipese declarations have, in fact, aggra-vated rather than ameliorated the feeling

Architald Ross Colguobon, the distin-guished correspondent of the Times dur-ing the Franco-Chinese War of 1851-54, in an able review of the situation technically, declares cortain amount of risk." Bernard Shaw comes out with a scath-ing protest against retailation, such as the suggested execution of Prince Tuan, the razing of Chinese cities, etc., "which." Mr. Shaw sever "characterize the most the razing of Chinese cities, etc., "which," Mr. Shaw says, "characterize the most horrible, cowardly mobocracy that can be imagined. Revenge under any extremi-ties of provocation must be absolutely barred.

Quietly but steadily Japan's three war vessels building at Elswick are being pushed toward completion. The Idsumo, a powerful armored cruiser, is nearly ready, and 600 Japanese sailors are aboard of her, patiently waiting the word to sail. The average opinion is that they will be needed for a deadlier conflict than the suppression of the Boxers. Even the unvaried and conflicting to enable the pow-ers indefinitely to preserve the thin ice of harmony on which they are standing at present. With the shipment of men to the China Sea comes the need of monsy. European nations must have more gold. "It will becomes necessary," says the Statist, "to raise the value of money in London to a point where gold will be attracted from hysterical Spectator this week pessimist-ically inclines to the belief that the in-point where gold will be attracted from the United States, and unless the Bank of England affords facilities to import, the rate will have to rise to a comparatively high figure before gold arrives. On the other hand, if the bank is willing to give facilities, early exports of gold from the United States may occur. The arrival of two or three millions of gold from New York would greatly facilitate the issue of British and other governmnt loans. That the United States can spare a considerable amount of gold is certain."

A serious attack has been made in the ns of the Express against the treatment of emigrants arriving at New York. The paper sent a representative in the steerage of the steamer La Champagne, who, in the course of a series of articles entitled "The Closed Door," has been givling English readers vivid pictures of the horrors of a steerage passage. The wri-ter, however, chiefly devotes himself to the alleged brutality and corruption of officials at the Barge Office and on Ellis Island. The latter, the writer describes Island. The latter, the writer describes as a prison where he maintains emigrants are beaten and abused worse than cattle. The Eilis Island wardens are called "the dirtiest ruffians in New York." Medical The Ellis Island wardens are called "the dirtiest ruffians in New York." Medical examination of emigrants, it is alleged, is made without any regard to theory or principles of hygiens. The reporter save the invincibles. Mullet and Fitzharris, ware a good deal better treated than other emigrants, not excluding feeble wom en and childrea. He gives numerous in stances with names. An idea of the at-tack can be gained from the following account of a supper on Ellis Island: "We passed in a long line around the A man with filthy hands filled our hats or handkerchiefs with moldy prunes. Another thrust two lumps of bread in our hands. Supervising the distribution there was a foul-monthed Rowery tough, who danced upon the table and poured forth upon us torrents of obscene, blasshemous abuse. I saw him drag an old man, a long-bearded Polish Jew, past the barrel of prunes by the hair on the face. I saw him kick another emigrant, a German, on the head with a heavy boot." The Express writer believes that if the steamship companies were compelled by the Legislature to refund to the deported emigrants the entire sum spent in the journey, agents would soon cease to embark people who obviously have no pos sible chance of acceptance.

Quite a burning question is whether Lady Bandolph Churchill will retain that name or be known as Mrs. West. It sppears that everywhere, except at court, she may retain her present name, but when pre-sented to the Queen it must be as plain Mrs. West. By her re-marriage, she forfeits none of the fortune left by her first husband, which chiefly consists in a life interest in $50,000. This at her death goes to her sons. The contents of Sir Claude McDonald's subsequent telegrams are already known. July 7 Lord Sallsbury notified the Viceroys, through a communication to the Chinese Minister, that they would be held personally responsible should any injury having extended so rapidly the treaty powers, suspecting the rioters might have been encouraged by the Imperial Gov-ernment, attacked and occupied the Taku forts. The sufferings arising from this act of hostility have been great, and the situation is much involved. In consider-ation of the fact that of the foreign commerce of China more than 70 per cent be-longs to England, that the Chinese tariff is lower than that of any other country, and the restrictions thereon fewer, British merchants have, during the last few dec-

the situation having thus changed for the worse, it is felt that if China cannot be supported in maintaining her position, foreign nations, looking on so large and populous a country, so rich is natural respoil it and perhaps differ among themselves with respect to their conflicting interests. It is evident that this will create a state of matters that would be advantageous to Great Britain, a country which views commerce as her greatest interest. China is now engaged in raising men and means to cope with these event-ualities, but she feels that if left to herself she might not be equal to the occa sion, should it ever arise, and, therefore, turns to England in hope of procuring her

From the opening of the siege, the embassy guards occu-pled and held a portion of the city wall, and from this bastion commanded the open spaces around the British and Rus-sian inclosures, and also prevented artil-

tion" is the message one agency brings from the British Consul-General at Shanghal to overwrought Europe, while an-other asserts that as a week has elapsed without a reply to the Consul's message o the British Minister at Pekin, Sir laude MacDonald, through the Tsung li Yamun, the bellef is confirmed that the Chinese official reports are only to gain time, and that if the Ministers are alive they are held as hostages.

As commentators pertinently remark, if here is an atom of truth in all the Chinese asseverations, the officials have only a supply the Legations, not with vege-tables, but with the telegraph forms. Definite news of any kind is scarce. The report comes from Shanghai that business has been resumed at the Port of New Chwang, and that a second Japanese division is mobilizing at Tokio prepara-tory to embarkation for China.

Through a Yokohama dispatch the gov-ernment has received information that Chinese attacked a body of Japanese and Coreans in the vicinity of An Tong (on the north.side of the Yanu River). Befugees had arrived at Wiju. Japanese roinforcoments were proceeding to the scene of conflict The latest news received at St. Petersburg from Blagovestchensk was dated July 22. The Russian garrison had been resupplied with ammunition, and would be able to hold out until reinforced. The Chinese legation here reiterates the assertion that the Ministers are on route to Tien Tsin.

THE PEKIN TRAGEDY.

Story Told by a Banker Who Escaped.

All the foreigners had disappeared, and he could not say positively if they had been murdered, as he was too frightened to incutes to The Mail's correspondent proceeded:

"Investigations prove this information is reliable. The banker in question has gone to Ting Po. His friends will not disclose his name, fearing that to do so would cause him to lose his head.

The manager of the Russian Bank of Shanghai has received a letter from the bank's New Chwang branch, stating that one of their Chinese representatives from Pekin who had just arrived, confirmed the report of the Pekin massacre. He states that all the foreign Ministers were mu dered. Seeing death was inevitable as the Chinese swarmed into the legations, the Ministers killed their families at the last moment. Sir Robert Hart, in despair, committed suicide."
