STREET FAIR AND GRAND CARNIVAL

Under the auspices of Portland Lodge No. 142, B. P. O. E.

SEPTEMBER 4 TO 15

King Rex and Her Majesty the Queen, attended by their royal court, in all the magnificence of the Middle Ages, will arrive up the river from the mystic unknown, on one of the palatial river steamers, Tuesday, September 4, at 1 P. M. They will be met at the wharf and escorted through the city by the grandest and most imposing pageant ever seen in the Northwest. Arriving at the

BEAUTIFUL ENTRANCE ARCH, the gates of the fair will be thrown open, revealing a scene of bewildering beauty and grandeur, of which the following are a few features:

The Grain Palace

A towering structure, built of Oregon Grains and Grasses, filled with the Fruits, Vegetables, Minerals and other products of the most prolific state in the Union.

The Women's Building

A marvel of beauty and a monument to the genius of women. Designed by women, built by women, decorated by women for the exhibition of women's handwork.

Industrial Street

Four solid city blocks of the manufacturing and mercantile products of the state houses in separate booths of unique design, illuminated with 10,000 electric lights.

Temple of Music

The crowning feature of the Fair, an architectural triumph, spanning Washington street, the busiest thoroughfare of the city, and giving a magnificent panorama view of the entire Fair. Music by Brown's Famous Military Band.

The Midway

A gorgeous spectacle of Oriental splendor. The world's greatest Midway attractions. The Streets of All Nations, The Streets of India, The Streets of Cairo. The greatest of all animal shows.

Dancing girls, whirling Dervishes, genuine Turks, Oriental jugglers, Arabian tumbler, dancing bears and hundreds of sensational novelties from the Far East.

Grand Carnival Ball

This great and glorious festival of music, gaiety and fun to conclude with a

In honor of the King and Queen, to be attended by their entire court on masques.

Bring the Whole Family.

Something to Interest All Ages and All Classes.
