CARNIVAL DRAWETHNEAR

Will Give Excase for Wearing New Clothes-Wakefield Ten Lending

Fenture of the Week,

Threatening skies and a south wind, laden with dampness, are not conducive to comfort at the seaside, or in the mountains, and the pleasure-seeking public is turning its face cityward again. The regatta, in spite of the usual rain, atracted a considerable crowd to Astoria by the sea. But now that it-for this season at least-is as much a thing of the past as an empty bonhon box, the coming Carnival is looming up large and near.

That long-heralded public function can be made an excuse for new clothes, and modistes are already busy with orders that foreshadow a dress parade on the part of society, somewhere about the first week in September.

The monotony of the week was most The monotony of the week was most delightfully disturbed by Mrs. Du-ron W. Wakeheld's tea at the Hobsert-Carits Thursady afternoon from 3 to 5. This pleasing func-tion, to which over 400 invitations were insued, was given in honor of Mrs. Wake-field's daughter, Mrs. Walker, who ex-pects to leave Portland, in the near future, to take up her residence in San Francisco. The parlors of the Hobart-Curtis never looked more mylting than on the afternoon of this reception. The The relatives and immediate friends of such roses! Not mere cut stems, with one, or two, or three blooms to boast of, but great branches of glorious, revisiting Blossons, fragrant as the gardens of Damascus. In the hall masses of sweet palms. After the ceremony the invited guests accompanied the newly wedded couple to their home on East Twenty-seventh street, where a delicious colla-tion was served on the spacious inwn, which was illuminated for the evening with Japanese interns.

Franklin-Freedman.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized last Sunday, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Freedman, the contracting parties being Miss Annie dman and Mr. David Franklin; Rev. Mr. Abrahamson officiated. The bride was daintily attired in white organile, en-train, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmolds were Miss Rosa Freedman and Miss Rac Garlinkle, of Seattle. The bride's bouquet was caught by the mail of honor, Miss Gertrude Freedman; the best man was Mr. Charles Franklin. Many costly presents were rs. celved, also many tolegrams of congrat-ulation. Mr. J. M. Albert was toast-master. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin left the same evening for the Sound. Mr. Abrahamson officiated. The bride was Smith-Sterling.

A pretty wedding was celebrated in

Grace Church Thursday evening August 20, immediately at the close of the prayer meeting. The contracting parties were Mr. Alfred Smith and Mrs. Julia G. H. Sterling, both of San Francisco. They were attended at the altar by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jenkins, of this city. The birds was handsomely gowned in light brown satin and carried a large bunch of white roses. After the impressive cer-emony, which was performed by Rev. H. D. Atchison, the newly wedded pair received the congratulations of many of the compression Theorem and make their the congregation.
