TAX MONEY TURNED IN—Sheriff Fraser turned the sum of $4,000 in to the County Treasurer yesterday, as a result of a collection of taxes of the year 1900. This will enable the Treasurer to make a call of warrants this week, and cancel all that were issued previous to January 1, 1900.

AS GOOD AS A GOVERNMENT BOND—At-lington, Or., October 29, 1900—Union Mutual Aid Society, of this city, has received $100 from October 11 to 21, inclusive, it was totally disabled by a severe attack of gastritis and enteritis from performing my usual duties as secretary for $25 was mailed from here October 22, and check which I have received today bears date the 21st. This is certainly prompt payment, and the best kind of protection, and I consider my certificate in the society as good as a Government bond for the benefits guaranteed.

HAD COGNAC ON FIRE STREET—First street, south from Madison, at the corner of Sheridan street, is covered with a coating of this mud several inches deep, and the crossings are generally impassable for pedestrians as a consequence. The street was torn up last summer for the purpose of putting down double street-car tracks, and the old macadam was thus left loose on the ground, and it is a very important thoroughfare, and the heavy traffic has ground the soft, loose stones to a consistency of batter, by the aid of the frequent showers. There is considerable complaint over the mud in consequence, but no move has yet been made toward a new pavement.

DEATH OF L. FELDMANN—A telegram was received last evening by Willis Fisher, of this city, announcing the death of L. Feldmann, of San Francisco. Mr. Feldmann was the senior member of the firm of L. Feldmann & Co., and was one of the best-known business men on this coast, having been in the wholesale wood and mill-wares business in San Francisco and Portland for the past 25 years. He also had large business interests in Sydney, N. S. W. The cause of death was cancer of the stomach, of which he had been a sufferer for the past 18 months.

MONEY FROM BLANKET LICENSE—Blanket licenses are being cheerfully paid by Portland business men, and ready the sum of $500 has accumulated in the city's strong box from this source. It is expected that between $1000 and $12,000 per quarter will be collected when the law is fully under way and every one interested has contributed his share. The money will not be spent in new ventures but will be carefully hoarded to meet interest payments on the city's bonded indebtedness. A realization of the necessity of such a law prevent complaint.

HAS TURNED RAILROADER—George H. Maxwell has dropped college education and newspaper work to follow in the footsteps of his father, A. L. Maxwell, who succeeded as a railroadier. He has been appointed city passenger agent of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company at Seattle and leaves tonight to assume the duties of the new position. The railroad colony over there are to be congratulated upon this accession to their ranks.

A full attendance is desired, as the legislative bill, prepared by a joint committee of the library department and the library committee of the State Federation, will be presented for discussion at this meeting.

MINISTERS' MEETING—The monthly meeting of the Portland Ministers' Association will be held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Monday morning, November 5, at 10:30 o'clock. The programme will be one of unusual timeliness and interest. Revs. Alex. Blackburn, Huber Ferguson, and William R. Lord will speak on election issues. All ministers are urged to be present.

The water cure, osteopathy, massage, Swedish movements and physical culture are adopted in our system, and by which many have been restored to health. Nervous diseases a specialty. Hamilton building, 131 Third street.

BRICK INSTEAD OF FRAME—A frame building at 20 Washington street has been torn down to make room for a one-story brick, to be erected by A. Lyon. The adjoining frame, at No. 212, is also booked for removal to make way for a one-story brick, to be built by Thomas McNamee.

WASHING BY THE POUND—At the request of a number of our patrons we have established a rough dress department, and are now prepared to do that class of work in any quantity. For particulars ring up Grant 411. Electric Laundry Company, 12 Fifth.

WILL KEEP OPEN ELECTION NIGHT—Clerk Holmes, of the County Court, will keep his office open Tuesday night to receive the ballot boxes, tally sheets, etc., from precincts which have completed the count. The office will be open until midnight.

VOTING PLACE CHANGED—The County Commissioners yesterday changed the polling place for precinct 15 in the Ninth Ward. It will be at 10 Grand avenue, corner East Washington, instead of 222 Grand avenue.

FULL ELECTION RETURNS will be received by direct wire at the Portland Club, 130 Fifth street, commencing on Tuesday, November 6, at 3 P. M. All are cordially invited. Election propositions.

REMOVED BACK TO CHURCH—The Presbytery of Portland at the Friday meeting sent the McLean resignation back to the church in the hope that the church and Mr. McLean can unite on some plan. Mr. McLean was not clear in his own mind what his duty was, and it was thought after consideration in his own mind and what was said by the presbytery, he may see his way to work more clearly. The presbytery hesitated to take action when the church was opposed to his removal, and he was not decided what he desired to do. A delegation of about 25 of his members was present, all asking that he be allowed to remain.

MAY BE HEIR TO A FORTUNE—Francis Trevor, a baker and grocer, of Portland, has suddenly left Saturday for Syracuse, N. Y., to consult attorneys, from whom he received information that he was heir to a fortune. Trevor is an Englishman by birth, and the estate to which he is supposed to be heir was that of a brother in England, and Trevor's share was put at $70,000. Before he left he sold his business, and there is now litigation over its possession between the claimants and several parties to whom Trevor was held to be in debt.

TO HELPERS RETURNS—The Meier & Frank Co. have arranged to throw the election returns on a screen opposite their store the night of election for the benefit of the public. A special wire will be run to the store, and a searchlight across the street will throw a light on the returns as they are bulletined. A cartoonist has been employed to illustrate the returns, and as they come in, and the information will be free to the public generally.

PLEASE RETURN THE FLAGS—Through mistake, six large flags used in the Republican demonstration last evening were not returned to the Tabernacle. The committee is anxious to obtain the flags, which were borrowed from friends for the occasion, and will be glad to receive them at the Tabernacle tomorrow evening.

Extract From "Looking Backward." "It appears to me, Miss Leste," I said, "that if we could have devised an arrangement providing everybody with music in their homes, perfect in quality, unlimited in quantity, suited to every mood, and beginning and ceasing at will, we should have considered the limit of human felicity already attained, and cease to strive for further improvement."

This reads like an Aeolian advertisement, for it certainly describes the Aeolian. The completeness with which Edward Bellamy's prophecy for the 21st century has been realized at the present day is evidenced by the unbounded satisfaction of all Aeolian and Pianola patrons.

M. B. WELLS, Northwest Agent for the Aeolian Company. Aeolian Hall, 353-355 Washington Street, cor. Park, Portland, Or.

The Aeolian and the Pianola are on exhibition at our warehouses, and should be heard even if there is no present intention of purchasing.

Critical Examination

Of the Kimball Piano will demonstrate that conscientious care is given to every detail in its construction. Nothing short of the highest degree of perfection will satisfy the manufacturer. The Kimball is made in one of the largest factories in the world, where system, skill, brains, economy and artistic musical ability are combined. This enables the makers to supply fine high-grade instruments at most reasonable prices.

We are sole agents for the sale of these beautiful pianos, and are receiving them daily in large shipments, three cases being unloaded by us this week, two more cars-loads are en route, and due to arrive next week, and the balance of our holiday stock of Kimball Pianos will arrive at the rate of two cars-loads per week. Thus all intending purchasers will surely have the advantage of a full stock to select from at our warehouses.
