spending the week with Mrs. Ireland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cooper.

The ladies of the Methodist Church will give a chrysanthemum fair at the operation of the control of the contro The Independence Whist Club met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Goodman on Friday evening. The prize winners for the week were: Mrs. J. A. C. Brant and Mr. G. W. Kutch; Mrs. L. Damon and Mr.

Pendleton.

Mrs. C. E. Roosevelt is visiting in Wal-

Mrs. Max Baer and small son have returned from Portland. Mrs. Susan Welch is up from Portland for a few weeks' visit Miss Effic Jean Frazier has returned from a visit to Portland. H. E. Bickers, of Salem, was a Pendie con vistor during the week. Miss Combi Ruley has returned from three months' trip to Europe. Mrs. W. G. Shults and son have gone on a visit to Wallace, Idaho, and Spo.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cohen spent Sunday in Walia Walia, guests of Mr. Cohen's sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Theron E. Fell had in a in this city, during the week few friends on Monday evening to meet Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Cook. six years, and Conrad McNamer, after one year's absence, have returned. Mrs. Mary E. Heague and Miss Maud Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas expect to leave Pendleton soon for Medford, where will remain permanently. Rev. Buchanan, of the Presbyterian Church, has resigned, and will leave Pen-dleton soon, to engage in work elsewhere. Mrs. J. Overturf and daughters, Miss. Edith and Grace Crockett, have re-moved to Pendieton, where they will spend the Winter. spend the Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Halley gave a dinner party Saturday. Their guests were
Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Cook, Miss M. C.
Roberts and Mr. E. H. Clarke.
Mrs. F. J. Donaldson, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J.
Matlock for Matlock, for the past few months, has gone to her home in Sandon, B. C.

Corvallis.

Mrs. L. L. Porter has returned to her home in Oregon City. Miss Pauline Kline has been visiting in Portland for the past 10 days.

land Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Cowls returned last week Miss Helen Stelwer has been visiting Selem friends for the past week. from a two weeks' visit in Sheridan.

Mrs. O. G. Estes returned last week from an extended visit in Eastern Ore-Harry Ladd, of Arlington, visited Corvallis friends the first of the week.

The Episcopal ladies gave a pleasant social at the home of Mrs. J. L. Jones, Saturday evening. The Sorosis Literary Society, at O.

was delightfully entertained by the Peronian Society, Saturday evening. At their meeting Saturday afternoon, the Native Daughters had a pleasant social time. A programme was rendered, and refreshments were served.

A social club was organized Menday A social club was organized Monday afternoon, with a good membership. Only Indies of the Coffee Club are eligible to membership. Parties are to be given every alternate Friday evening, the amusements to be cards and dancing-Miss Bertha Davis is president, and Miss Clara Fischer secretary of the new society.

be given at Cauthorn Hall, November 16, to the ladies of Alpha Hall and others. There are 75 boys at Cauthorn Hall and all seems to be peaceful and quiet in that neighborhood. Alpha Hall numbers not so many girls, but they make up the lack by overflowing hilarity.

Oregon City.

D. W. Kinnaird, accompanied by Mrs. Kinnaird, has returned from California. The Misses Jennie and Carrie Galbreath. ecently of Albany, have become perma-cent residents of this city.

Mrs. J. B. Robinson and sons, who were visiting her mother, Mrs. E. L. Cochrane, left Sunday for their home at Sacramento, Mrs. A. Goldsmith, of Eugene, who was visiting her daughters, Mrs. M. Bollack and the Misses Goldsmith, has returned

Hal Rands laft Thursday for Ithaca, N. T., where he expects to complete his course of studies in Cornell University, during the present school year Miss Fannie B. Wertz and Carl W. Borchert, both of Portland, were married Wednesday afternoon at the First Methdist Episcopai Church, Rev. R. A. Atkins officiating. The Men's Club of the Congregational Church, will have their first social supper next Monday evening. Hon. Stephen A. Lowell, of Pendieton, will be the speaker of the evening. Sola Circle, Women of Woodcraft, gave a reception at Willamette Hall Tuesday evening to the members of the Woodmen of the World and their wives. A musical and literary programme was presented and refreshments were sorved, followed Troutdale.

The Whist Club apent a pleasant even-ing at Mrs. Branham's last Friday. Mr. Walter Cate and family have re-J. H. Douglass and family have re turned from a fortnight's visit to Dr. Me-serve, at Helena. Mrs. E. Snow entertained the ladies of the Fairview Missionary Committee Thursday afternoon, November 8.

Miss Edith Cooke, who has been Mrs. G. R. Shaw's guest for two months, has returned to her home at Clackamas. Rev. A. L. Hawley, of Portland, lec-tured to a large audience in Smith Me-morial Church Monday evening. November 5, under the auspices of the Y. P. S.

The lodge of Artisans at Fairview held a charming reception Thursday evening, November 3, in honor of Miss May Cham-berlain, who is going to live at Hood River. Games, suppor and a musical programme were much enjoyed.

Hillaboro.

Issue Ennis has returned from his trip T. Macartney and family have gone to Grant's Pass to reside.

Herman Schulmerich has returned from a visit to his mines near Sumpter. the guest of his sister, Mrs. Riley H. F. Behrens, of Portland, visited Tuesday with his sister, Mrs. Nellie Northrop. Newton Norris, of Goldendale, Wash., was in the city Wednesday, visiting with W. D. Ewing.

R. A Atkine and wife, of Oregon City, were in the city Tuesday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Connell.

Albany. Attorney J. R. Wyatt has returned from Charles Casey and wife have gone to California to reside. H. R. Saltmarsh is home on visit from Scattle.

Mr. C. B. Winn has returned from a three months' visit in the East. The Rebekahe gave Mrs. E. A. Parker a pleasant surprise on her 80th birthday, last week. A pleasant surprise party was given last Monday svening to B. A. Stafford and wife, at their residence on Second

Last Thursday evening was the retir-ing season of Grand Master J. K. Weath-ford, and in honor of the event he and the lady Rebekahs tendered a banquet as a surprise to the members of Albany Lodge, No. 4, L O. O. F.

Porest Grove.

Rev. J. W. Spangler is visiting at Nes John Elbner has returned after a year's

Mr. Claud Lowrey, after an absence of Sikes, after a four years' residence at Geneya, Neb., have returned here to re-

Mr. John Paul and wife, of Newton

Center, Mass., after a short stay with Rev. M. D. Dunning, left last Monday

Mrs. J. F. Griswold gave a supper Wednesday night to the Ladies' Working Society of the Congregational Church. Savaral gentlemen attended.

Mrs. C. G. Wagner and son, John, have returned from Aberdeen, and Met Wag-ner, from Rainier, and Ed Catching, from Baker City, and John M. Garrison, from Eastern Oregon.

McMinnville.

Mr. H. B. Reed left Thursday for San

Dell Warren returned home from Port-

Mrs. H. L. Boardman and daughter re-

urned home Monday from a month's vis-

George Murton, of Portland, who has been visiting his brother here, returned home Tuesday.

Miss Grace Sutherland has returned home, after spending two weeks with friends in Portland.

The Musical Club met Wednesday even-

The new Reading Club of the Y. P. S.

C. E. of the Presbyterian Church, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neison Wednesday evening.

A pleasant social was given at the Christian Church in the lecture-room Friday evening. A good programme was rondered after which supper was served.

It was one of the most unique affairs of Junetion City.

Mrs. Fred Cook has returned home from

E. U. Lee returned to his home in Eugene, after a brief visit in Junction.

Mrs. R. White, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Elia Benham, in Cot-tage Grove, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Skipworth visited relatives and friends in Albany and Leb-anon the latter part of the week.

Grace Parker, who is attending High School at Eugene, is visiting her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. White, in Junc-tion.

The Degree of Honor of Junction gave a

Halloween party last Wednesday even ing. There were a number of guests pres-ent from Eugene and Harrisburg lodges. After the programme an elegant banquet

Medford.

Mrs. J. Osborne, who has been visiting ing with Miss Taway. An interesting

Wills-Buchanan

for California.

it to Eugene.

evening was speni.

a visit at Pleasant Hill.

was served.

Portland Tuesday,

The meeting last week of the Whist Club was held at the home of Mrs. Herman Fuchs. The booble prize went to Mrs. Hamberger and Dr. W. L. Parker, stay in the Klondike. J. B. Eddy has returned from his tour through Eastern Oregon. Miss Bertha Share, of Portland, is visand the consolation prise to Mrs. Doniting with her family at Mountaindale.

A Symphony Club, of 40 members, was organized here last week by Mrs. Nellis Baker City Elks are preparing for their opening balk to be given Thursday, No-vember 2. All social work of the order is halled with pleasure, as success stamps everything taken up. The opening ball will be one of the finast of the season. Wills-Buchanan.

Governor T. T. Geer and wife were the guests of Senator E. W. Haines and
W. H. Shipley, Priday
Miss Hattle Kreider gave a party to several of her friends Tuenday evening.
An enjoyable time was had.
Hon. M. A. Miller and wife of Lebanon, were visitors at the home of C. F Miller, in this city, during the week Mrs. Dr. J. W. Ashford, of Canyon City, is visiting Mrs. Dr. O. M. Dodson and other old-time friends of Baker. Dr. Ashford formerly lived in Baker City, and was Dr Dodson's partner. Mrs. Ashford's stay is made very pleasant by calls and dinners. At the residence of Mrs. C. I. Flynn, the At the residence of Mrs. C. I. Fiynn, the Baker City High Five Club celebrated halloween. Unique decorations of jack-o'-lasterns were among the most striking features. The usual club games were indulged in, resulting in the booble prize going to Mrs. F. W. Eppinger and H. S. Bowen, and the head prizes to Mr. and Mrs. James Goodwin.

Hon. George C. Barrett, of Granite, was isiting friends in Baker the past week.

Roseburg. Miss M. L. Sutton has gone to Port-

Jep Green returned Baturday from a Mrs. Hallie Jones Wallace, of Astoria, s visiting relatives here.

A. Boddish left Tuesday for Iows, after an extended visit here.

Mrs. S. D. Willis returned Tuesday from an extended visit in Portland. Mrs. Ed S. Elliott, of Portland, visited friends here during the week. Dr. Cable went to Brownsville Friday. month's visit with his daughter in Mis-

Miss Myra Stanton, after a visit with her brother here, has returned to he home in Wasco. James A. Willey and wife and daughter, of Belle Plaine, Ia., arrived Tuesday, and are visiting Mrs. Ray C. Brown.

Duncan Harris returned to McMinnville after a year's absence in Nome, to visit friends.

Mrs. H. L. Boardman and daughter re-

Woodburn.

Miss Eva Dennis spent Wednesday and Thursday in Portland. Mrs. W. A. Leonard and little daughter are guests of Portland relatives. Dr. M. G. McCorkle took Wednesday's train for Portland, returning Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. H. Bair, of Canby, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Boott, the latter part of last week.

S. I Guiss and family visited relatives in Salem from Tuesday evening until Wednesday evening of this week.

NORTH OF THE COLUMBIA. Walla Walla.

Misses Lottie and Ada Goodhue are visiting in Portland. W. H. Reed came over from Tacoms early in the week.

Mrs. George LaDue is visiting relatives at Lewiston.

The High Five Club were entertained Friday by Mrs. John Dooley.

Mrs. I. Harris, of Olympia, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Samuel Lesser.

Mrs. C. E. Roosevelt, of Pendleton, is visiting her mother, Mrs. William Stine.

Glenn Butler, of Monmouth, who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. A. R. Martin, has returned home. Frank Dement and wife have returned from visiting Portland and Puget Sound. Dr. M. A. Nelms and bride, nee Scott, of Portland, have returned to the city. H. V. Fuller and wife have moved to their new suburban residence south of

Mr. Ben F. Goldman is to be married in Portland, November 18 to Miss Cora Koshland. Mrs. C. B. Unton 'entertained a number of her friends with cards on Thursday Miss Josephine Paine will leave in few days for New York City, to enter an art school.

Medford.

Attorney W. H. Parker returned from from a two months' visit with friends in California and Portland. Mrs. Louis Hart and Mrs. M. Lentz, of MIRROR SCENE IN "A HOT OLD TIME," AT CORDRAY'S.

Miss Lillie Tressler returned from Port-land Tuesday, where she has been visit-ing Portland friends.

Mrs. J. G. Taylor returned from Port-land Saturday, where she went to meet her mother, Mrs. A. Glass, of Glasston, Mrs. C. F. Casey, of Albany, is visiting her sister. Mist Tessie Saltmarsh, here, and her younger sister and relatives in Jacksonville.

Frank Ward and daughter returned to their home in Bookford, Ill., after a several weeks' visit with H. G. Wortman and family. Mr. Ward is interested in the Bill Nys Mining & Milling Company. The Misses Bhinehart and Cox gave the Victoria, B. C., are visiting their brothers, Albert and Jesse Cohen. W. S. Gilliam, an Oregon ploneer, of the vintage of '44, has returned from his first visit to his old Missouri home. William Jones made one of his cal visits to his old Walla Walla home from Tacoma, during the week. Miss Bva Switzler has come up from Switzler's Island for the Winter, She is the guest of Mrs. A. S. Bowies. Margaret's Boclety entertained their friends at the recitation-roo St. Paul's School Friday evening. Vancouver.

Mrs. W. W. McCredie entertained about b ladies at High Five on Tuesday night.

OLDS & KING

Ladies' Handkerchiefs

A burgain chance for Christmas gifts. A large purchase of pure lines, hem-stitched handkerchiefs brings you those very special prices:

the handkerchiefs, now 1 for Se. Se handkerchiefs, now 1 for Se. Se handkerchiefs, now 1 for Se. Se handkerchiefs, now 1 for Se.

Handsome Laces Dr. C. Faull, who has been in Portland with his wife much of late, returned to Baker election day, and immediately afterwards went back to Portland. Reduced Fashion mays laces for dress trimmings this season. There's style and quality in these Arabian and Venise net top laces; cream or soru. Seven lots of them:

LOW PRICE FOR

Fine Kld Gloves Shrewd buyers will see in this offer acceptable and economical heliday gifts. Only $1.33 Pair

For high-class French kid, 8-clasp la-dles' gloves; browns, tans, grays, pearl and black. Our $1.00 grade. Many stores ask $1.75 for equal quality.

THE LATEST IN OF Ladles' Belts

Just received. Black silk and gold com-binations, and velvet belts, with cut-steel beads, at $1.00 and $1.25 each. Finer velvet belts, with out-steel beads and chenille ends, $1.75 and $2.90 each.

EXCEPTIONAL PRICES IN Women's Wrappers-Autumn Weights

Made with flounced, amply full skirts, fitted waist linings, and most careful fin-ishings throughout. This season's best styles in $2.00 TO $2.00 FLANNELETTE, PERCALE AND BATTNE WRAPPERS. At $1.74 Each Dark, and bright colors, striped or figured designs. Some with ruffled collar and revers; some with yokes, epaulettes, and girdles, braid-trimmed. Neat, comfortable garments. The materials are worth $1.74.

A Magnificent Collection of Automobile Coats

We're proud of these distinguished garments, which include sumptuous imputions, and the best America has produced; both half and three-quarter lengths beauty is in pearl gray, kersey cloth, slik and chenille embroidered and Kriscollar.

Smart New Box Jackets

Castor, tan, brown, Oxford, cardinal and black, with Medici or coat collars, perfectly tailored. Prices $12.50 to $20.00 each,

Correctly Designed Shirts

Perfect fitting shirts is one of our hobbies. Ours are all in graded sizes. Every part of the garment corresponds with the nack size. They're all prices, from 500 up. Some laundered, some unlaundered.

White laundered "O. K." shirts, in Wamsutta muslin, three-ply linen set in bosoms, reinforced backs and fronts, continuous facings in $1.00 ca plackets and sleeves.

Full-dress laundered shirts, with 15-inch set in bosoms of 2000 linen at $1.25 ca SPECIAL PRICES BY THE DOZEN.

OUT WITH A NEW BOOK.

Publication of "Norman Holt,"

Tale of the Civil War.

which is entitled, "Norman Holt."

ing ranks.

Bulletins giving the election returns were read at intervals during the evening.

AGAIN TAKES UP THE PEN man at intervals during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dunbar visited several days in Goldendale during the

Dr. E. F. Hixan returned last Saturday CHARLES KING, FAMOUS NOVELIST, from San Francisco and other California

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Crawford returned Thursday from a six months' of Europe, Frank P. Wagoner returned the first of the week from a month's visit with friends in Nebraska.

Samuel Clark, of Iroquois, Ill., was Samuel Clark of Iroquots, Ill., was a guest of County Treasurer A. H. Parcel several days during the week.

Miss Esther Cohen was given an enjoyable surprise party by about 20 of her friends last Friday evening. Games, music and dancing furnished entertainment until a late hour. Refreshments were served.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON.

Merry Send-Off to Football Eleven on California Trip. EUGENE, Or., Nov. 2.-Having learned just how it happened in Portland, the divided and father and son were in opposuniversity drew a deep collective breath helped the eleven through some band practice and gave it a merry send-off for the Camornia trip. Victory, as the presimists remind us, is out of all hoping, but, knowing that the team will do its best to the last minute of the last helf, there is no cause for shame or fear whatever tale the scores may have to

At assembly Wednesday morning Dean Sanderson, of the Eugene Divinity St. col, lectured very entertainingly on a Summer trip to the Holy Land. The sights and experiences were worth telling, and well told. Dr. Strong added some encouraging remarks apropos of the Southern now being made by the football

The societies held their usual meeting Friday evening, although somewhat han-dicapped by the absence of many m m-bers with the team and rooters. The Philologians had an unusually therough Philoiogians had an unusually therough and enjoyable debate on the election of the President by direct vote. A. H. Baton. '60, and W. V. Tomiinson. '84, were successful on the affirmative, while Fred Stockton. '65, and E. C. Fisher, '66, handled an able case for the negative. The societies are working up g od membership and interest. The Winter's work is appeared to be a superior of the superior of the societies are working up g od membership and interest. The Winter's work is appeared to be superior of the superior of t work is expected to bring out some de-bates to maintain U. O.'s side in the intercollegiate meetings next Spring. Last Friday evening Dr. and Mra. Strong entertained the faculty and their wives. Several of the upper class rirls assisted in serving, and a very charming evening was spent by all. Unofficially our faculty are a very harmonious and learned body.

The Societas Quirinalis, otherwise Class The Societas Quirinalis, otherwise Chassical Club, held its first meeting of the year at the home of Professor Straub on Wednesday evening. Election of officers resulted as follows: Pracess, Susia Bannard, '01; Propraeside, Cole Edwin St. naton, '01; Scriba, Leila Straub, '01; Questor, Grace Wold, '01; Mertina, Walter Whittissay, '05 Sevenil now members. Whittlessy, '01. Several new members were added and interest displayed makes it easy to predict a busy and profitable year for the classicists.

The Christian Associations have start ed classes in Bible study under the lead-ership of C. W. Converse and W. G. Beattle, and enjoy an emphatically good time at every weekly session. Seriously, too, they are doing much useful and earnest work, so the university has rea. son to be glad of their presen

The First Fire. Emma Empsoli in the Academy, Summer is dead, and this her funeral pyre, See how the purple blaze leaps higher and Vanish all sun-born dream and soft deelre.

Throw on all memories of pageant flowers, Of bulbul's song and magic mosnlit bowers, All dear delights of dead, delustre hours! List to the cracking sound, relentless his The crosk of soors for all that fond brief bliss Gray ashes fall-is life and love like this?

Nay, for my face is flushed by that fell glow, and-strangel-my pallid bands fresh impuls

And in my hourt I watch a clear flame glow. Lo. I am ready for adventure true, In storner mood, on rugged highways new; Farewell, dend dreams! since deeds retoain

TOSEKING OLDS & KING EVERY DRY 60005 WANT SUPPLED

There's got to be a good reason for merchandise to gain such prominence. It's easily explained in this case. Richardson's have been the leading lineas of the world for more than a century, against the keenest competition. Comparisons will show that our Richardson's lineas, at usual prices, are cheaper than other makes at special prices. And Richardson's lineas at special prices are entirely beyond

Special This Week-Richardson's Satin Damask Tablecloths 2% YARDS SQUARE, SNOWT WHITE-

14 Feb for 5.75 cioths. 52.58 for $4.25 cioths. 52.58 for $5.50 cioths. 52.50 for $5.50 cioths. 52.70 for $5.50 cioths. 52.70

Dinner Sets—Thanksgiving Prices This is the dainty china to accompany your Richardson linens. Note these timely

NEW SEMIVITREOUS CHINA

Fancy shapes, delicate green decora-50-piece dinner sets, now $1.96. 60-piece dinner sets, now $5.04.

Stylish Street Hats Reduced

Two tables full of latest Autumn ideas in simply trimmed millimery. Styles full of dash and originality, for this week's $1.50 hats at $50 each. $2.50 hats at $1.56 each. $4.00 hats at $2.56 each. Black, castor, gray, navy, cardinal and combination colors.

Stirring Sale of Portleres

All half, one and two-pair lots of tap-estry and chenille portieres. Way below

22.75 portieres, at E2.55. 13.75 portieres, at E2.55. 13.50 portieres, at E3.55. 13.50 portieres, at E3.55. 13.50 portieres, at E3.55. 13.50 portieres, at E3.55. 13.60 portieres, at E3.55. It's folly not to take advantage of this economical chance to beautify your

DON'T DELAT PURCHASING

Blankets and Comforts Because the weather is mild. "cold snap" may surprise you. Now is the best time for selecting. Our lines are complete in Oregon Wool Blankets White $4.50 to $12.00 pair Gray $5.55 14.00 to $10.00 pair There's no question as to their superior ity.

Downaline Comforts The genuine kind, filled with pure flescy, laminated Texas cotton. Prices, $3.00 to $4.00 each.

Special Sale of Black Taffeta Silks

Deep Cut In Colored Dress Goods-Fall Fancy Novelties

Tasty dressers, with economical tastes, cannot fail to appreciate this splendid showing of fancies, checks and plaided effects. All-wool or silk and wool, $1.55 and $1.00 grades at 80c yard; $1.75 and $1.50 grades at $1.00 yard; $2.50, $2.55 and $2.00 grades at $1.65 yard.

Complete Outfits for Little Tots

Childs' Bonnets REGULARLY $1.00, NOW

High "poke" style in bengaline silk with antin bows; cardinal, light blue, navy and brown.

In silk, angors and fine wool; white, red, navy, or with variegated stripes. Prices, 500 and $3.15 each. IN ART SECTION Bables' Pillow Slips

Of fine lines, stamped and part embroid-ered, or in fancy openwork nainsouk. Prices, 600 and 50 each.

dan's Second brigade and becomes famous in the Army, while Malloy, who managed to keep out of the battle, gots home and is made Major in a new regiment. The elder Malloy, meantime, has gained ascendancy over the Lanes. Malloy returns to the front with his new regiment, and, in the presence of Rosecrans, Sheridan and Gardeld, Holt refuses to recognize

Two days later, in the maneuvers in front of Tallahoma, Holt is captured and brought face to face with his brother in Bragg's headquarters. He is taken to Chattanooga as a prisoner, and held until just before Grant's great battle at Mission Ridge, when he escapes in time to lead his regiment and plant the colors on Bragg's works. Meanwhile, Malloy has been busy intriguing against him, and the plot would have worked but for the escape of Captain Wing, who denounces Malloy as a Har and slanderer, and clears pany is called to the field, and on a dark inglight Holt is requested to pilot a raiding force to Belleview, his home. As a soldier he must obey; as a son he shrinks from guiding his superiors to capture his loy deserts to the enemy's lines. Truth Comes Out. financial collapse of Senator Malloy at home. The Holts are financially wrecked by the war and by the Senator's stealings. Norman rises to a Colonelcy and a o girt he loves, and wins back Belleview for his aging father.

In returning to the time of the Civil War for his plot, General King is again on the field of his most brilliant successes. None of his past novels, which won him his reputation as one of the notably vivid fiction writers of this coun-try, is more dramatic in piot and stirring in action than "Divided Duty." The derelopment of the characters in the arress of those troublous times on the border-land between North and South is power-fully handled. One meets, in the pages, real human beings. There is not in the shele story a dull chapter.

In the far North, during the long months of Spring and Summer, the nights are so bright that not a star can be seen in the sky. This Tell ms, ye shining stars that stud the sky, Whither have ye gons? Why hide thyssives From one who dearly loved to gaze upon Thy laughing eyes? In other days and olimes When twilight let her somber curtains down, Mine eyes would seen the joweled concave Of the heavens in search of thee, but the Companions of my nights-diamonds of the Wilt then return in thy refulgent light.

To grace the universe of God, and make shall.
The hearts of men? Shall we yet again.
Bahold thee in thy supernal glory.
Or look upon a starious sky? Ah, yes,
Evest messengers of love-small potein of.
Hetc.

Thou'lt yet appear upon the saure sky In undisturbed repose.

Ah! I remember well the mflky way,
The constellations grand, the joy I felt
When scanning thee. I often asked myself:
Can these he worlds, or planets like our owns Or suns of some wast system round which Other worlds revolve? If a world like ours,
With light, and hest, and air and atmosphera,
Can they be the abode of human beings,
Or homes of the redeemed?

And if the abode of human beings, Have they, too, sinned and fallen short Of life observant And did a Christ appear And die for them, as He died for us? Or by, His death did all mankind in every star Receive the same salvation? With thou Like these, I'd som away till I became Intoxicated with the mysteries Of things divine and unrevented.

But of one thing I am sure, that God Made all things well, and that he wished us all To be contest and pleased. For this he made The rugged mountain and the level plain: The birds to size, the flowers to hid and bloom, The tides to rise and fall, the sky of hims, The grass of green, the sun to skine by day.
The moon by night, the planets to revolve.
And obseranched the sky with glittering stars,
Controlled by an eternal law.

—J. H. Fletcher.

To remove mildew on linen, take equal parts of soft soap and water and let it come to a boil. Put the dry linen into this and leave it for half an hour; then loy, also of Cincinnati, and a friend of the Lanes. His letters of introduction are of the best, and according to the Kentucky custom, he is hospitably welcomed. But his admiration for Dalsy Lane is so evident and his attempts to monopolise her society so persistent, that hostility arises between him and young Heit.

The latter accepts a position in the firm of Macinnyre & Lane, the partners being respectively his uncle and the father.

When the firm of Macinnyre & Lane, the partners being respectively his uncle and the father.

When the firm of Macinnyre & Lane, the partners being respectively his uncle and the father.

When the firm of Macinnyre & Lane, the partners being respectively his uncle and the father.

PORTLAND'S PEOPLE Want the best to be found anywhere. Today's list is from a storeful of the best to be obtained. Best in quality, assortment, style; and, best of all, most reasonable in price. Thanksgiving Sale of Satin Damask Tablecloths Richardson's-the World's Best Linens HAVILAND DECORATED CHINA AMERICAN SEMIVITREOUS CHINA Stuall red rose and gilt decorations; nost shapes, light weight; similar to Havisand chins: 100-piece dinner sets, $11.75 set. 105-piece dinner sets, $17.75 set. 116-piece dinner sets, $17.75 set. DINNER SETS 107 pieces, special, 20.50 set. 100 pieces, special, 22.50 set. 112 pieces, special, 22.50 set. 114 pieces, special, 22.60 set. 117 pieces, special, 22.60 set.

ENGLISH SEMIPORCELAIN Decorations, gold lines and flowers. 57-piece dinner set, now $15.00. 112-piece dinner set, now $12.60

Another one of those fortunate finds for which our buyers are always searching

SECOND FLOOR ANNEX. 'A FEW HINTS, SOME SPECIAL PRICES.

Childs' Toques 73c ea

Bables' Buggy Robes Of elderdown or silk; plain, embroidered or ribbon-trimmed. Prices 30c, $1.00 and $1.25 each.

of his sweetheart. The military ardor of the Winter of 1800-61, when war was in the air, leads Norman Holt to join a local company. War is declared, and Kentucky is rent arunder, in the fierceness of partisan feeling. Dr. Holt and his alder son, Henry, join the Confederate Army, but their influence with Norman is more than offset by his inbred invaling to the fiag. The company which he organized goes to the front for the Union, and he is deprived of a commission through the Oregonian Will Begin Next Sunday deprived of a commission through the scheming of Malloy, aided by his father, a state Benator with a "pull." Norman becomes a private among the boys he once commanded. Their affection and respect help him to do his duty, but Mailoy, who has been appointed a Lieu-tenant, contrives, in various ways, to make his career hard for him. The com-Beginning next Sunday, November 18, The Sunday Oregonian will publish, in successive installments, a new serial, by General (Captain) Charles King, the fapany is called to the field, and on a dark mous writer of stories of the Army, and In this swift and thrilling story of action, General King shows us, in strong father contrast, the brilliant, hospitable home In the conflict that follows, Captain In the conflict that ionows, Uspace, with the Union forces, is captured, together with his aid and orderly, and Norman, in a dazed and exhausted condition, pilots the remnant of the command life of Kentucky, under the old regime, and the harrowing, bitter strife stirred up by the great conflict, when families were back to camp, only to be accused of treachery and placed under guard. Be-Norman Holt, the favorite son of an fore the court-martial is convened, he is Kentucky family, having been repri-anded at West Point for duelling, is and fever, and is sent to the hospital. old Kentucky family, having been repri-manded at West Point for duelling, is an withdrawn from the institution by his While he is there, kind and sympathetic high-spirited father. To brighten up the home-coming, Dr. Holt keeps open house and class a good old fashloned Kentrucks.

THE NATIONAL SWEDISH LADIES QUARTET, WITH "OLE OLSON."

guests is Dalsy Lane, of Cincinnati, daughter of Dr. Holt's attorney, with whom Norman is deeply in love.

Disquiet invades the festivities with the arrival of an unbidden guest, young Matchanges, also of Cincinnati, and a friend of the things of the control of

J: 109.0