

BOER WAR NOT OVER

South Africa Again Engages England's Attention.

LORD ROBERTS' RETURN DELAYED

Death of a Noted Indian Character—Admiralty Will Test a Submarine Boat.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—South Africa threatens once more to absorb public attention in Great Britain. Lord Salisbury, in his speech at the inaugural banquet of the Lord Mayor, in the Guild Hall, last evening, held out little hope of immediate pacification, and the return of Lord Roberts is still problematical, and is certain to be a matter of weeks and perhaps months. One of those most seriously interested and best informed as to the future of the belligerent region, when asked by a representative of the Associated Press what was going to happen and how soon it would happen, replied: "Unfortunately, I am not a minor prophet."

In His Lordship's defense of the War Office, many people believe they saw open threats to Lord Wolsey, and in the sharp retort to Lord Wolsey's recent criticisms, Lord Salisbury drew attention to the enforced silence in which Lord Lansdowne (the late Secretary of State for War) was obliged to stand quiet for the faults of the army officers. He warned his hearers that if the criticism was persisted in the time might come when his silence would be broken and the sword would be laid heavily and publicly on the right shoulders, though he deprecated having recourse to that.

A curious feature connected with the war was Mrs. Richard Chamberlain's vigorous attack on the army hospitals before the hospital commission last week. The spectacle of a woman who had been an extraordinary sister-in-law of the Colonial Secretary sitting two hours before that grave Tory and teaching a man like Justice Rohmer his business created no little sensation. But for the woman who took out to South Africa 500 hot-water bags and reorganized the charities, and who had the reputation of being the most individual ever known to affect the judgment of the Chamberlain brothers, the task was comparatively light.

The death of the Maharajah of Patiala at Simla November 5 removes one of the best and most interesting products of Anglo-Indian rule. He was the first reigning Prince to blend the elements of the British gentility and the Indian potentate. Educated at Cambridge, he returned to India and put in force in his rich kingdom the reforms which he had carefully absorbed in England. He was a most capable ruler for women, establishing orphanages, drilling troops, sending them to help a British expedition and leading them personally. It was one of his keenest disappointments when such a subject to serve in South Africa. But he was not only a just and enlightened ruler. He became the best polo player in India, was a fearless rider, a good swimmer, and was one of the finest amateur billiardists of the day. The deceased was a close friend of Lord William Balfour, Lord Roberts, and other well-known subjects. He was a passionately fond of horses, and imported a splendid stud and an Irish expert named Bryan to be Master of Horse at Patiala.

With Bryan went his daughter, and the Prince fell desperately in love with her. She was betrothed to a young man, but she was eventually abandoned, and she eventually accepted the Prince. She was accompanied by her husband during a campaign in the icy Himalayas, where she died of pneumonia. He was the head of his silent army, the Prince brought back the body hundreds of miles to Patiala, where the remains were cremated with the Sikh rite, which this week were accorded to himself.

The determination of the American steel manufacturers to invade the English market is not apparently inhering the English trade to any great extent, judging from the opinions of the master cutler of Sheffield, the head of one of the greatest steel organizations in the country, who is a representative of the Associated Press: "I do not believe American trade in steel rails in England will amount to much. Every manufacturer gets a little surplus, which, if he can find a market, is a clear profit. We are getting the American surplus, and believe they are selling cheaper here than in their own country. When such a situation becomes serious, it will be necessary for the American manufacturers to devote more to their surplus to the market. When they do, I believe they will find that the market is not so large as they suppose. Business here is as good as ever, and promises to remain so. I cannot say we have yet felt the pinch of American rivalry."

Thornycroft, England's torpedo-boat builder, has been expressing interesting opinions on submarine boats. He does not believe it necessary for Great Britain to build submarine boats, even if the experiments of other nations have been quite successful. He is carefully studying the problem of devising a submarine destroyer, should it ever be necessary. He regards the American submarine boat as the best type yet made, but he doubts its efficacy, even for harbor defense. "A shell torpedo in the neighborhood of a submarine boat," said Mr. Thornycroft, "and exploded either level with or below it, would afford sufficient shock to crumple up the boat. Protection of a submarine boat of our own will not help you to find an enemy. They are at present of too limited range and insufficient propelling power to be a really serious factor, and the problem of keeping a level under water is yet to be solved. If I ever have to go under water with a submarine boat, I will prefer to sit outside."

In spite of the pessimism of Mr. Thornycroft, the Admiralty has at last decided to grant a submarine boat, designed by A. Howard, of Tasmania, an official trial.

THIRTY-FIVE TO NOTHING

YALE'S DECISIVE VICTORY OVER CARLEISE INDIANS.

Northwestern Defeated Chicago, Harvard Defeated Brown, Pennsylvania Defeated La Fayette.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 10.—The surprise of even the most ardent of her admirers Yale this afternoon rolled up a score of 35 points against the Carlisle Indians in the annual football contest between the teams of the two institutions, while the Indians failed to get nearer Yale's goal than the Bayard line. The Yale eleven played with unusual strength and the speed and dash of the Carlisle players was remarkable in their strength. The experts, however, in commenting on the probabilities of the coming Yale-Harvard game claim that while Yale's work today was equal to that of Harvard's against the same team, the Indians lacked that vigor and finish of play that characterized their 8 to 17 effort against the Cambridge boys. Yale's goal line was never in danger in today's great contest. Once the Carlisle players reached the Yale 20-yard line, there to be held. By means of old-time Yale interference, Yale managed to pull off many end runs, the dashes of Pincke and Dupree standing out as the star events. The sensational run of the day was that by Pincke, the Yale half back, the first half, when he sealed a blocked kick and ran behind splendid interference 90 yards for a touchdown. He and Dupree alternated with 20 and 25-yard runs and they were relieved by line plunger by Captain Brown and Tackle Stullman. The line-up was as follows:

Touchdowns—Yale, 5. Goals—Yale, 5. DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 10.—The University of Iowa defeated the University of Michigan at Bennett Park today, 35 to 6. Iowa's first touchdown was scored after one minute of play. Iowa scored two more touchdowns in the second half. By hard line bucking early in the second half, Michigan worked the ball to Iowa's 40-yard line, only to lose it on downs. Iowa then worked it right back up the field until Edson was hurled through the Michigan line for the fourth down. After Michigan had kicked off, a punt was put back on Michigan's 10-yard line, and Morton carried it over for Iowa's fifth touchdown. Iowa held for downs on her 20-yard line, and twice she pushed out. Weber had a fair catch. An Iowa kicker, however, as he caught the ball, and the referee penalized Iowa 10 yards and the Iowa team kicked. Sweeney kicked a beautiful goal, and Michigan was saved the ignominy of a shut-out.

Under-Secretary for War. LONDON, Nov. 10.—The Associated Press, in London, has announced the appointment of the Under-Secretary of State for War.

WELCOME TO BULLER.

Freedom of the City of Southampton Conferred Upon Him.

SOUTHAMPTON, Nov. 10.—This city was in gala attire today, and thousands of citizens gathered to witness the presentation of the Freedom of the City to General Buller. The ceremony was held in the city hall, and the general was welcomed by the mayor and other officials. The general, who was in the city on his way to South Africa, was accompanied by his family. The ceremony was a grand affair, and the general was highly pleased with the honor conferred upon him.

Dewet the Real Leader.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: General Dewet is now the real leader of the Boer cause, and his prestige will be impaired by his recent ignominious defeat. At a dinner given at the Waldorf-Astoria, the general was the guest of honor. He was accompanied by his family, and the dinner was a grand affair. The general was highly pleased with the honor conferred upon him.

THE BLYTHE ESTATE.

Another Claimant Appears—He is Now in Jail.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Jacob Haffner, who has spent the greater part of the last 12 years in state prisons, made a statement today and produced letters and other evidence which he claims entitles him to a share of the Blythe estate. The estate, which was valued at $1,000,000, was left by the late Charles Blythe. Haffner was arrested on the charge of fraud, and is now in jail. The case is being heard in court.

It is on record in the probate court of Cook County, Illinois, that Charles Blythe died at the West Side Hospital in 1897. Haffner was in Danemora prison at the time. Charles Blythe had lived for several years at 234 West Madison street, in Chicago. He was practically a hermit. There was a great suspicion when it was found that he had left $2,000 in United States and Chicago City bonds. His heirs were advertised for and Albert Pearcey, of Glenville, N. Y., who professed to be a brother, appeared. Upon his testimony, the property was divided and he and his brother, James Haffner, were released in April last. He went to Chicago and produced what purported to be the last will and statement of Charles Blythe. He engaged a lawyer and endeavored to have the will reopened. The lawyer carried proceedings to a point where a considerable fund for expenses was necessary, and when this was not forthcoming dropped the matter. This was in September last. This will, which is now on file in Cook County, Illinois, contains the clause: "I give, devise and bequeath to my brother, Charles Pearcey, of Chicago, $50,000." It is under this article that Haffner claims his share of the Blythe estate.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing the disease, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the night, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery, free of charge, by sending a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. The second round was all Ryan's and he hit Thorne again and the latter being unable to come back with any effect. In the third round, Thorne became ambulant and made several leads at Ryan. The latter, however, was quick to take advantage of the situation and shot in the counter that ended the fight.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR GAINING MEDICAL FEES

COST OF SKILLED TREATMENT UNDER THE COPELAND SYSTEM

Chronic Sufferers Properly Cared For at Actually Less Than One-Fifth the Usual Outlay—Superior Efficiency of the System Now Quite Generally Conceded.

The Copeland physicians, in their conscientious effort to provide for the proper care and treatment of chronic diseases, generally, at fees which are less than one-fifth of those usually exacted and less than one-tenth of those too frequently exacted, have not been unmindful of the following points: First, that the people of the great main body of society stood in deep and urgent need of some such reformatory measure that the awful frequency with which chronic invalids sink hopelessly and helplessly to death from sheer inability to secure the attentive and continuous help of those physicians who make a study and a specialty of chronic infirmities was in itself an appeal to the humanity of the medical profession which could not be overlooked without the incurrance of a truly responsible loss of human life. Second, the Copeland physicians in mind that the arrangement of public health, not to say the true and pure humanity of professional services offered to all sufferers at strictly nominal expense, was a measure of the most just and the most merciful on the worth or the worthless.
