The Wednesday Night Assembly. This deservedly popular club gave another of its delightful dances Wednesday night at Burkhard's Hall. There was the usual number present, and as the music was excellent, the floor in perfect condition and the dancers light of foot and light of heart, "all went merry as a marriage bell," and the affair was pro-

Twentieth Century.

The Twentieth Century Club danced Thursday night at Parsons Hall to the sound of sweet music. There were the usual pretty girls in evidence, and they displayed some charming toilets. Either the young women of Portland are growing loveller in face and figure every Win-ter or they are learning how to make the most of their charms. For at every party given thus far this season dozens of beautiful and graceful girls make the scene a delight to the eyes. True, the present fashions may have something to do with it all, for there has never been a time since the days of the French Empire when gowns were at once so simple, so elegant and becoming as at present.

Sunday Afternoon.

Mrs. Altman invited a number of people to Beten to Count Wachmeister last Sunday afternoon. The Count's musical abilliy has certainly been warmly appre-ciated in Portland, and the Count himself has made a most pleasant impres sion upon all who have had the good fortune to meet him. "We must make the most of him." remarked one charming woman, with a gay little laugh, "because, you know, we don't often get hold of a title in this corner of the globe," .

Mrs. Dekum's at liome. The really notable event of the week, Mrs. Adolph Dekum's at Some, occurred Saturday afternoon, too late to give in this issue. A full account of the affair for which over 200 invitations were sent out, will be given next week.
Mrs. Eggert's reception at the Hobart-Curtis will also be mentioned more particularly next week, since it, too, occurred on Saturday afternoon.

Wedding Bells.

The marriage of Miss Charlotte M. Clark, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, of this city, to Mr. William R. Apperson will take place at Trinity Church, Thursday evening at 6 o'clock, and will be an elegant affair.

Several Parties Talked Of. There are several parties talked of for best week, and the week following. On the Sith the Nineteen Hundred Club will dance at Parsons Hall. They will be followed by the "Yeller Millers" on the Sith. At Foreman's Hall on the Sith Mrs. Nine Larowe will give another of her delightful dances. There will also be given on the Eth at Arion Hall a party which is to eclipse all preceding ones. The fol-lowing young gentlemen are interesting themselves to make it the event of the month: Gus Gritzmacher, Gus Pfunder, Dr. Henry Meyer, Dr. Henry Schmidt, J. Hellar and Ferdinand Dammasch. Wells-Wilson. Wednesday, at Trinity Church, at 7:45 in the evening, Mr. Almen Valance Wells was married to Miss Sara Wilson, of Victoria. Dr. Morrison performed the ceremony, during which the soft strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin" were heard. The bride wors white organdie with veil and carried a bouquet of roses and white carnations. She was giv-en away by Mr. T. F. Pisher. The bridesmaids, Miss Bess M. Wells and Miss May A. Wilson, were lovely in pink or-gandle and chiffen, and were arm bouquets of white chrymanthemums. The ushers were Mr. Andrew Allen, Dr. T. C. Perkins, Mr. George Hall and Mr. H. Gardner, all of Buttery A. Six hundred guests witnessed the church service, after which there was a reception at the resi-dence of the bride's aunt, Mes. Mary Wilson, corner Third and Hall streets. The house was artistically decorated with fes-toons of ivy and banks of cut flowers and potted plants and palms. Among those coming from a distance to attend this wedding were Mrs. A. H. Wells, of East. ern Creson: Mrs. Walter Wilson, of Victoria, and Miss Trapeley, of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Wells will be at home to their friends after December 1,
